Abstract:	The Lansing Local History Pamphlet Collection (LLHPC) is an intentional collection aggregated over several decades, dealing mostly with Lansing Michigan. It contains ephemera, photographs, publications and some small artifacts.

Preferred Citation:

[Item], Lansing Local History Pamphlet Collection, Forest Parke Library & Archives, Capital Area District Library.

Collection Scope and Content Note:

The Lansing Local History Pamphlet Collection (LLHPC) is composed of numerous separate collections, covering diverse subjects. The LLHPC developed over several decades. Staff combined collections due to lack of provenance documentation. An effort has been made to identify provenance, and return items to their collection of origin if feasible.

Arrangement:

Records organized into twenty-seven series: Abstracts; Annual reports; Arts and Entertainment; Biography; Business; Clubs; Disasters; Education; Genealogy; Government; Healthcare; History; Industry; Labor; Library; Local Authors; Michigan; Military; Natural Resources; Oddities; Organizations; Parks and Recreation; Religion; Social Life and Customs; Sports; Tourism; and Transportation. Series are arranged alphabetically. The final two boxes are oversize boxes. To use items designated as fragile please contact the Local History Reference Librarian.
