

THE COUNTY.

FITCHBURG.
Charles Waterhouse, aged seventeen years, died after a short illness Oct. 10. A post mortem examination of the body made by Drs. Coulton and Williams, proved that the diagnosis of the case made by Dr. Coulton was correct.

George Morsehouse, while on his way to the Stockbridge fair, was thrown from his buggy and severely injured. Chas. VanGelsken was taken to the insane asylum at Kalamazoo, Ont. By this child calamity Burkholder lost his only child and one of our best farmhands.

The delegates to the district lodge from Fitchburg lodge are Miss Frances Haley, Mrs. Carrie Eckel, Mrs. Margaret Fosson, Thos. Garritt and James Thibault.

Two successful democratic orators spoke at the DeCamp school-house, on Wednesday evening, so far as to disgust their audience.

UNADILLA.
A few days ago there was a harness maker come to Fitchburg to get into business for some years to come. He is the son of Wm. W. Tanner.

John Barrack looks very pleasant now-days. Cause a boy, Mrs. Mary Dunning of Sturgis, St. Joseph county is visiting her mother, who is teaching, Mrs. D. is the daughter of D. B. Blair.

Dr. McIntyre of Wisconsin is visiting his mother, brothers and sisters, who reside in Unadilla and Stockbridge.

Mr. Hemmingway of Unadilla has a brother here at the residence of Mrs. N. Y. who reports crops as generally better than the dry weather in his state.

Mrs. Rachel Holt of Perry, Sturgis county, is visiting her relations in Unadilla and Stockbridge.

George Healy of Lansing is looking over the city.

The pulpit of the Baptist church in Unadilla, was filled by the Rev. Wm. Putnam on Sunday, Oct. 10.

DELI.
The orchardists are very busy gathering apples.

An evening of song, Oct. 6, was splendidly attended.

Dr. L. N. Chadwick attends to all kinds of family medicine.

James Wegman is doing a good business packing and shipping apples.

J. S. Whitbeck, M. D., has some opinions from the people.

Wm. North is attending the law school in the University at Ann Arbor.

Last Saturday, Oct. 9, was a good day for republicans in district No. 2. George F. Gillen, R. C. Clifton, S. and Capt. Edward Cahill of Lansing, made ringing speeches in favor of the republican nomination for congress, our republican nominee for congress, made telling speeches. Our republican nominee for sheriff, Cahill, C. C. Nichols and Timothy Zanders of Lansing, "spouted" in Union hall Saturday evening, Oct. 9, to a goodly number of our citizens in favor of the republican nomination.

(cont.) held order in session here this week.

Capt. E. P. Allen addressed a large audience at Union hall Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Nellie Godfrey teaches the school in the district school.

Rev. Mr. Watts is moving his goods and family into the Congregational parsonage.

S. Steiler's mill is broken down. He has gone to Ann Arbor today for repairs.

[In the correspondence from Kinnville last week, we made an item read that W. W. Winters had been presented with a pair of twins. This was true, but they were twin calves, and it was so stated by our excellent correspondent from Kinnville, but by some careless penman, the item got abbreviated in such a way as to put Mr. Winters, who is an estimable single gentleman, at the head of a family of twins. Hence, we cheerfully make this explanation.

ALAIEDON.
G. Follows and W. Butler carried off the first premium on their horses at the county fair at Battle Creek.

G. Washburn has traded his farm for city property in Lansing, and is moving to that city.

The democrats are not very proud of their fraudulent majority in the southern states. Mattie, Verport and mixed again today, with Miss Nellie Godfrey from Leslie presiding.

Five of the Advents who went to evening at Battle Creek are expected home to-day.

Mr. Nettie Davis of Kalamazoo is visiting relatives in this place, and seems to enjoy country life.

Hand shaking and snuffing faces of the school children are yet to be seen.

Frank Osgood gives R. A. Montgomery the democratic candidate for congress, and credit or more honesty than he does the average democrat.

Four of the Advents who went to evening at Battle Creek are expected home to-day.

Congressional Ticket. For Congress, 5th District, OLIVER L. SPAULDING, of Clinton.

Legislative Ticket. For State Senator, 10th District, JOHN S. TOMLINSON, of Grand Haven.

County Ticket. For Sheriff, HARRY O. GALL, of Grand Haven.

For Treasurer, CLAUDE C. WALKER, of Grand Haven.

For Justice of Probate, GEORGE F. GILHAM, of Grand Haven.

For Prosecuting Attorney, RUSSELL C. STRANDBERG, of Grand Haven.

For Surveyor, AARON P. DIKAKE, of Grand Haven.

For Circuit Court Commissioners, CHARLES F. HAMMOND, ALONZO B. HAYNES, of Grand Haven.

For Coroner, JACOB SWITZGABLE, JOHN J. TUTTLE, of Grand Haven.

'Lost Cause,' and the people of White county (the home of Dill)...

MARKING THE FIGURES 329, like fooling with the 18-14-14 dodge has proven an unaccounted man, harmful only to those who indulge in it.

EVERY candidate on the republican county ticket, from sheriff to coroner, is worthy of the support of every citizen.

It has been well said that the man who is best educated is he who knows the most things worth knowing.

This wind storm of Saturday night and Sunday proved frightfully disastrous on the lakes.

Gen. Hancock has written a letter to Gov. Randolph within a few days, in which he announces to his astonished party that he is in favor of an "incidentally protective" tariff.

THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS, headed by Gen. P. Spafford of Lansing, visited forty-three grims and waiting cronies in Detroit, last evening, and leaving themselves low before the forecasted disciples of inflation, humbly begged for a favor.

Went the earth and azure sky, and greets the democratic eye, with face of despair. The brightness which came to southern late, will be a little bit for late, in getting in votes enough to elect.

W. W. Leeson and F. C. Woodworth of Paris, have done excellent work during the present campaign. Their meetings are highly spoken of everywhere.

The following are the Clark house premiums awarded at the county fair: Best weighing calf, Mrs. C. Hilliard, Delhi; best three leaved clover, Mrs. J. L. Clark, Marshall.

The liquor men have issued 200,000 bogus republican tickets, with the names of living and dead names of governor and lieutenant-governor on them.

Rev. J. C. Bayden preached at the Baptist church last Sunday, in the presence of a large congregation. He was very successful in his efforts.

Wheat, 60 cents. Corn, 35 cents. Oats, 25 cents. Hay, 1.50 per ton. The market is quiet and prices are steady.

Next Wednesday evening, Nov. 3, the G. L. S. C. will give a public meeting at the house of Dr. J. C. Bayden. This meeting is for the purpose of discussing the merits of the candidates.
