

DIED.

In this City, on the 20th inst., of congestion of the lungs, Mr. ANSEL ADAMS, aged 59 years, 11 months and 9 days.

The deceased was born in Marcellus, Onondaga county N. Y. At an early day he emigrated to Michigan, and settled in Burlington, Calhoun county—but for the last eight years has been a resident of this city. He had long been an exemplary member of the M. E. Church. He was also a worthy brother of the Masonic Fraternity by whom he was buried with Masonic honors.

Mr. Adams was strictly honest, generous, and warm-hearted—an affectionate husband, a devoted father, a zealous christian, and an honored and useful member of society. While we mourn his loss, may we seek to emulate his virtues.

Com.

FATAL TERMINATION.— The sad accident that befell Mrs. E. E. Beebe, of this city, that of being badly burned, which we mentioned two weeks since, terminated fatally on Monday morning last. Her sufferings have been intense, but hopes were entertained by many that she would recover, until two or three days before her decease. The peculiar circumstances under which Mrs. Beebe came to her death, and the vast amount of suffering she has been compelled to endure, makes the blow fall with a keener sensibility of sorrow upon the family and friends of the deceased, and will leave an impress upon this community that will endure forever.

Beebe, Elmina, 1817-1863, Lansing Republican,
October 7 1863, p. 3

In this city, on the 5th instant, Mrs. ELMINA BEEBE wife of E. E. BEEBE, aged 47 years.

Casualties in the 11th Michigan.
Correspondence of the Advertiser and Tribune.

Chattanooga, Dec. 1st, 1863.

The following is a correct list of the casualties in the 11th Michigan Regiment in the gallant charge on Missionary Ridge, Nov. 25th, 1863:

Major Benjamin G Bennett, killed.

Quartermaster Sergt James W King, severely wounded; arm.

COMPANY A.

Bingham, Laura, 1829-1863, Lansing Republican,
October 21 1863, p. 3

DIED.

In Bennington, Vt., September 1, 1863, LAURA BING-HAM, daughter of Dea. Stephen Bingham, aged 34 years.

Bingham, Sophronia, 1791-1863, Lansing Republican,
October 21 1863, p. 3

Also, at the same place, October 12th, Mrs. SOPHRO-NIA, wife of Dea. Stephen Bingham, aged 72 years and 6 months.

CASUALTIES — We are pained to announce that Capt. Jos. Mason, of Company G, 3d Mich. Infantry, is in the list of those reported killed in the late battles on the Rappahannock. Capt. Mason was a member of the Company at the time of its being mustered into the service, having joined it as a private and been elected Orderly Sergeant. From that position he rose by regular gradations to the rank of Captain. He was a genial, warm-hearted man, and a brave and efficient officer. Although he was a resident of DeWitt, Clinton county, his enlistment in a Lansing Company made him regarded as one of our own soldiers, and he has here a large circle of friends that mourn his loss.

Capt. James H. Baker, of Company C, 1st U. S. Sharp Shooters, is reported slightly wounded in the left breast. A large number of casualties is reported in Capt. Baker's Company—among them is 1st Lieut. Brewer, killed. We believe that this Company has nobly distinguished itself.

Calkins, William Andrew, 1843-1863, Lansing Republican,
January 28 1863, p. 3

In the Lincoln Hospital, Washington, D. C., on Saturday January 3, 1863, WILLIAM ANDREW CALKINS, private, Co. A., 20th Michigan Infantry, aged 20 years, 11 months and 18 days.

THE DISEASE AT THE REFORM SCHOOL.

—We have received the following communication from the Physician at the Reform School:

“City of Lansing, Feb 24, '63.

“EDITOR OF REPUBLICAN—DEAR SIR:—AS several papers in our State have given an alarming account of an ‘epidemic,’ which appeared in this city some two weeks since, and many having children in the Reform School have thereby become somewhat alarmed, I would say that the disease, (Cerebro Spinal Meningitis,) appeared in the School in a very violent form. Twelve boys were afflicted with it, and four died, viz: Richard Frother, and Wm. Campbell of Wayne county; Andrew Lockwood, of Kalamazoo, and John Sprague, of St Clair county. The others are getting well. It has been now about a week since any new cases have appeared, and I think the influence of the disease has nearly or quite disappeared.

It has been entirely confined to the School—with a single exception—and I think that institution will speedily recover its accustomed good health.

By allowing this a place in your paper, and requesting other papers in the State to copy therefrom, you will no doubt confer a great favor upon parents having children in the Reform School. Respectfully yours,

J. B. HULL,
Physician to Reform School.

DIED.

On the 9th inst., at the residence of Cyrus Everett, in the township of Lansing, CLAUDIUS S. CARR, brother of Frank C. Carr, of this city.

He had been living with Mr. Everett, the past year. On Saturday evening last, while he was watering and putting out the team which he was accustomed to handle, one of the horses kicked him in the face so severely as to prove fatal 33 hours afterwards. He was a lad about 17 years of age, quiet and steady in his habits.

L. B. P.

Chadwick, Mary Rosabel, 1862-1862, Lansing Republican,
September 16 1863, p. 3

DIED.

In this city on the 10th inst., MARY ROSABEL, youngest child, and only daughter of A. M. and Ann D. Chadwick, aged 13 months and 29 days.

From the Army.

CAMP WINDHAM, NEAR WASHINGTON, }
July 30 1862. }

I. M. CRAVATH—Dear Sir :—With your permission I would redeem my promise to a friend in Lansing, in giving, through the columns of the Republican all the information I can obtain about the friends in this and other regiments. It is much easier to get accurate information at home than here. I have been unable to reach the regiment, which was on the extreme front. A camp being established in this city under command of Col. Percy Windham for dismounted cavalry, detachments and stragglers, where they are mounted and equipped, kept for the defences of the city or sent to their regiments, being unable to get a pass to the front, am required to remain here until further orders.

Our cavalry has seen hard service for the past month. They have been in the saddle night and day, so that the men and horses are worn out. A detachment is now in the city for fresh horses. It would be useless to say that they have done good service. Armed with Spencer rifles, seven shooters, posted as skirmishers, they mowed down the rebels in columns, or, on the charge, they have swept them like a tornado.

We regret the death of George Clark, Regimental Armorer, shot by accidental discharge of his own pistol. The following persons I have seen and report well. H. H. Norton, W. W. Olds, S. Bloomburg, S. Scammon. Heard from D. Parker, H. G. Lewis, G. Tucker, Lt. S. Segar. The Regiment is a few miles beyond Warrenton, Va.

Yours Respectfully,

J. SOMERVILLE.

Corcoran, Mary, 1814-1863, Lansing Republican,
December 9 1863, p. 3

D I E D .

In Woodhull, Shiawassee Co., after a brief illness,
MARY, wife of Barnard Corcoran, aged 44 years.

May her soul rest in peace.

D I E D .

In this city, April 5, 1863, of congestive fever, JESSE ROBINSON, infant son of John A. and Mary E. Crossman, aged 11 months and 10 days.

"Sweet bud of Earth's wilderness, rified an Eternal Fond eyes have wept o'er thee, fond hearts still will mourn;

The spoiler hath come with his cold withering breath,
And the loved and the cherished lies silent in Death.

"He felt not the burden and heat of the day,
He hath passed from this Earth and its sorrows away,
With the dew of the morning yet fresh on his brow;
Sweet bud of Earth's wilderness, where art thou now?

"Who cometh to meet him, with light on her brow,
What Angel form greets him so tenderly now?
'Tis your own sainted mother, springs onward to bear,
The bird of her love from this region of care.

"She beareth him on to the realm of repose,
Where no cloud ever gathers, no storm ever blows;
For the Saviour calls home to the mansions above,
This sweet lovely floweret in mercy and love."

COM.

Cyrus, Corp, 1863, Lansing Republican,
May 13 1863, p. 3

The following are the casualties:

Killed—Lient. Green, Co. A; G. W. Hugh-
eson, Co. D; Corp. Cyrus, Co. H.

Dart, Geroge W, 1824-1863, Lansing Republican,
July 22 1863, p. 3

D I E D .

In this city on the 14th inst., GEORGE W. DART, late of Toledo, Ohio, aged twenty-nine years, five months and four days.

Davis, Melissa R, 1831-1863, Lansing Republican,
September 5 1863, p. 3

D I E D .

In Mason, August 25th, 1863, MELISSA R., wife of Dr.
R. H. Davis, aged 32 years.

Day, John, 1863, Lansing Republican,
December 10 1863, p. 1

COMPANY K.

Corp John Day. color bearer ; killed:

Dexter, Samuel W, 1863, Lansing Republican,
February 25 1863, p. 3

D I E D .

In Dexter, February 6th, of disease of the heart, Hon.
SAMUEL W. DEXTER, in the 69th year of his age.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A frightful accident occurred in this city on Thursday last, at the saw mill of E Parmalee, Esq., resulting in the death of Mr. Daniel Dickinson. The circumstances were as follows: In sawing, when the log first strikes the saw the front end tips, protruding somewhat over the end of the carriage, and they had been in the habit of using a small lever to raise the end of the log so as to clear the shaft upon which the saw runs, being a regular circular mill saw. The deceased was performing this act, using a small strip of board for a lever, when it is supposed to have slipped, and coming in contact with the saw, which runs at lightning speed, it was thrust upward in a violent manner, one end striking him on the side of the face, just above the jaw bone, and puncturing its way to the brain, causing death in a short time afterward. The details of the accident are of the most sickening character, and can be better imagined than described.

Douglass, John A, 1830-1863, Lansing Republican,
March 25 1863, p. 3

ulate his virtues.

COM.

In the Armory street hospital, Washington, D. C., Feb. 14th, 1863, Mr. JOHN A. DOUGLASS, formerly of Delhi, Ingham Co., aged 33 years, 2 months, and 14 days,

In answer to the call of his country, Mr. Douglass patriotically responded. In the hour of his country's peril, he rushed to its rescue. He enlisted August 2d, 1863, in Co. A, 20th Regiment Michigan Infantry. In reading a letter from his Captain, I found he was generally beloved by all his comrades, and especially by those who best knew him. In his fall our Nation has lost a patriot, our people a good citizen. A tender parent and an agreeable husband is fallen.

COM.

A WEEK OF ACCIDENTS.—During the week past a number of casualties, of the most severe character, have occurred in our city. On Tuesday last, a child, about six years of age, of Mr. Downs, was severely injured, and died in the course of a few hours afterwards. The child was climbing into a swing at home, and was doing so by means of a common highback child's chair, when the chair tipped over backward, and the child fell on its abdomen across the seat of it, and received internal injuries which caused its death in a few hours.

Downs, Frank, 1857-1863, Lansing Republican,
October 14 1863, p. 3

D I E D.

In the township of Lansing, on the 7th inst., of injuries received from a fall on the day previous, FRANK S., youngest son of J. W. and Lydia Downs, aged 6 years.

DEATH OF LIEUT. M. ELDER.—Our city has been called to mourn the loss of another of its citizens in the death of Matthew Elder, 1st Lieutenant of Company "B," 11th Regulars, U. S. A. Lieut. Elder was wounded at the battle of Gettysburgh, on the 2d of July, and died on the 25th inst, at a hospital near the battlefield. His record is an honorable one. At the breaking out of the Mexican war, he was one of the first to enlist in the service of his country. He participated in the battle of Monterey, and served through the war with honor. On the formation of a military company in this city in June, 1861, he was elected Captain, and joined the 8th Michigan Regiment.

He was with his regiment at the taking of Hilton Head, in the battle of Coesaw, and at the capture of Fort Pulaski. Immediately after the latter event, he was transferred to the 11th Regulars, and was with his regiment at the battle of Chancellorville. The Regiment belonged to the 5th Army corps, then commanded by General Meade. At the battle of Gettysburgh, the 5th corps rendered important aid in checking the effort of Gen. Lee to flank our army on the left, and it was in that engagement that Lieut. Elder received the wound that sealed his fate.

He leaves a family and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss, and his name is added to the long list of those who died for their country. Truly

"The path of glory leads but to the grave."

His body, which was embalmed, reached this city on Tuesday, and the funeral will take place from his late residence on Sunday next, at one o'clock P. M. The body will be buried with Masonic honors; Masons will assemble at the Lodge Room at 12 o'clock. All Masons in this vicinity and the friends of the deceased are invited to attend the funeral.

THE DISEASE AT THE REFORM SCHOOL.

—We have received the following communication from the Physician at the Reform School:

“City of Lansing, Feb 24, '63.

“EDITOR OF REPUBLICAN—DEAR SIR:—As several papers in our State have given an alarming account of an ‘epidemic,’ which appeared in this city some two weeks since, and many having children in the Reform School have thereby become somewhat alarmed, I would say that the disease, (Cerebro Spinal Meningitis,) appeared in the School in a very violent form. Twelve boys were afflicted with it, and four died, viz: Richard Frother, and Wm. Campbell of Wayne county; Andrew Lockwood, of Kalamazoo, and John Sprague, of St. Clair county. The others are getting well. It has been now about a week since any new cases have appeared, and I think the influence of the disease has nearly or quite disappeared.

It has been entirely confined to the School—with a single exception—and I think that institution will speedily recover its accustomed good health.

By allowing this a place in your paper, and requesting other papers in the State to copy therefrom, you will no doubt confer a great favor upon parents having children in the Reform School. Respectfully yours,

J. B. HULL,

Physician to Reform School.

SUDDEN DEATH.—R. R. Gibson, Esq., died suddenly at his residence in this city, on Friday last, after a brief illness, in the 49th year of his age. Although afflicted with that most terrible of all diseases, consumption, and liable at any time to be taken away, his sudden demise was entirely unexpected to his many friends in this community. Mr. Gibson was well known throughout the State, having held the position of Deputy Secretary of State for a number of years, during the ascendancy of the Democratic party in this State. He held the position of Treasurer of this city at the time of his death, which position he had filled for one or two terms. He was a man much respected in this community, and the possessor of a large number of warm friends. He was one of Nature's noblemen, an honest man. None knew him but to respect him, none made his acquaintance but to love and honor him. He leaves a widow and three children to mourn his untimely departure. He was buried with Masonic honors on Monday last.

Gillett, George S, 1863, Lansing Republican,
December 10 1863, p. 1

IT IS THE POLITICAL OPINION OF THE EDITOR, THAT THE FOLLOWING IS THE COMPANY D.

Geo S Gillett, killed.

COMPANY E.

Godfrey, Thomas, 1810-1863, Lansing Republican,
December 30 1863, p. 2

DIED.

At his residence, in Tompkins, Jackson county, on the 23d inst., THOMAS GODFREY, aged 53 years.

Among the numerous victims selected by the Grand Destroyer, few there are whose last sad exit causes more universal gloom.

A SAD ANNOUNCEMENT.—It is our sad and painful duty to announce the death of another of the brave sons that our city has sent forth to lay down their lives for their country. Lieut. Wm. M. Greene, of Company A, 20th Michigan Infantry, is no more. He fell in an engagement which occurred on Sunday last, near Monticello, Kentucky. The account containing the news of this mournful event thus speaks of the conduct of the 20th Michigan Regiment:

“The 20th, commanded by Lieut. Col Smith, attacked the rebels with desperate energy, and charged upon them, drove them in wild confusion to their reserves, when their superior number being discovered our men retired in good order. The fighting was of the severest character.

Morgan discovering that he greatly outnumbered us, sent in a demand for our surrender, but as Michigan men have no such word in their vocabulary, it was instantly refused. The enemy's loss was very severe; ours is given below.

Col. Smith and Major Cutcheon threw aside their swords and seizing a musket, went with their men into the thickest of the fight.

The following are the casualties :

Killed—Lieut. Green, Co. A ; G. W. Hugheson, Co. D ; Corp. Cyrus, Co. H.

Wounded—Geo. H. Silbe, Co. A, (missing);
J. W. Knapp, Co. A ; W. Raynard, Co. A slightly ; David Demarest, Co. C ; — Welch
Co. C ; Walter Hathaway, Co. E, slightly ; Capt.
Montgomery, Co. G, slightly ; John Zebly, Co.
E, slightly ; David S. Murrel, Co. H ; Chas. Benham, Co. I ; Jacob Realy, Co. K, slightly.

Missing—Sheldon Throop, Co. C ; James
VanArmen, Co. H ; Geo. W. Vreeland.

Taken prisoners—Lieut. Louis Berry, Co. I ;
(wounded ;) Lieut. Knight, Co. H ; Jonathan
Fry, Co. D, (wounded.)”

We believe this to have been the first time our noble 20th has come in collision with the enemy, and in this, its first engagement, young Greene was one of the first to fall ! He is said to have been an excellent officer, beloved by his men, and full of promise for the future. What hopes fell with him ! We tender to his bereaved friends our warmest sympathies, and assure them that the large circle of his acquaintances mourn with them his loss.

THE MICH. 20TH REGIMENT.—We learn by Herbert Hudson, Post Master of the 20th Mich. Regiment, who is at home on a furlough of some twenty days, that the regiment is now at Columbia, Kentucky, and that its health is generally good. The casualties of the Regiment in the late fight were 26, killed, wounded and missing. Of these, the following were in Company A: Lieut. Wm. M. Greene, killed; Privates, Geo. H. Sitts, wounded and taken prisoner, probably dead; John W. Knapp, wounded in the arm and hand, and W. Raynor, slightly wounded. Lieut. Greene exchanged his sword for a revolving rifle, and remained in the thickest of the fight until he was killed. An effort was made to recover his body, but the rebels refused to deliver it up.

From the Mich. 20th Regiment.

We are indebted to Hon. J. W. Longyear for a copy of the following letter for publication, giving details of the recent action in which the 20th were engaged :

Camp near Jamestown, Ky., May 11.

MR. LONGYEAR:—It is my painful duty to inform you of the death of Lt. Greene, who was killed in an engagement with a part of Morgan's forces, near Cumberland river. The circumstances of the affair are briefly these: We left our camp at Lebanon, Ky., on Monday, April 27, to go to Columbia, 40 miles, on Green River. Our Regiment was detached from the Brigade and moved along alone. At Columbia we were joined by a section of artillery and three Regiments of cavalry, under the command of Col. Jacobs. Arriving on Friday at the Cumberland River, we learned that the enemy were near Monticello; accordingly we were ordered on and reached that place Saturday night and found they had been driven over the day before. On Tuesday, May 5, we were ordered back across the Cumberland, and by a forced march we reached the river the same night, but owing to a rise in the stream could not cross. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday were consumed in getting the cavalry across, our regiment in the meantime acting as rear guard, Co's A and D being stationed at the top of a high hill, the last of a long chain of hills that the river cuts into at this place. On Friday night, detachments from the balance of the Companies hearing of rebels upon the hills went out on a scout. On Saturday morning eleven rebel cavalry came within two miles of our picket post, and in the afternoon a messenger reported that our scouting party were fighting, and our Company started onward to reinforce them. Reaching a farmhouse 2 miles from our post, we found our boys were being driven in, and they all soon after came in, and we took a position to defend ourselves, behind the brow of a hill that the road went over at this point. A farm house with an orchard behind, stood in advance of us about 80 rods. With our small force deployed out we waited all that night, and had just eaten our selves, behind the brow of a hill that the road went over at this point. A farm house with an orchard behind, stood in advance of us about 80 rods. With our small force deployed out we waited all that night, and had just eaten our breakfast Sunday morning, when our pickets were driven in and the rebels took possession of the house and orchard, and commenced skirmishing. Occasional firing lasted until noon. About noon we brought up a piece of artillery, and commenced shelling the woods and orchard. Ten minutes later we were ordered to charge across the open field in front of us to the orchard. This we did in good style and the rebels fell back. But the sound of our gun had waked up a nest, and soon the enemy began to appear in large numbers. We had in all about 450 men, and were so soon out-numbered that we were forced to retreat across the field. It was in retreating that Lt. Green fell. Balls fell in a tempest around us as we fell back, and he was struck in the back. He was next to the last man that retreated, and I was last, so that he fell in advance of me, and as I was passing he asked me to help him from the field. Not being able to do it alone I called for help, and soon Wilbur DuBois came back, and we carried him from the field down into a ravine in the shade, and directing the men to bathe his face with water I hurried back to our line of defense, and during the sharp conflict that ensued I had no time to give my attention to him. We were able to hold our position only about thirty minutes, and in the retreat we were forced to make I could not save him. His loss is deplored by the whole regiment. He sustained the same character for ability and worth as a soldier that he did at home. It is worthy of remark, that he had cast aside his sword at the beginning of the fight, and provided himself with a sixteen shooter rifle, and used it bravely. In the anguish that must fill the breast of his family and friends it is some consolation to know that he died a hero. We were not able to bring off his body or recover his effects on his body. The whole regiment are brave. H. B. CARPENTER.

DIED.

At McCartyesville, Santa Clara county, California,
Nov. 29th, 1862, of typhus fever, ORSAMUS BRADY, third son of E. & R. A. Gunnison, of De Witt, Clinton
Co., Mich., aged 23 years, 3 months and 1 day..

"I shine in the light of God;
His likeness strikes my brow;
Through the shadows of death my feet have trod,
And I reign in glory now.

I have found the joy of heaven!
I am one of the angel band!
To my head a crown is given,
And the harp is in my hand.

Friends of my mortal years,
The trusted and the true,
You are walking still through the valley of tears,
And I wait to welcome you."

Hands, Benjamin Francis, 1853-1863, Lansing Republican,
May 6 1863, p. 3

DIED.

In the township of Lansing, April 28, 1863, BENJAMIN FRANCIS, eldest son of John & Didama Hands, aged 10 years, 6 months and 8 days.

OBITUARY.

"God is our refuge and strength; a very pleasant help in trouble."

Died, at her father's house, on Thursday, the 23d ult.,
MILLIE, eldest daughter of Moses Harris, of this city.

This heavy stroke of the providence of God falls with a fearful shock upon a large circle of devoted friends and relatives. The deceased had just passed her 20th birth-day, upon which she had a strange presentiment that she should die. She survived that day just one week. Of a gentle, amiable and loving spirit, earnest and promising as a student, active and sparkling in her temper, Millie gave rare promise of a life of influence and usefulness. Her qualities of mind and heart had given her, and justly, a high place among her young associates, among whom she was known but to be loved. Excessive exertion and exposure in prosecuting her education, is believed to have been the cause of her early and speedy decline. Upon her dying bed she committed herself, living or dying, to her Savior, and found Him precious in the hour of great physical anguish. Her dying message to all her young associates was, "Love Jesus, the friend of sinners."

"Her home is far, O, far away!
The clear light in her eyes
Hath not to do with earthly day;
Let her depart!

She looks upon the things of earth—
Even as some gentle star
Seems gazing down on grief or mirth—
How softly, yet how far!
Let her depart!

"Her spirit's hope,—her bosom's love,—
O, could they mount and fly!
She never sees a wandering dove,
But for its wing to sigh—
Let her depart!

"She never hears a soft wind bear
Low music on its way,
But dreams it sent from heavenly air,
For her who cannot stay.
Let her depart!

"Wrapt in a cloud of glorious dreams,
She breathes and moves alone,
Pining for those bright bowers and streams
Where her beloved is gone—
Let her depart!"—Hemans.
Com.

Hastings, Silas F, 1863, Lansing Republican,
July 29 1863, p. 3

ANOTHER FALLEN.—It becomes our sad duty to announce the death of another of those who have gone forth from our midst in defence of their country. Silas F. Hastings is no more. He enlisted in the regiment of Mechanics and Engineers formed in this State, and was at the time of his death, Sergeant in Co. F. He died of "sun stroke," at Youngs Point, La., on board the U. S. Hospital Steamer Woodford, and was buried at that place with the honors of war, there to sleep until the trumpets call that shall wake the countless legions of the dead.

DIED.

Of typhoid fever and diphtheria, at U. S. hospital
Portsmouth Grove, R. I., on Saturday morning, March 21st, 1863, ALBERT HUDSON, aged 20 years, second son of Dr. Alanson Hudson, deceased, formerly of Oakland county.

Albert and his only brother enlisted in Co. A, 20th Regiment Michigan Infantry, in August last, sacrificing large pay, and the comforts and endearments of home and friends to serve their country in her hour of peril.
One has been taken and the other left. He was confined 6 months and 11 days in hospital—the first 4 months of which time he was afflicted with chronic diarrhoea, which reduced him to a mere skeleton. In this low state, typhoid fever intervened. From this he had nearly recovered, when he was attacked with diphtheria, which soon closed his earthly career.

His friends will ever hold in grateful remembrance
Dr. F. L. Taylor, Miss J. Woolsey, and H. W. Horton, for their many acts of kindness and their tender care of the deceased during his last illness.

Cont.

Hugheson, G.W., 1863, Lansing Republican,
May 13 1863, p. 3

The following are the casualties:

Killed—Lient. Green, Co. A; G. W. Hugh-
eson, Co. D; Corp. Cyrus, Co. H.

Hunt, Carrie, 1863, Lansing Republican,
June 24 1863, p. 3

DIED.

In this city, on the 21st inst., CARRIE, infant daughter of Charles S. and Emma A. Hunt, aged 4 months and 14 days.

Death of Sibley J. Ingersoll.

CAMP 8TH MICHIGAN INFANTRY VOLS., }
Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 11, 1863 }

ED. LANSING REPUBLICAN—Dear Sir: While we mourn the loss of comrades and fellow soldiers in the camp or on the field, our minds turn to their friends and relatives at home. I take this method to communicate to the numerous friends and relatives of Sibley J. Ingersoll, Co E, 8th Mich. infantry, that he departed this life on the afternoon of the 9th inst., his disease, pneumonia of the lungs. His illness was short but severe. He bore up under his afflictions with patience and fortitude, expiring without a murmur. His care was the best that could be given in a regimental camp hospital. His loss we deeply feel, the place he has so long occupied in our Drum Corps will be hard to fill, and when friends mourn his departure they will have the consolation of knowing that he died a worthy, willing and obedient soldier, ever ready to lend a helping hand to put down this thrice accursed rebellion, and to help sustain one of the best Governments the sun ever shone on.

Yours truly,

RALPH ELY,

Lt. Col 8th Regt Michigan Infantry.

Lafferty, Jennie E, 1863, Lansing Republican,
November 4 1863, p. 2

October 25th, JENNIE E., infant daughter of Joseph
B., and Louise M. Lafferty.

“ Fold away the shining tresses,
Softly close the loving eye,
Place a rose-bud in her fingers,
On her bosom let them lie.”

Interments in Lansing Cemetery during the the year ending Dec. 31, 1862, have been 59.

DATE.	NAME.	AGE.
		Year.	Month.	Days.
January	2 Wm. Elmer Allen,.....	2	8	..
	17 Coe G. Jones,
Feb.	8 Nelson Nathaniel Brace.....	4
March	10 Mary Kerr,.....	..	5	1
	10 — Coryell,.....
	14 John Fitzpatrick,.....	2
	19 Catherine E. Kerr,.....	62
	2 Genevieve Coryell,.....	5
	23 Ellabeth A. Sitzer,.....	17	1	19
	24 infant of M. Gassenmere,.....
	26 Sarah Davis,.....	1	4	..
	27 — Downs,	7	14
April	4 Mary Ann Bates.....	..	7	..
	6 Frederick Englehart,.....	17
	8 Louise Eichler,.....	..	3	21
	26 Willis H. Winter,.....	1	8	..
	25 infant of Wm. Little,.....	..	4	..
	2 George Englehart,.....	2	10	22
	28 Willie C. Hunt,.....	1	2	..
May	3 Eva Isabel La Rue,.....	8	..	25
	9 Polly Mevis,	52
	11 Abbie Elman La Rue,.....	2	8	14
June	1 William Lindley,.....	1	3	..
	6 Henry Houghtaling,.....	18
	6 Oliver Rogers,.....	40	6	23
	19 Flora A. Sitzer,.....	4	3	12
	29 Lucinda Straub,	10
July	19 Frederick Irving Fisk,.....	..	1	1
	2 Benjamin Carter,.....	55	4	..
August	11 Catherine Wolcott,.....	58
	12 William Murphy,.....	6
	13 Mary Sacsen,	8	4	5
	15 Cordelia A. Baker,.....	25
	16 James William Van Keuren,.....	..	5	..
	18 George Dwight Williams,.....	3	10	1
	23 Harvey M. Holt,.....	..	1	1
	28 Eunice Wells,	57
Sept.	7 Mrs. — Ferris,.....	74
	14 Ida Sutcliffe,.....	..	2	15
	18 Clarence M. Baker,.....	17
	18 John J. Whitman,	50	6	3
	18 Dewitt O'Neil,.....	48
	20 Willis Lucius Beemer,.....	1
	27 Edgar R. Yauger,.....	8	..	16
Oct.	5 Wm. H. Bugbee,.....	2
	18 Henry Vinton Wood,.....	1	3	13
	22 Harriet E. Bartholemew,.....	6	1	2
	24 Andreas Jacob Sindlinger,.....	4	7	12
	29 Amos Bates,	57	..	5
	30 Anne Elizabeth Wescott,.....	32
Nov.	5 Floyd Post Van Auken,.....	3	8	..
	7 Carl Sindlinger,.....	8	5	5
Dec.	1 Isabella Whiteley,.....	4	0	..
	20 Mary Martin,	9	5	..
	24 John G. Darling,.....	29	7	14
	27 Fanny Cowles,	60	..	8
	29 A. H. P. Morehouse,.....	21	9	19
	29 Harmon E. Paddleford,.....
	31 George Martin Rothfuhs.....	41	8	29

H. H. SMITH,
THEODORE FOSTER,
J. W. BARKER,
Cemetery Commissioners.

A PROVOST MARSHAL KILLED.—Deputy Provost Marshal John Letts was killed, a week ago last Saturday, about three miles from the village of Dowagiac. He was driving along the road in company with a young man, between 9 and 10 o'clock in the evening, and overtaking a farmer, got into a dispute with him, and turning his horses across the road demanded of the farmer his name. The farmer requested Letts to get out of the road and let him get by. A gentleman who was in company with the farmer jumped out of the wagon and turned Letts' horses into the road, and at the same time the farmer also went to his assistance. Letts then drew a revolver and snapped it two or three times at the farmer, who thereupon closed in with him, knocked him down, and kicked him several times while on the ground. The former then drove on, and it seems that Letts died of the wounds inflicted on him. Letts and his companion were both badly intoxicated at the time. After a hearing of the case before a coroner's jury, they returned a verdict of "justifiable homicide." Mr. Letts is reported to have been a very efficient officer, and that he should have come to such a bad end is to be regretted.

THE DISEASE AT THE REFORM SCHOOL.

—We have received the following communication from the Physician at the Reform School:

“City of Lansing, Feb 24, '63.

“EDITOR OF REPUBLICAN—DEAR SIR:—AS several papers in our State have given an alarming account of an ‘epidemic,’ which appeared in this city some two weeks since, and many having children in the Reform School have thereby become somewhat alarmed, I would say that the disease, (Cerebro Spinal Meningitis,) appeared in the School in a very violent form. Twelve boys were afflicted with it, and four died, viz: Richard Frother, and Wm. Campbell of Wayne county; Andrew Lockwood, of Kalamazoo, and John Sprague, of St. Clair county. The others are getting well. It has been now about a week since any new cases have appeared, and I think the influence of the disease has nearly or quite disappeared.

It has been entirely confined to the School—with a single exception—and I think that institution will speedily recover its accustomed good health.

By allowing this a place in your paper, and requesting other papers in the State to copy therefrom, you will no doubt confer a great favor upon parents having children in the Reform School. Respectfully yours,

J B HULL,

Physician to Reform School.

Longstreet, Clarence G, 1862, Lansing Republican,
January 14 1863, p. 3

and 19 days.

Also, January 4, 1863, CLARENCE C., infant son of William C and Caroline Longstreet, aged 11 months
and 10 days.

Manigold, Casaimer E, 1863, Lansing Republican,
December 10 1863, p. 1

COMPANY G.

Lieut Albert C Rossiter, severely wounded; leg.
Corp Darin Sprague, slightly wounded; groin.
Corp Henry Warren, slightly wounded; foot.
Casaimer E Manigold; killed.

Marsh, Sanford, 1863, Lansing Republican,
May 20 1863, p. 3

DIED.

In Okemos, on the 16th inst., SANFORD MARSH, aged about 60 years.

He was among the earliest settlers of the town, and was much respected as a citizen.

Martin, John, 1804-1863, Lansing Republican,
October 7 1863, p. 3

DIED.

It the township of Lansing, at the residence of Chas. Platner, Sept. 26, 1863, Mr. JOHN MARTIN, aged nearly 59 years.

CASUALTIES — We are pained to announce that Capt. Jos. Mason, of Company G, 3d Mich. Infantry, is in the list of those reported killed in the late battles on the Rappahannock. Capt. Mason was a member of the Company at the time of its being mustered into the service, having joined it as a private and been elected Orderly Sergeant. From that position he rose by regular gradations to the rank of Captain. He was a genial, warm-hearted man, and a brave and efficient officer. Although he was a resident of DeWitt, Clinton county, his enlistment in a Lansing Company made him regarded as one of our own soldiers, and he has here a large circle of friends that mourn his loss.

Capt. James H. Baker, of Company C, 1st U. S. Sharp Shooters, is reported slightly wounded in the left breast. A large number of casualties is reported in Capt. Baker's Company—among them is 1st Lieut. Brewer, killed. We believe that this Company has nobly distinguished itself.

From the Third Michigan Regiment.

CAMP SICKLES, VA., May 7, 1863.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—Dear Sir: As you will learn by other sources of the general doings of this army for the past eight days, I will only speak of this Brigade and Regiment.

The fighting was desperate and our losses large, but it is impossible yet to make accurate statements, as some of the missing will, no doubt, be found. This Brigade lost in killed, wounded and missing, about 650, of which 76 are from the 3d Regiment; of this number 5 were killed, 50 wounded and 21 are missing.

Capt. Joseph Mason, of Co. G, was killed on Sunday, by a piece of shell while the Regiment were in line supporting a Battery. He was one of the best officers in the Regiment and his loss is felt deeply, especially by our Company to which he has belonged since its organization.

O. C. Ingersoll was wounded in leg; J. M. D. Crane and Arthur Watkins, each in the shoulder; Oliver Richards slightly in the foot, and Wilson Shattuck lost a finger. Corporal Philo H. Weirs and private Abram Ketchum were lost in the attack made by our Division on Saturday night and are reported as missing. Col. Pierce was wounded slightly in the hand. Lieut. Smith, Co. D, lost a foot, and Lieut. Tate of Co. I received a slight wound on the face.

There are rumors this morning that the enemy are crossing the river to attack us on this side. If this be so, they will find us ready for them, as we had much rather select our ground than to have them do it for us.

As usual, after an engagement like this, all is excitement and confusion, and officers are praised or blamed by others, according to their own ideas of merit; but when the facts are all made known through the proper channels, the public will see why we were defeated.

Yours,

H. L. THAYER.

Melcher, Samuel, 1792- 1863, Lansing Republican,
November 4 1863, p. 2

DIED.

In Okemos, Oct. 23d, of consumption, Mr. SAMUEL
MELCHER, aged 71 years.

Merrick, Alonzo H, 1863, Lansing Republican,
December 10 1863, p. 1

COMPANY C.

Sergt Alonzo H Merrick, killed.

Corp Chas V Forbes, severely wounded; groin.

Leroy Dunning, severely wounded; thigh.

Wm Scchenspargear, slightly wounded; leg.

DIED.

At Mason, April 28th, 1863, JOAB PAGE, Esq., aged 75 years.

The deceased was one of the early settlers of Leoni, Jackson county, arriving there as early as 1832. Old settlers will remember him as the landlord of the "Grass Lake House," in 1833 and '4. In 1841, he removed to Vevay, in this county, where he opened a new farm. In August, 1844, he removed to Lansing, (having contracted with Mr. Seymour, in connection with his two sons-in-law, Messrs. Smith and Pease,) to repair the dam and erect the first saw mill, at Lower Town. He was the first settler on the site of our city after the lamented Burchard. Very soon after his settlement here he was appointed a class leader, in a Methodist class, the meeting being held in the old log house. The location of the State Capital here in 1847, brought swarms of people before there was a house except his, and he at once procured regular preaching, which was at first held in his house, and afterwards in his barn, "Father Page," (as all loved to call him) conveying the people with his tea bell. In 1852, he removed to Mason, having purchased Judge Danforth's interest in the town, mills, and an adjoining farm.

For several years the deceased has been entirely blind, yet his mental energies remained to the last. Although all has been dark without for many weary months, yet he was always cheerful, always glad to hear his friends' and always had a kindly word of cheer, for young or old, who called upon him. After long "waiting for his Lord," the "Good Master" has taken him to Himself.

CON.

Parker, Rebecca, 1831-1862, Lansing Republican,
January 28 1863, p. 3

DIED.

At Elba, Genesee County, N. Y., on the 17th day of January, 1863, REBECCA, wife of Albert Parker, and daughter of William F. and Maria Davis, of this city, aged thirty-two years.

Patchin, Mrs, A.M., 1794-1863, Lansing Republican,
December 2 1863, p. 3

D I E D .

In this city, Sunday, November 22d, 1883, Mrs. A. M.
PATCHIN, aged 69 years, aunt of Messrs. Hinckley, of this city.

Platner, Charles, 1821-1863, Lansing Republican,
October 7 1863, p. 3

Also, at the same place, Oct. 3, 1863, Mr. CHARLES PLATNER, of Typhoid Fever, aged 42 years.

Lieutenant Colonel Pratt Killed.

A dispatch was received by T. & J. Hinchman last evening, from Major Spalding, dated Bowling Green, April 6, which says: "Lieut. Colonel Pratt, of the Twenty-third, has just been thrown from his horse and instantly killed."

Colonel Pratt is well known in this State. He was a member of the State Legislature two years ago, in which position he conducted himself with signal ability, and won many warm friends by his manly character and generous disposition. When the rebellion broke out, Mr. Pratt at once placed himself on the side of his country, and by his own exertion enlisted a company in Clinton county, and went away with the Eighth Regiment, as Captain. At the battle of James' Island, he was severely wounded, it being reported for a number of days that he was among the killed in that bloody engagement. Since that time he has been promoted to be Lieutenant Colonel of the Twenty-third Regiment, which position he held at the time of his untimely death.—
Detroit Free Press, April 7th.

DEATHS — P. J. Price, died at his residence in Delhi, on Monday last. Funeral to-day, with Masonic honors.

John Thomas, one of the first settlers of this city, died to-day, at ten o'clock, at the Eagle Hotel.

Rayner, William, 1861-1862, Lansing Republican,
January 14 1863, p. 3

AND I WAIT TO WELCOME YOU."

In this city, December 14, 1862, WILLIAM, only son of William and Lydia M. Rayner, aged 1 year, 1 month,
and 19 days.

Reece, John A, 1860-1863, Lansing Republican,
June 10 1863, p. 3

DIED.

In this city, on the 6th inst., of scarlet fever, JOHN A., only son of Robert and Mary M. Reece, aged 3 years 3 months and 24 days.

Richardson, Huldah, 1786-1863, Lansing Republican,
May 6 1863, p. 3

At Okemos, April 24th, 1863, HULDAH, wife of Elijah
Richardson, aged 77 years.

“ How blest the righteous when he dies,
When sinks a weary soul to rest!
How mildly beam the closing eyes!
How gently heaves the expiring breast!
So fades a summer cloud away;
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day,
So dies a wave along the shore.”

Com.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Monday of last week, a German named George Rothfuss, fell from a scaffold, at the new saw mill erecting in the first ward of this city, at a height of some ten feet, alighting upon the small of his back across the edge of a plank, and received injuries from which he died on Wednesday. He leaves a wife and two children.

Death of Lieut. Col. W. Huntington Smith.

It is with painful feelings of sorrow and regret that we announce the death of Lieut. Col. W. Huntington Smith, of the 20th Michigan Infantry. He was a man quite well known in this city, although he resided but a brief period of time among us. His patriotic course in connection with the raising of the last company formed in this city, viz: for the twentieth regiment, and the character of the young men which he drew around him in the formation of that company, being among those of the very first of our community in all that is essential to true manhood, made his name familiar in every household in our city, as all felt that he was entrusted with a precious care in commanding such a noble company, but at the same time all were confident that the trust was well reposed. Col. Smith has never proved recreant to his duty. He was a brave and noble soldier, exemplary as a citizen, of spotless integrity, an excellent officer, and was respected and beloved by all who knew him. He left our city, in connection with his company, with many a "God bless you," and in the presence of a tearful and sorrowing concourse of people. We have never heard a man of that company speak in aught but the most friendly and praiseworthy manner of him, nor did they ever have cause to do so.

Colonel Smith was Captain of the Lansing company but a short time, being promoted to the position of Major before leaving the State, and after taking the field was further promoted to the position of Lieut. Colonel, which position he filled with credit up to the time of his death. Owing to the absence of Col. Williams from his post—he being detailed on special duty—Lt. Col. Smith has had command of the twentieth regiment most of the time since it has taken the field. He was leading the regiment at the time he was killed, which sad accident occurred on the 17th inst., in a skirmish with the enemy near Knoxville, Tennessee.

Colonel Smith was born in Rochester, New York, April, 1823; this makes him a little over 40 years old at the time of his unfortunate death. He moved to Adrian, in this State, in 1844 or '45, and was for some time a member of the firm of Howard, Smith & Co., general merchants. In January, 1861, he took a position in the Auditor General's office, in this city, which he held until he relinquished it to take up arms in the defense of his country, something over a year ago. Previous to his coming to this city, however, he had been engaged in the Auditor's office of the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroad, at Toledo.

The death of Col. Smith adds another to the list of noble heroes who have sacrificed their lives in behalf of their country during this wicked rebellion. His name will be revered through all future time, by a host of admiring friends, and his memory will be forever sacredly enshrined in their hearts. Peace to his ashes. He is now undoubtedly enjoying the fruits of a well spent christian life, in the haven of rest prepared for the righteous ones of earth. He died richly entitled to the plaudit, "well done good and faithful servant."

THE DISEASE AT THE REFORM SCHOOL.

—We have received the following communication from the Physician at the Reform School:

“City of Lansing, Feb 24, '63.

“EDITOR OF REPUBLICAN—DEAR SIR:—AS several papers in our State have given an alarming account of an ‘epidemic,’ which appeared in this city some two weeks since, and many having children in the Reform School have thereby become somewhat alarmed, I would say that the disease, (Cerebro Spinal Meningitis,) appeared in the School in a very violent form. Twelve boys were afflicted with it, and four died, viz: Richard Frother, and Wm. Campbell of Wayne county; Andrew Lockwood, of Kalamazoo, and John Sprague, of St. Clair county. The others are getting well. It has been now about a week since any new cases have appeared, and I think the influence of the disease has nearly or quite disappeared.

It has been entirely confined to the School—with a single exception—and I think that institution will speedily recover its accustomed good health.

By allowing this a place in your paper, and requesting other papers in the State to copy therefrom, you will no doubt confer a great favor upon parents having children in the Reform School. Respectfully yours,

J B HULL,

Physician to Reform School.

DEATH OF LT. COL. A. E. STEELE.—

We are exceedingly pained to learn the death of Lt. Col. A. E. Steele, of the 7th Michigan Infantry, which occurred at the glorious and bloody battle of Gettysburg. Col. Steele entered the service as Lieutenant in the Company from this county that entered the 7th Infantry, and on the death of the lamented Capt. McKernan, was promoted to the captaincy of the Company. Subsequently he was advanced to the position of Major and Lieut. Colonel, and filled every station he held, with honor and distinction. He commanded the Regiment in the crossing of the Rappahannock, at Fredericksburg, where it won immortal fame, and was, we understand, the first man that landed upon the enemy's side of the river. Col. Steele leaves a large circle of friends to mourn his loss, and his memory will be cherished with sacred regard by the many who knew his virtues, and who share a just pride in the record of his illustrious deeds.

Masonic

At a Special Communication of Mason Lodge, No. 70 F. and A. M., held on Wednesday evening, July 14th, A. L. 5863, the following resolutions were reported by a committee previously appointed for that purpose, and were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God, our Supreme Grand Master, to remove from among us our worthy brother Lieut. Col. Amos E. Steele, Jr., who fell gloriously upon the battle field of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania; on the 3d day of July, A. L., 5863, while fearlessly and bravely leading his veteran regiment against the enemies of the Union; therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of our brother, we lost one of our most worthy and esteemed members, the county a useful citizen, the nation a true patriot, the army a brave and efficient soldier, and his family a loving and devoted husband and father.

Resolved, further, That we do deeply, sincerely, and most affectionately sympathize with the family and relatives of our deceased brother in their sad bereavement, and we do assure them of our kindest sympathy in their great affliction, and commend them to Him who is the friend of the widow, the father to the fatherless, and who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb.

Resolved. That these resolutions be entered upon the journal of this Lodge, and a copy of the same be furnished to the widow of our deceased brother, and to each of the papers in the county, for publication.

P. LOW, W. M.

GEO. M. HUNTINGTON, Sec'y

Steele, Amos E, 1863, Lansing Republican,
July 29 1863, p. 3

FUNERAL OF LIEUT. COL. STEELE.—

The funeral of Lieut. Col. Steele, of the Seventh Michigan Infantry, who was killed at the battle of Gettysburg, took place at the village of Mason, on Sunday last. He was buried with Masonic honors, and a large concourse of people were in attendance and followed the body to the place of interment.

Capital Area District Libraries

Thomas, John, 1863, Lansing Republican,
March 18 1863, p. 3

John Thomas, one of the first settlers of this city, died to-day, at ten o'clock, at the Eagle Hotel.

Thompson, Almond, 1847-1863, Lansing Republican,
July 1 1863, p. 3

D I E D .

At his father's house, in Delhi, ALMOND, eldest son of Caleb Thompson, aged 16 years.

The deceased was a promising youth, of industrious habits; was sick only two days, of putrid sore throat. Several other members of the same family are now sick of the same complaint, but are in fair way of recovery.

Com.

DIED.

At her father's residence, in Lansing, CELIA MARIA, 2nd daughter of E. A. Thompson, of this city, aged 22 years.

In the early spring she went where duty seemed to call, to teach an Indian School in Isabella county, of this State. After several months of devoted labor, she started for home, for a few weeks vacation and rest. On her way she was attacked with a typhoid fever, and reached home only to lie down in the embrace of loving friends and die. Three weeks from the evening of her arrival she breathed her earthly life away, peacefully and sweetly—

“As sinks the gale when storms are o'er,
As dies the wave along the shore.”

She has left us—she has gone to her home in the skies. Words that should speak truly of her, would seem to a stranger, extravagant. Few, at her age, are as widely known, and as tenderly loved—not alone for amiable qualities, which she possessed in a high degree, but for action, unselfish deeds and words of love. Few that know her but have embalmed in their hearts some such deeds or words, that will live, though she is gone, and will diffuse a holy fragrance about her memory. This is her monument imperishable, reared of deeds and words and thoughts, all redolent with the faith and loving breath of Heaven. That life is not always longest that is fullest of years. Some fill up the measure of life's work ere common lives are fairly begun. So had she matured beyond her years. She has given instruction to the oldest and wisest, in the happy life of simple faith and earnest work which she lived, and the sweet composure with which she gathered her garments about her, and laid her down to die, nay, rather to sleep in Jesus.

“In teaching us the way to live,
She taught us how to die.”

The graces of her heart and mind, mature beyond her age, were sweetly clothed with an artless, a childlike and playful simplicity, making altogether a rare combination, and imparting a charm to her friendship and society. But, alas for us—we had drawn the horoscope of her earthly life and blessed labor, far into the future. God give those stricken hearts strength and grace to say, “Thy will be done,” and may her graces be perpetuated in the hearts where her memory is embalmed. She leaned on the Beloved, and He folded her to the bosom of infinite love. While we journey on, our faith shall hear her spirit voice, like a silver trumpet, sweetly calling us up to the starlit home on high.

“Sleep soft, beloved! we fain would say;
But have no time to charm away
Sad dreams, that through the eyelids creep;
But never doleful dream again
Shall break thy happy slumber, when ‘He giveth his beloved sleep.’ ”

IN MEMORIAM OF CELIA MARIA THOMPSON.

AFFECTIONATELY INSCRIBED TO THE BEREAVED FAMILY.

Fold away the shining tresses,
Softly close the loving eye,
Place a rosebud in her fingers,
On her bosom let them lie.
Gently, tenderly convey her
To the bed where she may sleep:
She was weary and is resting,
Wherefore, wherefore do ye weep?

God hath called her in the beauty
And the sweetness of her youth,
Ere her heart had learned to suffer,
Or to doubt the cold world's truth;
Never will her young feet gather
Dust from sorrow's rugged steep,
Never will her heart be stricken,
Wherefore, wherefore do ye weep?

Well I know your hearth is lonely,
Sunbeams cannot light it now;
And beneath its heavy shadow
Do your stricken spirits bow,
Listening for the merry music
Of those lips which silence keep,
Gazing vainly to behold her—
Therefore, therefore do ye weep

Sadly, sadly, do ye miss her:
Never more within your home
Will the sweetly joyous music
Of her girlish laughter come.
Never round your neck caressing,
Will her fair arms softly creep,
Never will her glad smile greet you.
Therefore, therefore do ye weep

Jesus wept, He will not chide us
If we weep when those we love,
Folded in their shining garments,
Go to dwell with Him above.
Every pure parental feeling,
Sister love, so strong and deep
God himself bestowed upon us,
Therefore, therefore may ye weep.

Oh, those ties are hard to sever,
But with patience let us trust,
And within the great hereafter
We shall know that God is just.
Here our joy is mixed with sadness,
And the waves of anguish sweep,
But the future knows no sorrow,
And we never, never weep.

KATE WOODLAND

Thornbury, Ernest Henry, 1854-1863, Lansing Republican,
February 18 1863, p. 3

DIED.

In Lansing, Feb. 14, 1863, of scarlet fever, ERNEST
HENRY THORNBURY, aged 9 years and 3 months.

Lieut. Webber.

CAMP 16TH REG'T MICHIGAN VOLUNTEERS, }
Near Falmouth, Va , Jan. 20th, 1863. }

At a meeting of the officers of the 16th Regiment Michigan Volunteers, held at Camp near Falmouth, Va., January 20th, 18-3, the following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, We have learned with deep regret of the resignation of our much esteemed friend and brother officer, Lieut. JACOB WEBER, whose health for a long time has been failing, and has at last compelled him to dissolve his connexion with the Regiment he has served so long, faithfully, and well. Therefore,

Resolved, That we recognize in Lieut. Weber a brave and meritorious officer, ever courteous and faithful in the discharge of his military duties, a warm friend and a genial companion.

Resolved, That we sincerely regret the circumstances that call him from us, and hope that in the quiet retirement of domestic life, he may find that rest and health he so much needs and for the many courtesies he has extended to us he has our warmest gratitude.

Resolved, That the signatures of the officers of this Regiment be attached to the above Preamble and Resolutions, and a copy of the same be forwarded to Lieut. Weber.

T. B. W. Stockton, Col. 16th	Wm. Kydd, Lieut. Co. G.
Reg't Mich. vol. com'g 3rd	Thos. F. Hughes, Lt. Co. H.
brigade.	Rob't S. Elliott, Capt. Co. E.
N. E. Welch, Lieut. Col.	Stephen Martin, Capt. Co. H.
T. J. Barry, Major.	Guy W. Fuller, Capt. Co. B.
Isaac Wixon, Surgeon.	Edward Hill, Lt. Co. H.
R. Wm. Jacklin, Adjutant.	Wallace Jewett, Lt. Co. K.
Capt. Geo. H. Swan, Co. A.	B. F. Partridge, Lt. Co. I.
Lieut. Geo. W. Cook, " "	Jas. L. Topping, Lt. Co. I.
Butler Brown, Lieut. Co. C.	P. McLaughlin, Lt. Co. E.
H. H. Woodruff, Lt. Co. D.	E. Frank Eddy, Lt. Co. G.
Z. B. Graham, Lieut. Co. C.	Jonas H. Titus, Jr.
Cha's H. Salter, Lt. Co. B.

Capital Area District Libraries

ANOTHER SAD ACCIDENT.—The only son of Mr. William Willoughby, of this city, came to his death in a sad manner, on Sunday evening last. He was out at the barn taking care of his father's horse, and went up into the loft to throw down some hay, when he fell, his head striking against the manger. He went into the house, and was put to bed by his mother, when he was soon taken with a congestive chill, during the prevalence of which he died. He was a sprightly lad, active and intelligent, and his loss is a heavy blow to his parents.

Wilson, Charlotte E, 1833-1863, Lansing Republican,
November 11 1863, p. 3

D I E D .

In this city, on the 7th inst., Mrs. CHARLOTTE E.
WILSON, wife of Tim. Wilson, aged 30 years.

OBITUARY.—We are pained to announce the death of OLIVER CROMWELL WISWELL, a well known resident of this city. He departed this life quite suddenly, having been confined to his bed only three days previous to his decease, although he had been in ill health for several weeks before. Mr. Wiswell was born in the town of Courtlandville, in the State of New York, in the year 1816, hence he was 47 years old. In 1837 he was appointed Captain in the 147th Regiment, 18th Division, 27th Brigade New York State Infantry. In May, 1838, he was admitted as an Attorney in the Supreme Court of the State of New York. He remained in his native State until 1846, following his profession with much ability and success; about which time he removed to this State, bringing with him letters from the principal men in N. Y., and his authority to act as Commissioner of Deeds for N. Y. He at once rose to a prominent position among the profession at Detroit, and soon became associated with the State Department. When the Capital was removed to Lansing, he came here and served as Deputy Auditor General for 4 years. He has since filled various positions of responsibility and trust with credit to himself and honor to the State. He was connected with the masonic fraternity up to the time of his decease, and was buried with masonic honors. He leaves a wife and one daughter to mourn his untimely death. His acquaintance was very extensive, both in this State and in New York, and was a man universally beloved and esteemed for his many private and social virtues.

Woodruff, Mary Cornellia, 1847-1863, Lansing Republican,
August 12 1863, p. 3

DIED.

In this city, on Thursday, the 11th inst., of Black Jaundice, MARY CORNELIA WOODRUFF, daughter of Mrs. Ansel Adams, aged 16 years.