Celebrate Black History Month at CADL

Lansing, MI –Join the Capital Area District Library this month for several special events honoring the contributions of African Americans to our culture and communities.

On Saturday, February 26, join us at the Downtown Lansing Library for our annual African American Family History Showcase beginning at 11 a.m. Our featured speaker is Danielle McGuire, Wayne State University Professor and author of At the Dark End of the Street: Black Women, Rape and Resistance—A New History of the Civil Rights Movement from Rosa Parks to the Rise of Black Power, appearing from 1-2 p.m. Displays and table talks from local, state and national organizations will be available throughout the event. This event is co-sponsored by the Friends of the Lansing Libraries and the Historical Society of Greater Lansing.

At 2 p.m. on Sunday, February 27, readers are again invited to the Downtown Lansing Library for African American Read-In Day. Each year we join over a million others world-wide in a read-in chain. This year we are excited to welcome Suban Nur Cooley, Managing Editor of Capital Gains Magazine. Audience members are encouraged to share parts of their favorite poem or book written by an African American author.

The Capital Area District Library system serves the communities of Aurelius, Dansville, Haslett, Holt-Delhi, Lansing, Leslie, Mason, Okemos, Stockbridge, Webberville and Williamston. In addition, our bookmobile stops at more than 30 Ingham County locations. For more information, visit cadl.org.
