Grossology Author Sylvia Branzei Visits CADL

Lansing, MI – She’s not stinky or slimy, but she writes all about it! Author of the Grossology books, Sylvia Branzei, will visit Lansing Saturday, March 26, and Sunday, March 27.

Impression 5 Science Center and the Capital Area District Library have partnered to host Branzei for four interactive presentations where she will teach audiences about poop, wounds, snot and more! Make sure to bring your Grossology books, or pick one up at the Impression 5 Science Store, for a book-signing.

Don’t miss this excitedly icky event at the following locations and meet her grossness in person! Admission to the presentation and book signing is free.

Saturday, March 26:

Holt Library – 1 p.m.
Impression 5 – 4:30 p.m.

Sunday, March 27:

Impression 5 – 11 a.m.
Okemos Library – 3:30 p.m.

“We’re thrilled that Impression 5 Science Center and the Capital Area District Library could work together to bring this unique opportunity to the Lansing community,” said Erik Larson, Executive Director of Impression 5. “It should be a slimy, crusty and fun event for people of all ages.”

After Branzei’s presentations, learn even more about why your body produces mushy, crusty, scaly and stinky gunk at Grossology: The (Impolite) Science of the Human Body, during its appearance at Impression 5. The exhibit closes Sunday, May 15.

The Capital Area District Library system serves the communities of Aurelius, Dansville, Haslett, Holt-Delhi, Lansing, Leslie, Mason, Okemos, Stockbridge, Webberville and Williamston. In addition, our bookmobile stops at more than 30 Ingham County locations. For more information, visit cadl.org.
