CADL eBooks Now Available for Kindle

Lansing, MI – September 2011 – The Capital Area District Library is excited to announce that its eBook collection is now compatible with the world’s bestselling eBook reader, the Amazon® Kindle. Patrons can now download popular and classic eBooks to a Kindle device or any mobile device running the free Kindle app, such as iPhone®, iPad®, Android™, and more. To get started, visit cadl.org/downloads.

CADL also offers eBooks and audiobooks for use on a PC or Mac computer and popular mobile devices such as a Smartphone, MP3 player, and eBook reader like the Barnes & Noble® Nook™ and Sony® Reader.

Kindle users can browse CADL’s collection of bestselling and classic eBooks from a PC or Mac computer, check out titles using a library card, and select “Get for Kindle” to deliver eBooks to their Kindle device or any device running the free Kindle app. Users who enjoy eBooks on Kindle will benefit from Amazon’s Whispersync technology that synchronizes notes, highlights and last page read between their Kindle and free Kindle apps. Visit cadl.org/downloads to download eBooks for your Kindle.

“I’m excited that this makes the digital collection of our virtual branch accessible to so many more people! CADL will continue to build its eBook collection so keep checking back for more titles,” says Sarah Redman, Adult Selection Specialist for the Capital Area District Library.

The Capital Area District Library operates 13 branches and a Bookmobile in Ingham County, Michigan. For information about locations, services or events, visit cadl.org.
