

Winter Is for the Birds

READING PROGRAM

- Runs from Jan. 20–Feb. 28.

- Only books read during this time period are eligible for bingo. A book can only count for one square.
- Choose from the activities and cross off the ones you do. Complete any BINGO row (horizontal, vertical or diagonal) to earn a small prize.*
- To get your prize, turn in your card by Feb. 28 at any CADL branch. Then you may choose to enter a YOUTH or ADULT grand prize drawing.
- All ages may participate.

B I N G O

Read a book on display at a library.	Enjoy an outdoor activity that you can only do in the winter.	Read a book that you have had lying around the house for a LOOONG time.	Read a book set in the past or the future.	Read a book set on a different continent.
Read a non-fiction book.	Read, watch or listen to any Disney title.	Read a book with Cold, Snow, Ice, or Storm in the title.	Read a book that became a movie, or a book that was based on a movie.	Draw a winter themed picture to win a chance for your artwork to be featured in next year's Winter Reading program.
Read a book with a blue cover.	Read a book by an author you have never read before.	FREE	Read while enjoying a cup of hot cocoa or some other snack that you enjoy in the winter.	Read in a plane, train, or automobile.
Turn the TV off and make a craft or a new recipe.	Read a book that makes you laugh.	Listen to an audiobook.	Read a book set in the Midwest.	Read a book set in a place you would love to visit in winter.
Read a fantasy or science fiction book.	Read a fairy tale, folk tale, or fractured fairy tale.	Read a book recommended to you by library staff.	Read a mystery, suspense or thriller book.	Read a biography or autobiography.

*While supplies last.

Drawing sheets available at library desks.

Capital Area
District Libraries
Everything...right here.
cadl.org