DIRECTOR'S REPORT
- Julie Laxton and Scott attended a training session by MIOSHA on new Work From Home requirements for offices. As a result of the training, Julie Laxton added stronger language for working from home to our COVID-19 Preparedness and Response Plan.
- The 2020 Annual Report will have a different format for this year since it’s very unlikely that staff will be able to present the report in-person to our municipalities. CADL staff will create a digital version along with a short video that can be used for the presentations.

- The staff workgroup focusing on diversity and inclusion at CADL are working on recommended changes to our Code of Conduct Policy and will attend a future Board meeting to talk about their recommendations.
- On Christmas Eve, there will be a special program on 99.1 WFMK. Children’s Librarian, Cassie Veselovsky will be doing a reading of The Night Before Christmas on the radio station at 7 PM.
- Local History Specialist, Heidi Butler, provided materials to the MSU Broad Museum for their special exhibit “Interstates of Mind” about America’s relationship with the automobile and transportation.
- Foster Head Librarian, Jean Bolley, is retiring at the end of December. There will be a virtual event so that staff can celebrate the wonderful career Jean had at Lansing Public Library and CADL.
- Although the conference was virtual, staff had fantastic feedback on CADL Conference. They still felt engaged, even from the comfort of their home.
- Chelsea Koenigsknecht is purchasing holiday candy for staff. There will be a signed card from the Board Chair and we will follow Margaret Bossenbery’s fantastic recommendation of having Board members email each department or branch head, the day the candy is distributed.

POLICIES – No changes, for review only (enc)
1. HUM 105 Employee Recognition Policy
2. HUM 201 Director Succession Policy
3. HUM 202A Director Evaluation Board Form
4. HUM 202B Director Evaluation Staff Form
