CHAIRPERSON’S COMMENTS
Board Chair DeYeya Jones thanked everyone for the sweatshirts. It was noted that the sweatshirts were a year-end gift for CADL staff in lieu of chocolates that were given in the past. Mr. Jones wished everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

NEW BUSINESS
General
a. Commendation Letter for Bri Slocum Recommendation
   It is recommended that the Capital Area District Libraries' Board of Trustees write a Letter of Commendation on behalf of security guard Bri Slocum who showed remarkable presence of mind in her actions when an individual was shot in the parking lot of the South Lansing Library and entered the library for assistance.

   Interim Executive Director Jolee Hamlin read a draft of the letter to be sent on behalf of the Board.

   Brian Baer made a motion to accept the letter as written. Chris Waltz seconded the motion. The motion carried.

b. Legislative Update
   There was no legislative update.

c. Community Contacts
   The Friends of the Library groups did not meet this month but attended the celebrations at each library instead. Sandy Drake had fun attending these celebrations as well. She enjoyed the tour Head Librarian Heather Goupil gave at Mason. Ms. Drake also provided cookies for the Webberville celebration, was a people counter at Leslie, and saw the alpacas at Williamston and Stockbridge.

   Debora Bloomquist attended the holiday celebration at Foster and reported on the enjoyment of the llamas she had there.
d. Evaluation of Interim Executive Director
The contract states that there will be a 3-month review of the interim executive director, and a committee needs to be formed to conduct that review when the 3-month period is reached. Board Chair DeYeya Jones asked for volunteers. Debora Bloomquist, Brian Baer and Quinn Clifton-O’Donnell volunteered to be on the committee, and Debora Bloomquist volunteered to chair the committee.

f. City of Lansing HRCS Grant Recommendation
This item was approved by consent.

DIRECTOR’S REPORT
- Staff members are very appreciative of the CADL hooded sweatshirts they received as a year-end gift from the Board.
- Former security guard Bri Slocum came into the library today and is slowly recovering from the trauma related to the victim of the shooting in the South Lansing Library parking lot.
- The Student Success Initiative scholarship application opened today. This is the second year of the program which will award $1,000 scholarships to two area students. The scholarships are underwritten by Kroger Rewards and CATA.
- On Christmas Eve, Youth Services Librarian Lindsay Anderson will do a reading of The Night Before Christmas on WKAR radio. Youth Services Specialist Marisela Garza will do a Spanish reading.
- December programming included 21 holiday storytimes, 19 holiday and winter crafts, 27 take and makes, 11 open houses with animals, and 19 various and related holiday programs.

PUBLIC, STAFF, AND BOARD MEMBER COMMENTS
Marketing and Communications Director, Victoria Meadows, extended an invitation to the Board to participate in the SSI scholarship application review process which will take place in the spring.
Sandy Drake wished everyone a Merry Christmas.

DeYeya Jones welcomed Jenny Marr and thanked her for making the trip down for the meeting.

Jenny Marr expressed excitement for the end of January when she will start as the new executive director at CADL. She noted that the staff who have reached out to her have been very welcoming.

Debora Bloomquist gifted everyone a lottery ticket.

ADJOURNMENT

Debora Bloomquist made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Brian Baer seconded the motion. The motion carried. The meeting was adjourned at 5:59 p.m.
