BOOKS BY MAIL

CAPITAL AREA DISTRICT LIBRARIES

GET BOOKS, MOVIES, & MORE BY MAIL

This free service from Capital Area District Libraries puts library items into the hands of residents who are unable to use traditional library services.

After enrolling, you will receive a shipping bag in the mail, filled with items you have requested or that have been chosen for you. When the items are due, just return them in the same bag—postage has already been paid!

For questions about CADL's Books by Mail service, call 517-334-1519.

HOW TO ENROLL

Fill out the front and back of the application attached to this brochure and mail it to us. Library staff will contact you to set up an account so you can start requesting items.

THINGS TO KNOW

- You must reside in CADL's service area to be eligible. Call 517-334-1519 if you are not sure.
- This application must be signed by a medical provider, activity director, or social worker.
- Once you are enrolled, you will no longer be able to use a library card in one of our branches.
