

ECHO

DEDICATION

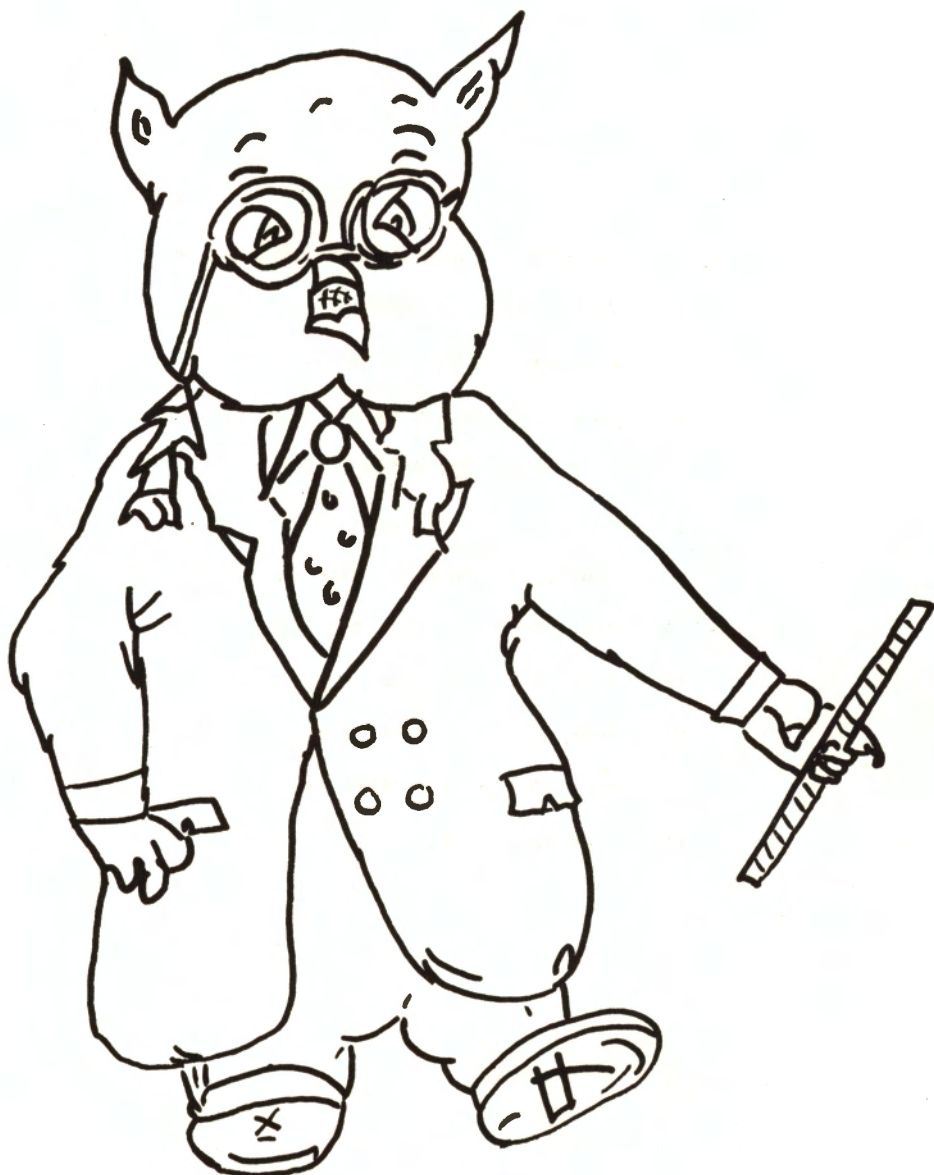

To Mr. Myron E. Smith, participant of class projects as well as advisor, we the senior class, humbly dedicate this 1948 Annual, "The Echo". Through infinite patience and enthusiastic cooperation with student and faculty endeavors, he has proved himself an individual to whom responsibilities can be unhesitatingly entrusted. His energy is as unboundful as our sincere gratefulness for his help, his advice, and his opportune boosts during our past year together. Now comes the end of this phase of our education; we go on to whatever the world holds for us, and he remains to prepare successive classes for their future.

FOREWORD

The Senior Class of 1948 presents the Echo to you with the sincere wish that it will be a pleasant means of recalling many unforgettable memories of the days you have enjoyed at Holt High School. We hope that you will recall the victories and defeats which enriched character, the lessons and the knowledge which have become such an important part of you that time alone can dim them. We hope that in years to come that you will always be thrilled when you recall the Holt-Hi Echo of 1948.

CLASS HISTORY

It is the year 1948. As we mused over the archives of the Holt Recorder we came across the records and history of our class. We immediately became interested and delved into the mass of detail.

Out of the 53 gay and dashing little youngsters who began their journey through school in 1935, Floyd Bell, Shirley Brooks, Clare Drier, Marilyn Greenman, Walter Holz, Richard Hovey, Barbara Lee, Maurice Martin, Norman Parker, Ronald Pearce, Richard Spurgeon, Donna Stackhouse, and Carlton Watters are the thirteen surviving members in our class of 1948.

Those who joined our class from the first through the fourth grades were Robert Hartley, Junior Hodges and Florence Lott in the first; Robert Frederick, Janet Golsworthy, Betty LaLone, Iva Lee Ramsey in the second; Frances Collins, Margaret Dart, Marilyn Fillingham, Norma Prebble, James Rode in the third; and Phyllis Galka, Evelyn Ott and Glenn Rey in the fourth.

Many students were welcomed into our class during the fifth and sixth grades. Those still remaining are Bob Bailey, Sally Basore, Robert Page, Leo Lonsberry, J. P. Scott, and Barbara Smith.

Finally we acquired a higher position as a junior high school class. During these two years those who joined us were Art Faussett, Shirley Phelps, Irene Trusty, and Barbara Knapp.

Progressing swiftly up the ladder of education we find we are now Freshmen. Our class roll is now minus James Rode and Nancy Thompson. There are several surviving members who joined us this year. They are Beth Cataline, Charles Cliffe, and Barbara Larner.

In the tenth grade Marilyn Baxter, Joyce Wade, and Bonnie Warner joined our class and Patricia Brown left us.

As Juniors we were joined by Alice Beck, Helen Chaffee, Robert Skogen, Shirley Zimmerman, Jean Lovewell, and Gladys Blivin. Those who left us were Iva Lee Ramsey, Philip Atkinson, Charles Krauss, Mildred Larson, Betty Potter, and Marrietta Reinsmith. Ambrose Hope also left us to join the armed forces and Mari-Margaret Grahame left during the last semester to make her home in California.

CLASS HISTORY

Then came our Senior year and the glory we had so long sought was finally being achieved. As the school year began to close we wondered if the friendships we had attained during our school days would remain lasting and fruitful. After the first few days of excitement we noticed we had gained one new member, Duane Dietrich and a new class advisor, Myron E. Smith. As time wore on we missed two classmates, Irene Trusty and Bonnie Warner, to the realms of matrimony which leaves thirty-eight members.

Finally spring came and with it the fun and excitement of the closing days of school including swing-out (when we were allowed to wear our caps and gowns for the first time) the trip, and graduation.

During our school days we have had advise and instruction from friends and teachers which will never be equaled as we travel onward. As the dawn of commencement and class day rapidly approaches we realize that the curtain will close on the first act of life's drama, but it will rise again for the real experiences and lessons which will begin to unfold.

Let us remember that peace, success, and contentment, in our lives may be found either in blissful ignorance where we believe in gorgeous fairy tales, or in the high development of intellectuality where we can see clearly the twists and turns in this Business of Life. As we leave, let us hope very highly, that we will accept the way of intellectuality, the way of success.

PROPHECY

The year, 1948. Just think, two more weeks of school daze, and we the seniors, shall go onward.

As I sat in my government class, I began to fall into deep thoughts, thinking toward to the years ahead and what my fellow classmates were to do. Soon the scene was a sunny, fall afternoon, Saturday, September 21, 1955. As I boarded the jet-propelled plane to leave for the West Coast, on my way to Northern China to take over missionary duties, I met none other than Beth Cataline, an old classmate. Beth was the chief stewardess on the plane. We talked for a few minutes, and then a deep voice boomed over the loud speaker. I was startled for a moment, as the voice did sound very familiar. Then Beth told me the voice was that of Ron Pearce, who was now President of the Pennsylvania Air Lines, and Jean Lovewell was his own private secretary. I was just thinking how much things had changed, when the last call before the plane left, was given by Duane Dietrick.

As we were boarding the plane, a limousine pulled to a stop a few feet from the ramp. A very dignified gentleman descended, followed by a stunning young lady. As I settled into my seat, glancing up, I recognized the 'dignified' person, Bob Page! Hmm! Who could the young lady be? Why, Gladys Blivin, of course---"Hello!"

After the plane took off, and Beth was free from her duties, we 'batted' the breeze about, and Bob informed us, that he was on his way to the Philippines, as an U.N.O. executive. Gladys was his secretary. "Say," said Bob, "Did you know that Margaret Dart is a noted Journalist in New York? She and Charles Cliffe are working on the same paper and have been doing a wonderful job improving the conditions in the slum districts. Have you heard that Marilyn Baxter holds a high position in Congress now? She has her own private office, secretary, and even a car with a chauffeur. And guess who he is!! Richard Hovey!" "By the way," I replied, "Do you remember Art Faussett? He is now owner of an up-and-coming industry in the West. Perhaps you have heard of it. The 'Artmobile'! I've heard it's a marvelous car. Has the very latest in everything, even a telephone!

Still discussing our old friends, I found that the Stylette Beauty Shoppe in New York, was owned and operated by Florence Lott and Shirley Brooks. We began mentioning some of the teachers that we all got along with so well, when the first thing we knew, we had landed in Washington. There was some delay, which left us there for two and a half hours.

PROPHECY

Bob, Gladys, and I decided to lunch together, and as we were walking down the street, who should we see coming toward us, but Donna Stackhouse! "Well, Hello!" I exclaimed. "What are you doing in Washington?" "I just arrived from Radio City, on special invitation from the President, to play at the White House this evening, when he is entertaining the King and Queen of England.

We all resumed our search for a place to have lunch, and then continued our conversation. We learned that Barbara Lee is now Dean of Girls at Albion College and Alice Beck is principal at an elementary school in Detroit. "Oh, yes," said Donna, "Did you know that Walter Holz is now one of the leading Doctors in the country? He is doing extensive research work on that terrible disease of central nervous system, called Sclerosis." "My goodness! How things have changed! I was in Detroit this summer and heard that the Tigers would not be any good at all without Clare Drier as manager.

We talked on and discovered that Bud Martin was a Lt. Commander in the Coast Guards. J. P. Scott is head of the accounting department and Sally Basore is purchasing agent for the 'Ladies-Ready-to-Wear' Department at Marshall Field. Remember Norman Parker? Well, he's now manager of the Butterfield Theaters throughout Michigan. Floyd Bell is Captain of the Bell Hops at Waldorf Astoria Hotel! Robert Hartley owns the 'Hartley Food Stores' way back in Lansing, and he has chain stores all over the country.

Again time seemed suddenly to pass, and we were once again on the plane heading for California. We stopped at San Diego for several minutes and took on a few more passengers. The last one on, was Barbara Smith. She was on her way to Singapore to assume her duties as supervisor at the new Government Hospital. She took the seat next to me and informed us that Bob Bailey had started a new corporation throughout the country. 'Bailey's Refrigeration Sales.'

"Have you heard of Phyllis Galka's whereabouts?" asked Bob. "She is now secretary to the Governor of Texas. Barbara Larner is an up and coming commercial artist, and Shirley Zimmerman has just completed a screen test."

We learned that Shirley Phelps and her husband owned a new hundred fifty acre farm on West Holt Road, and that Joyce Wade and her husband were planning to make a trip to Nevada and make a permanent home on a seven hundred and seventy-five acre ranch!! Mary Lou Greenman is also happy with her husband in a little rose-covered cottage on the shores of Lake Erie.

Several hours later, we arrived in Manila. It was nearly dusk, and as we were all very tired, we asked directions to a suitable hotel to spend the night. We were told that there was a hotel on the corner, owned and operated by two Americans, Spurgeon and Watters. "Why, I wonder if that could be Richard Spurgeon and Carlton Watters!" exclaimed Barbara. Sure enough, when we arrived, we found that it was none other than the "DEAK" and "DICK". "Well, if it isn't a group of our old friends from home!" they shouted. We were given the best rooms in the hotel with all the conveniences that anyone could ask for.

The next day, Sunday, we all went to church and listened to a very interesting and enjoyable sermon delivered by Reverend Robert Skogen. That afternoon, we all ate dinner together and discovered that Leo Lonsberry was Head Chemist at the Government Research Laboratories in Kansas City. Barbara Knapp is head Dietician at John Hopkins Hospital.

As we chatted on, I glanced at my watch. "It's almost time for our plane to leave. Saying our 'Goody-byes', Barbara and I were about to board the plane when a bell sounded. The scene began to fade away and I discovered I was still in Government class '48'. "I wonder if we all will be doing these things in the future? But perhaps I had better concentrate on the present or I will still be in government another year!!"

ATHLETICS

FOOTBALL SEASON IN A NUTSHELL

Holt started their season playing Leslie under the lights. It proved to be a very exciting game with Leslie taking the lead by a score of 6-0 at the half. The Rams fought back furiously only to lose by a score of 18-0.

The next game was played at Holt with the county champions, Williamston. The Hornets proved to be too powerful for the fighting Holt eleven, for you see, the game ended by a score of 26-6 in the favor of Williamston. Captain for this game was Maurice Martin.

The third game of the season was played at Dansville with Holt taking the field at 2:45. Holt found they had very easy competition and emerged with a victorious score of 25-6. Art Fausett was captain for the entire game.

The following week when Holt met Stockbridge on their field the competitive spirit seemed to be stronger and Holt after worrying through a scoreless half got rolling and came off the field with a satisfactory score of 26-0. Charles Cliffe was captain for this game.

On a sultry day in October, Holt journeyed to Okemos and although the heat was so intense that the players could hardly breathe, the Holt team finally came home victorious. The score for this game was 6-0, with Richard Hovey, captain.

Now came the sixth game of the year and Holt was out for their fourth win of the season. However, they were sadly disappointed. The game was played at Mason under the lights. The Holt team played vigorously, but they never seemed to be able to come out of the hole. The win and loss count showed to date that Holt had won three games and lost three. Ronald Pearce was captain for this game with a score of 35-0.

The closest game of the season was played at Holt with Fowlerville. The Holt eleven enjoyed a 7-0 half time lead, and came back in the second half to score another quick touchdown before Fowlerville caught the Holt defense off guard and scored a touchdown. The last quarter was a see-saw affair until the last thirty seconds when Fowlerville scored the final touchdown which brought the score 13-13. Their conversion was good and the final score was Fowlerville 14, Holt 13. Carlton Watters was captain for this game.

The last game of the year was the worst game of the year as far as the weather was concerned. It was played at Haslett with Holt taking on the Vikings at 3:00. The field was wet and the player's suits soon changed color. Holt received the kick and the game was a see-saw affair with plenty of thrills and water. Holt's only touchdown came in the second quarter when her powerful line started to open up holes for the back fielders to go through! When the final gun was sounded the score was "one of praise" for Holt as they brought down the curtain of another year of football. It was 6-0. The captains for this game were Leo Lonsberry and Norman Parker.
