Mustang Memories

1973-74

Volume 3

Happy memories, like a candle, light the dark places of later life.

-Ruth Smeltzer

We, the students of the Yearbook staff, would like to dedicate the 1973-74 Yearbook to all the faculty members of Gardner, and especially to Mr. DaFoe for his help and concern during the long period of mass confusion.

Let's not forget
our old friends, old times, and
the old school spirit, but think ahead to
new friends,
new times,
and a new school spirit.

-Kari Stevens

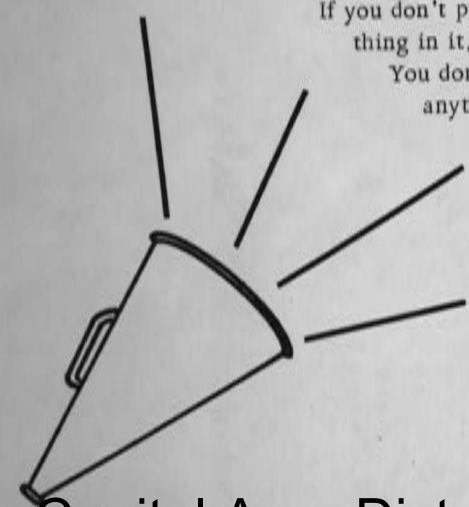

Life is but a bridge we build
To link Before and After,
And wise the man who builds his span
Of faith and lover and laughter.

Everything has its beauty,
But not everyone
sees it!

A time to Live is a time to Love.

Life is something like a trumpet.
If you don't put anything in it,
You don't get anything out.

Experience proves that most time is wasted, not in hours, but in minutes. A bucket with a small hole in the bottom gets just as empty as a bucket that is deliberately kicked over.

-Paul J. Meyer

Organizations

Memory is the vapor trail left by rocketing years, an inscription written on the waters of time to perish as a wave breaking on the shore.

Library Aides And Equations Club

Above: A roll of the dice and a mathematical mind are all it takes to play the Equations game. Equations Club members Bruce Stuckman, Ron Goodrich and Ron Fulger practice their playing skills at meetings. Right: Equations Club advisor, Mr. Guernsey points out a solution to Jon Goodrich.

Above: Gail Combs tells Kim Kolk and Connie Piskornik about some new gym games they will be learning. Gail, a Future Teacher from Everett, assisted in gym classes all year.

Future Teacher Aides Work Successfully With Gardner Students

Future teacher aides from area high schools spent two hours a day working with Gardner classes. Duties included grading papers, preparing tests and sometimes assisting with field trips. About twenty high school juniors and seniors experienced the teaching profession in classes such as gym, ninth grade English, seventh grade Science, Journalism and Math. Gardner thanks all these students for a job well done.

Left: Bonnie Tomlinson, also of Everett, instructs students in an art class on the use of India ink.

9th Grade Student Aides Learned New Skills As They Helped Teachers

Over a hundred ninth grade students spent one hour every day as a teacher's aide. They often assisted the teacher by tutoring other students. Above: Katrina Hansen, an aide for Mr. Smith, helps another student with a math problem. Right: Always ready and willing to do her job well, Debbie Tomlinson takes care of SRA materials for Mrs. Schmidt.

Independent

Work

Experience

Below: Amanda Lietzke preparing an order of hamburgers and coke at her I.W.E. job at Burger Chef. Amanda received a savings bond for being Gardner's outstanding employee of the year.

Junior Counselors

Right: Junior Counselors who worked with Mr. Gardner were Kitty Groh, Melinda Marsh, Laurie Lathrop, Julie Carmack and Debbie Cramer. All Junior Counselors receive special training from Mr. Gardner during the summer before entering the 9th grade. Training sessions usually lasted about two hours each week. Junior Counselors are taught to be good listeners. They help bridge the communication gap between students with problems and adults who don't understand.

Above: West Hall office aides. Front Row: Mrs. Spitler, (secretary), L. Lathrop, E. Maxie, T. Tharp. Back Row: J. Taylor, S. Trentham, V. Trainor, L. Sandefer, J. Pohl, P. Rogers, N. Schafer. Left: Shelly Trentham, West Hall office aide, was caught in what she considered to be an embarrassing position. While Shelly was a terrific 6th hour office aide, Mrs. Spitler also said one of her faults was being camera shy.

East And West Hall Office Aides

Right: East Hall office aides. Front Row: C. Clevenger, T. Brown, C. Ballard, E. Lampman. Back Row: Mrs. Blizzard (secretary), T. Cantrell, S. Duke, K. Harshman, A. Hamilton, B. Hayhoe.

Above: Mrs. Spitler and Mrs. Blizzard (hall secretaries) spend most of their time doing what they like best, talking on the telephone. They're a great help to the school.

Student Sub-Team Planned Monthly Activities

Several students ran for the 9th grade student sub-team office during November. Students running for the three positions of, President, Vice President-Treasure and Secretary, had to have the signatures of 35 class mates on petition sheets to run for the offices. The election took place during a 9th grade assembly where all students running for office made their campaign speeches. Above: Katie Parker was elected President; Right: Sharie Cheadle became Vice President-Treasure; Below: Debbie Cramer won the office of secretary.

Student Sub-team committee members work on activity of the month. The students planned the movie "Tomb of Ligeia" for January. Profits from the movie amounted to $70 and was used by the Sub-team to sponsor other monthly activities. Sub-team members: Cheryl Mask, Debbie Cramer, Pat Skuse, Katie Parker, Kal Sweet, Randy Hardman, and Phyllis Shaub.

Right: During a Student Sub-team meeting the subject of scurve day came up. Miss Nix, Linda Larson and Patti Conrad, are only a few of those at the meeting to discuss it. The Student Sub-team sponsored many activities during the year such as Pep Rally Assemblies, Dances, and Movies.

Pep Club Stirs Up School Spirit!

Above: The students who make up Gardner's Orchestra, practice hard everyday to get it together. They wonder if the saying, "Practice makes perfect," really is true. Left: This years Advanced Violinists are Front Row: Theresa Dimick, and Sandy Jones. Middle Row: Jesse Maxie, Connie Heuhs, Becky Dodge. Back Row: Mark Feldpauch, Stewart Marine, and Pam Maine. Below Left, Seated: Mark Pruitt and Donald Cooper. Standing Laurie Bockes, Rob Harrison, Kim Harshman, and Leslie Reitz are proud to let everyone know that they are this years Beginning Violinists in Gardner's Orchestra. Below: Ever hear a lot of moaning and groaning coming from the Orchestra room? It's probably Cello players; Front Row: Alberta Pettifor, Bonnie Hansen, Sue Reitz, Debbie Tuttle. Back Row: Randy Neff and Mary Johnson. Wouldn't you groan too if you had to lug something that big around?

Above: Choir members practice daily for their concerts at Christmas and in the Spring. About twenty-five students enthusiastically participated in learning the music to popular songs and Christmas music, to perform for parents and friends.

Musical Magic

Above: Making their voices heard above the hustle-bustle of everyday life at Gardner is the aim of Choir members. Choir Class is one enjoyed by most who take it. Left: Ms. Harris plays a piano cake the class gave her for her birthday.

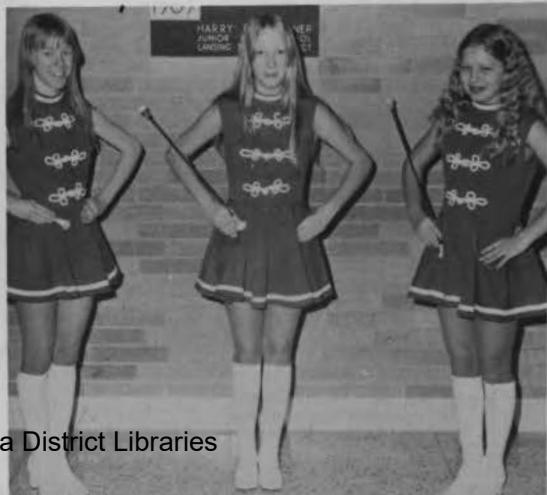

Above: The 1973-74 Gardner Marching Band members were: J. Atansoff, S. Barragan, J. Bivens, R. Bogle, K. Byington, A. Calhoun, D. Campbell, J. Carr, J. Claggett, P. Clark, C. Corbin, D. Coven, J. Dean, T. Downs, M. Feldpausch, J. Flower, B. Gaukel, P. Green, M. Hedin, H. Henderson, K. Howard, B. Hyde, A. Jackson, M. Johnson, I. Jolly, I. Jones, B. Keifer, B. Krause, D. Larkins, E. Larson, C. Lawrence, M. Luther, R. Mans, M. Mathewson, C. McKinch, B. Miller, C. Munson, D. Nichols, J. O'Connor, M. Parish, J. Pittman, V. Rayl, T. Schmitz, J. Stine, B. Stuckman, B. Thomas, D. Travis, T. Tuttle, S. Ward, M. Watkins, L. White, J. Wickham, L. Wilson. The band was directed by Mr. Bortz.

Band Sparks School Spirit

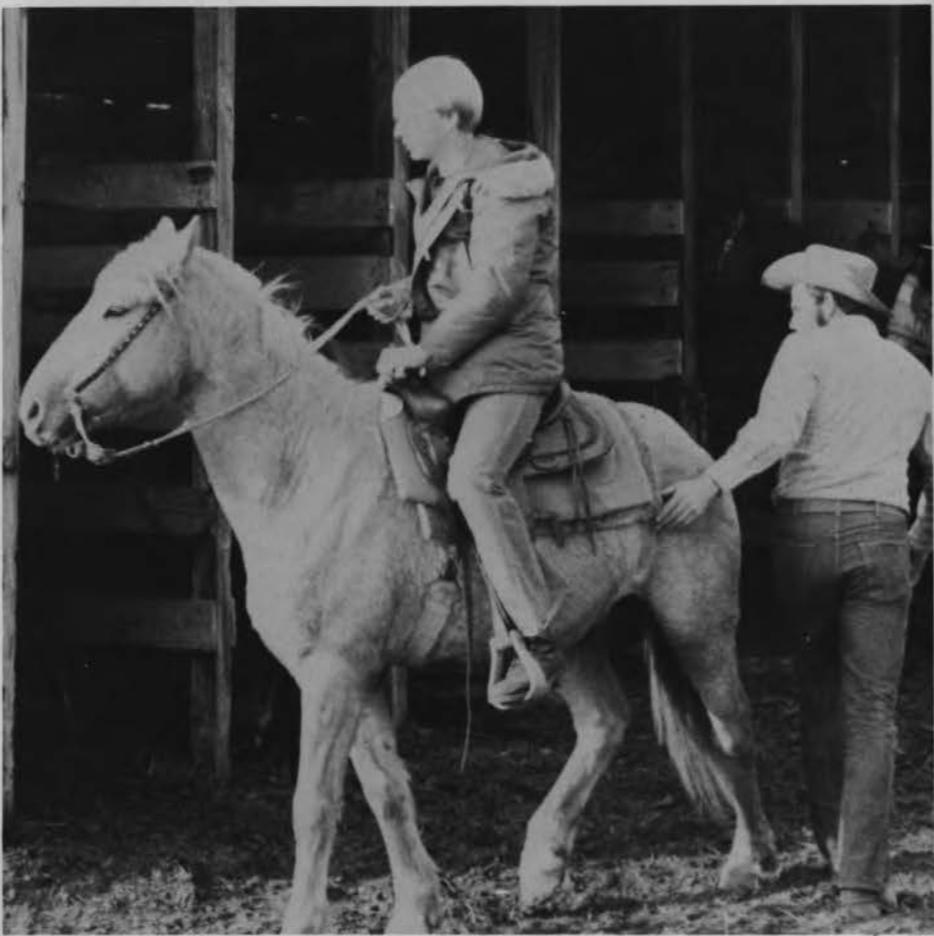

Above: The band hosted a band festival in February where they received a first place rating and continued on to state competition.

Left: Barry Gaukel playing his heart out on the chimes during the band festival. Right: The majorettes for the band are, Ellen Austin, Diane Morrow and Sharie Cheadle.

Outdoor Club in Action

Below: When Gardner's Outdoor Club went horseback riding at Crazy C. They were greeted by smiling "Billy Jo" who wasn't a bit shy. Billy Jo's rider later told us that "Billy Jo" liked to jump fences.

Above: After they looked at Terry Powers' sheet they picked out a horse for him, helped him on, gave him a few tips and sent him on his way.

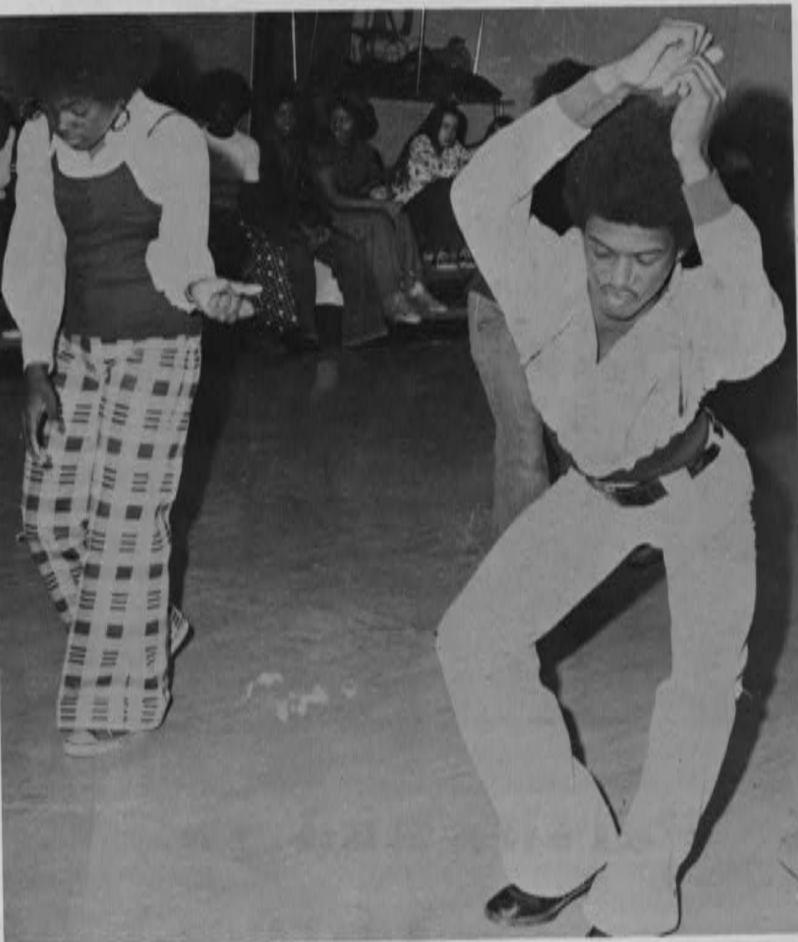

Left: Mrs. Brauer looks terrified as she sits on harmless little Patches. Above: After everyone has a horse they all set out for the trails.

Student Life

Do more than exist, live.
Do more than look, observe.
Do more than read, absorb.
Do more than hear, listen.
Do more than listen, understand.
Do more than think, ponder.
Do more than talk, say something.

-John H. Rhodes

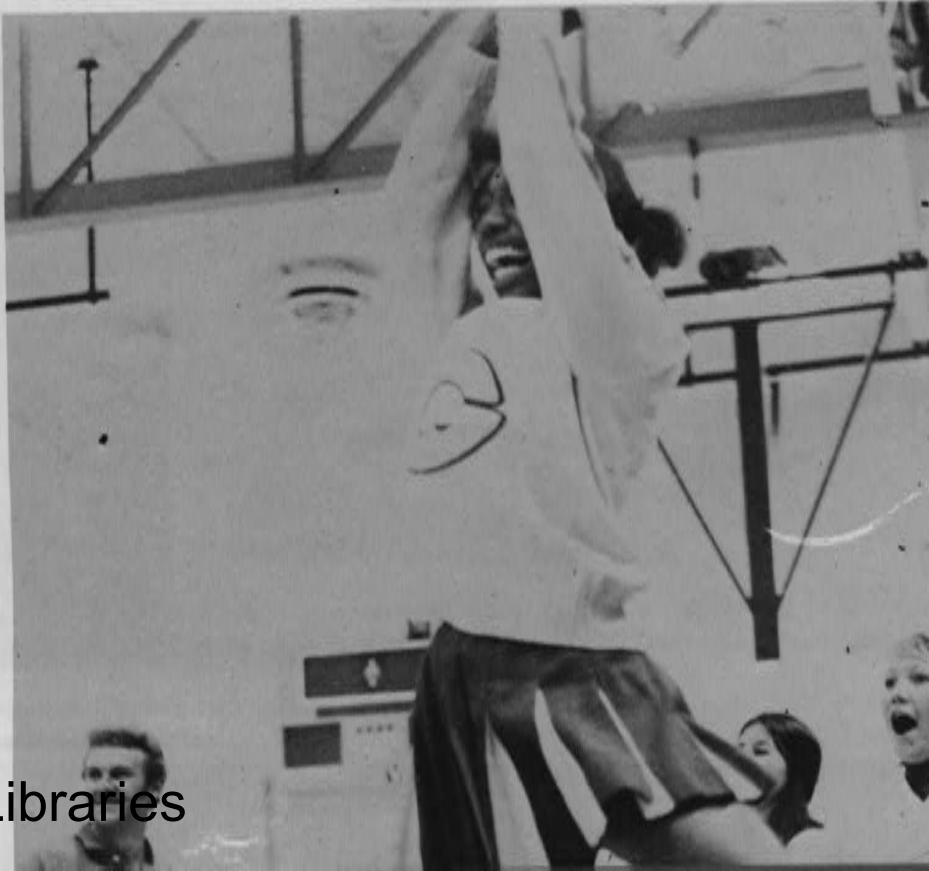

Parties and Activities Made Gardner A Great Place To Be!

Above: Mr. Springer looks like he's really enjoying it while Eloise Gonzales shows him what Christmas means to her at the ninth grade Christmas party.

Above: Mr. Gardner with his Scurve Day beauties, Lynne Wilson, Kelly Lee, and Shelly Trentham. Scurve Day brought out a little farmer in all of us.

Left: The Black History bulletin board done by these girls was one part of Black History Week. Above: Tami Price shows all the spirit there is at the second Gardner pep rally. Pep rallies were a major part of all athletic events.

Above: Cheryl Watts and Willie Ward were the winners of the dance contest at the first ninth grade party. Everyone had a great time at all of the parties this year. By the end of each one, everyone was dancing. Below: Lynne Wilson jumps for joy while the basketball players do their thing.

Math is less of a problem if you have a friend to work with. Above: Candy Church and Melissa Flanders work on some problems in Mr. Fauld's class.

Working in the reading center is a challenge to 7th graders, but most find they can answer all the questions correctly. Above: Randy Neff, Mark Pruitt and Arthur Pointer check their answers to a SRA assignment.

7th Graders Enjoy First Year

Books provide a way to escape the confusion and noise of the classroom. Above: Laura Knox relaxes with a book before class begins.

History Highlighted By Black Fashion Show

Above: Mr. George McClain narrated a black fashion show during the February assembly for 8th and 9th grade students. Black dress and customs and the part they played in developing our history were discussed at the assembly.

Above: Frank McClain adds effect to the fashion show by dressing up in a snowmobile suit and crash helmet. Frank was acting out the part of a "moon man" during a "Going to the moon" scene.

Left: Ninth grade King and Queen Scurves, Kevin Mast and Shellie Mott duel because some ninth graders thought Kevin's dress was cuter than Shellie's.

Hog Callers Collect For Scurve Day

Above: Bill McElroy hugs his sweetheart, JoLynne Downs. Bill and JoLynn were seventh grade king and queen scurves.

Above: Vicky Kirby forgot to wear a scurve day outfit so she went through the wardrobe in her locker. She found gloves, scarves, boots and tons of paper, but no outfit for scurve day. Below: Debbie Stephens fears the fate of her teddy bear from the hands of the evil "villian", Pablo Pido. Debbie and Pablo won the King and Queen Scurve Award for the 8th grade.

Above: "V-I-C-T-O-R-Y" that's our cry. These cute J.V. cheerleaders lead us on in great pep and spirit. Right: Even before Gardner's game the Mustang spirit starts showing. Mary Bates and Pam Parks paint those great signs you see on the walls.

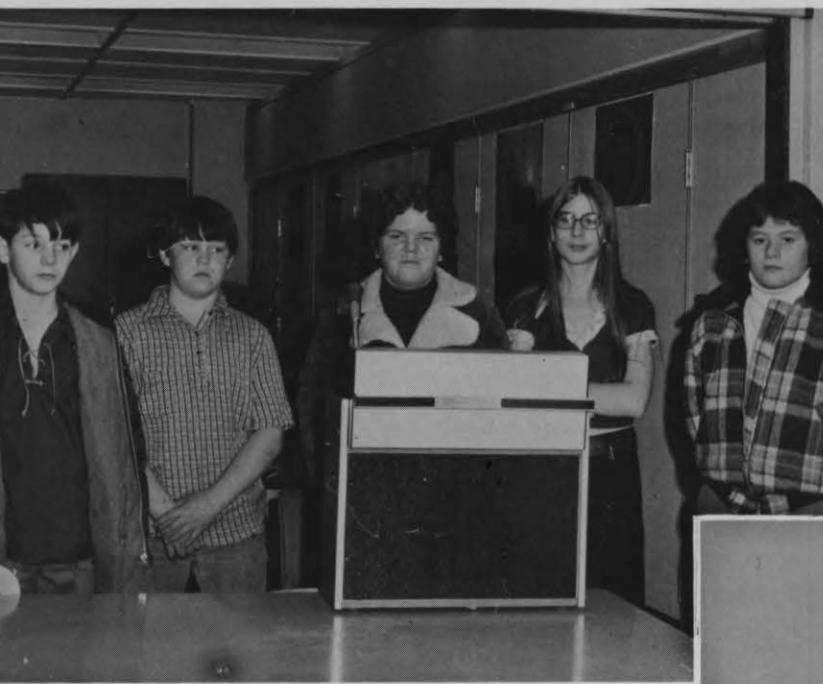

Mustangs Have That Extra Kick!

Above: At all of Gardner's games the Mustang Spirit came charging through. But at Pattengill's game Gardner students really got it together, going all out in cheers. The team put up a tough fight, but unfortunately lost by a close margin, making it a game to remember. Right: Not everybody is full of pep and spirit. Mr. Lunden, caught in the act, catches forty winks.

Free Reading, Spelling Bees And Plays Spice Up 8th Grade Classes

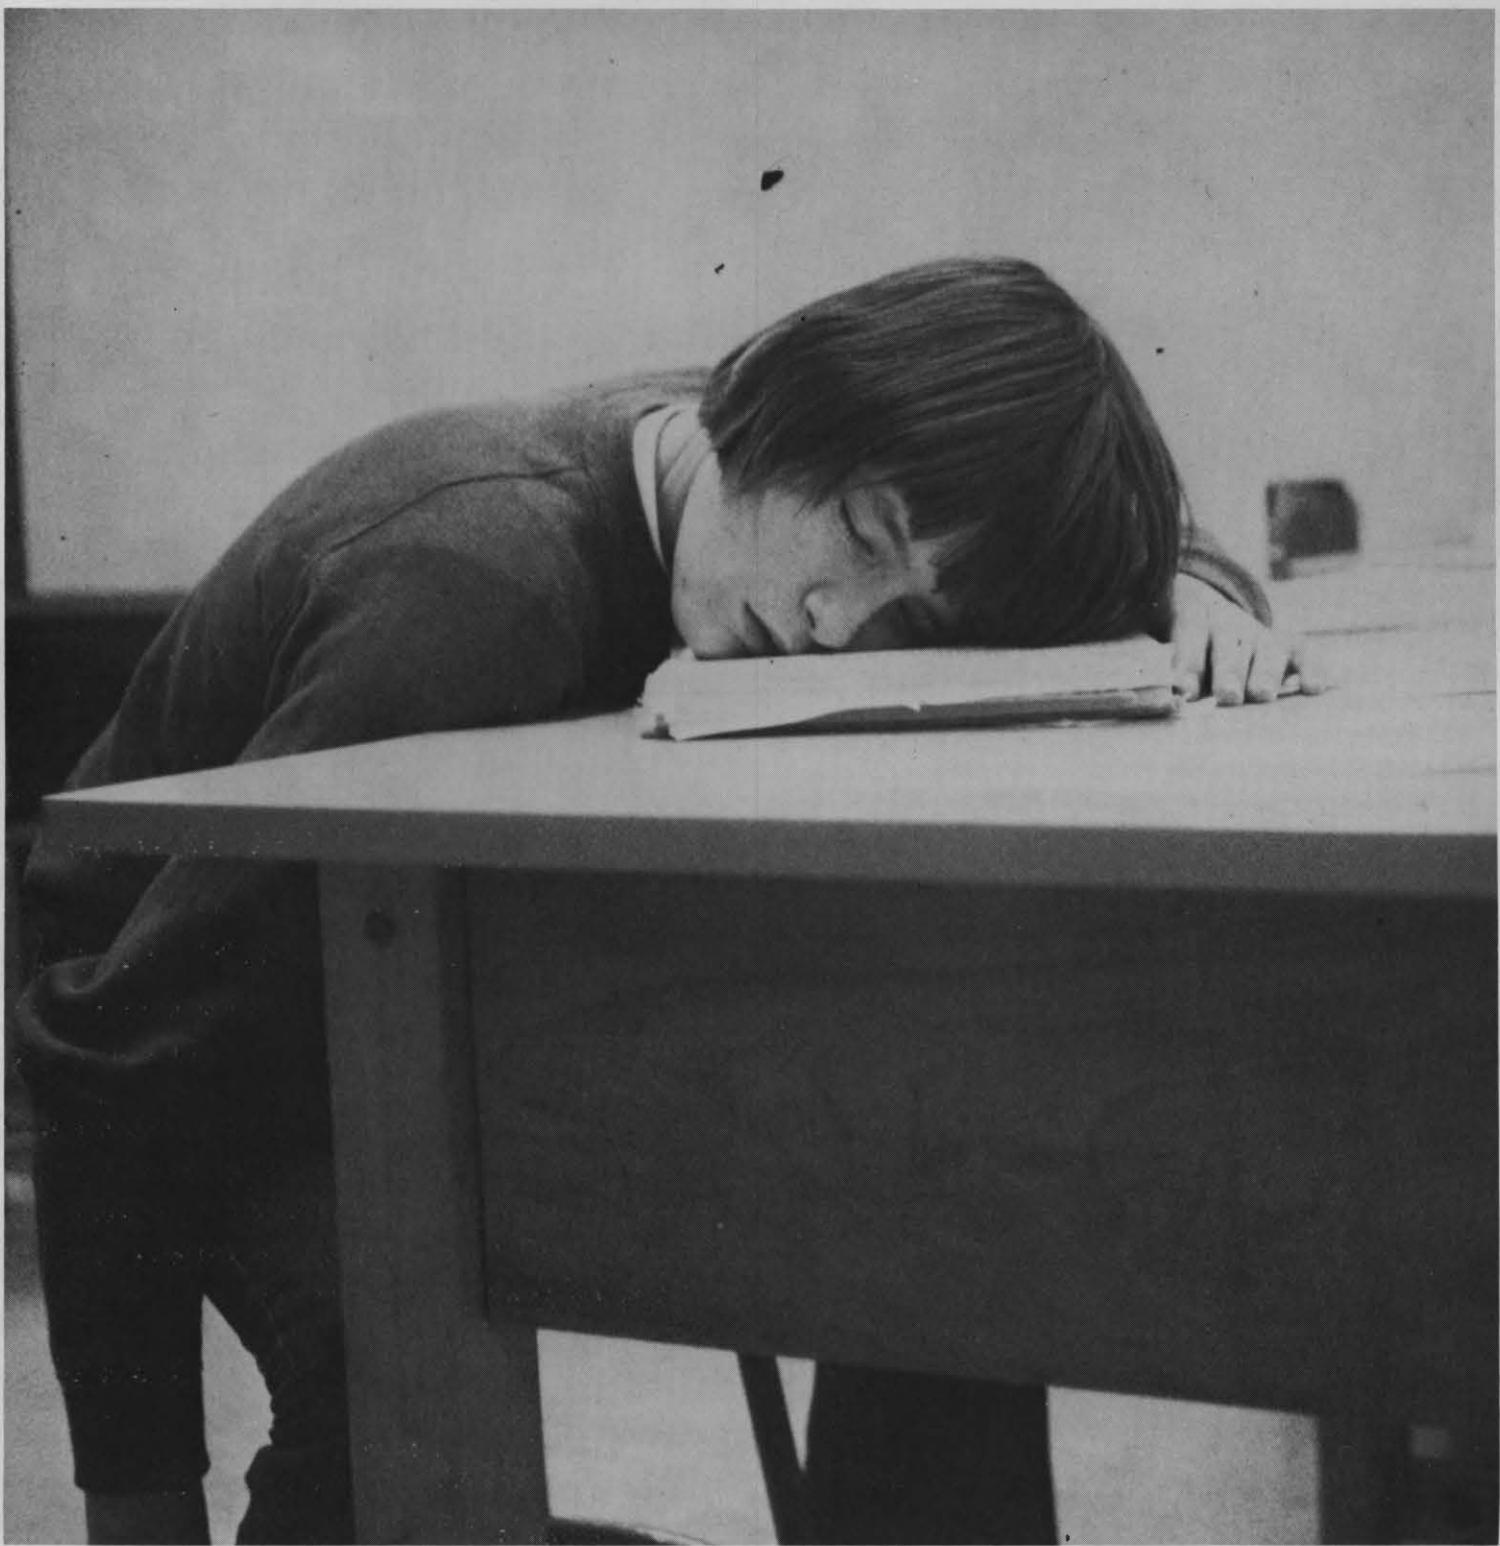

Above: C-h-o-r-u-s, just one of the many words that 8th graders had to know in order to stay in the 8th grade spelling bee. Congratulations are in order to: Gus Bailey, Jim School, all class winners Mary Kulpa, Konnie Reed, and Mike Stover.

Above: In February, Dr. Peterson's Performing Arts company from Lansing Community College came and presented the play "Canterbury Tales" to 197 8th graders. The play was well done and the 8th graders enjoyed the performance.

Classes

LIFE'S LESSONS - We've all got to go to school, I expect, and we don't all get the same lesson to learn, but the one we do get is our'n, 'taint nobody else's, and if it's real hard, why, it shows the teacher thinks we're capable.

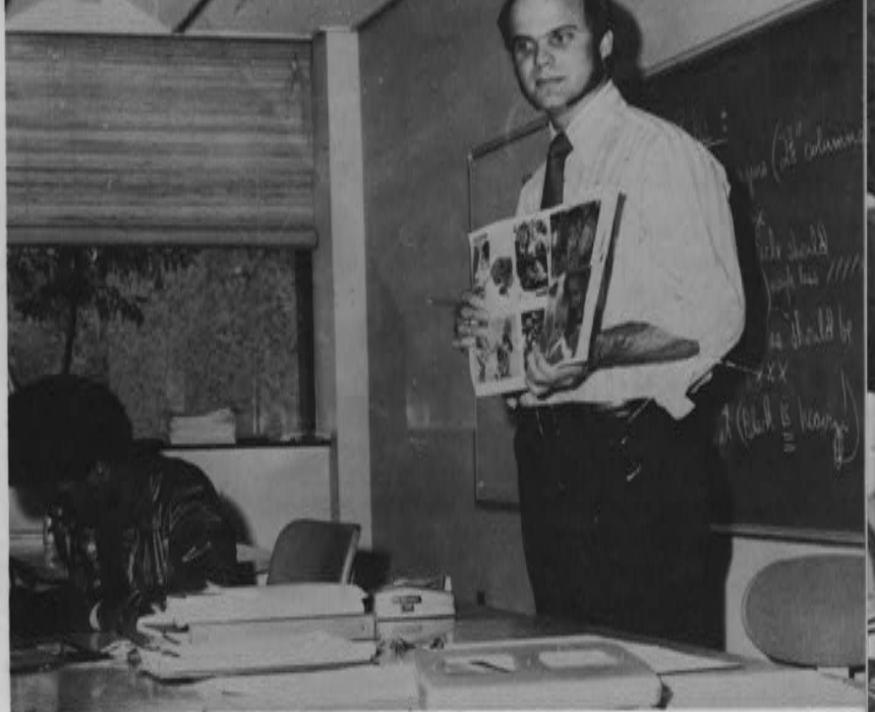

-Rose Terry Cooke

Above: Math problems can be real puzzlers, especially for Algebra students. Bob Keifer finds out it's not as easy as it looks while Mr. Springer points out a solution. Below: Mr. Justice and Mr. Beard present the American flag and standard to Mr. Bortz and the Gardner band. Mr. Justice and Mr. Beard were members of the Miller Road Coordinating Council, which represented only one group of parents who actively supported the band.

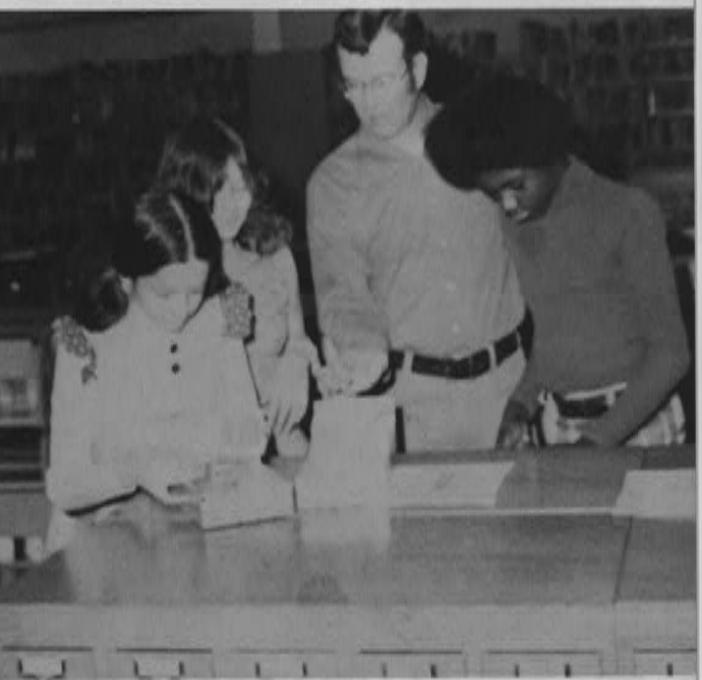

Forest Parke Library and Archives - Capital Area District Libraries

Above: Mr. Dafoe prepares students to work on yearbook. Advanced Journalism students start out doing basic picture layouts but look forward to learning more of the difficult parts of putting together a yearbook. Left: 9th grade Physical Science students Eric Staab, Brad Krause and Neil Jones work with eyedroppers in an acid and base lab experiment. The guys thought they might brew up a bottle of musk oil, and give it to their favorite girl.

Left: Co-ed gym for 9th graders has activities such as horseback riding, bowling, ice skating, and swimming. Dean Hartley, and Doug Hellemans play water polo in Mr. Bailey and Miss Earl's class. Below: Mr. Jeff Evbanks from the Michigan Department of Corrections answers questions about the jail system in Michigan as part of the ninth grade guidance class Youth Citizens project.

Above: Cindy Wetzel, Deb Leonard, and Ken Jones make use of the card catalogue in the library to find information on the United States Constitution for Mr. Cameron's History class.

Above: Art classes teach students to develop artistic techniques and learn to do sculpture and painting. Eighth graders in Mr. Summer's art class made a falling star for children at the blind school.

Above: Students in Mrs. Eddy's class enjoy books they have chosen to read. Eighth grade English classes offered options for students including, mythology, science fiction, and independent reading.

Left: Mr. Hickman of Eastern High School and a group of students from Pattengill Jr. High perform a "GEEP" - a Groovy Environmental Education Package - on the Metric System. Mr. Hickman and the Pattengill students are involved in Project SEE. Above: Rhonda Alicea and Theresa Keyton listen as Tom Summers of Pattengill explains the Metric System.

Mini-Courses Added New Spark!

Below: Barrel Making is a new mini-course and quite popular. This student cuts a barrel to the size needed.

Above: Chess is a combination of strategy and skill. A high school student and one of Gardner's students concentrate on their moves in Mr. Springer's Chess mini-course.

Sports

I've seen boys on my baseball team go into slumps and never come out of them, and I've seen others snap right out and come back better than ever. I guess more players lick themselves than are ever licked by an opposing team. The first thing any man has to know is how to handle himself.

Left: Always watching and busy on the sidelines were the wrestling coaches, Mr. Noecker (standing) and Mr. Glover. Mr. Noecker's excitement and "frustration" was often shown when he got up and headed for the mat. To Mr. Glover's left are Mike Terry, Tony Salazar and Jeff Barker. For all of the excitement of a wrestling meet, most of the time is spent on the bench. Each match between two wrestlers took four and one-half minutes and thirteen wrestlers performed in competition at every meet.

TO A CHEERLEADER

There are little eyes upon you,
and they're staring night and day.
There are little ears that quickly,
take in everything you say.
There are little hands all eager,
to do anything you do.
And a little girl whose dreaming,
of the day she'll be like you.

9th Grade

Whoever you are, there is some younger person who thinks you are perfect. There is some work that will never be done if you don't do it. There is someone who would miss you if you were gone. There is a good reason for becoming better than you are. There is a place you alone can fill.

Hardworking Services Sparkle Up School

When you're on your death bed who's the one that always fixes you up? Of course, our one and only Mrs. Misener. Top Left: Mrs. Misener works on her daily duties. Above: Aides work hard running errands and doing paper work. Many teachers couldn't get along without them.

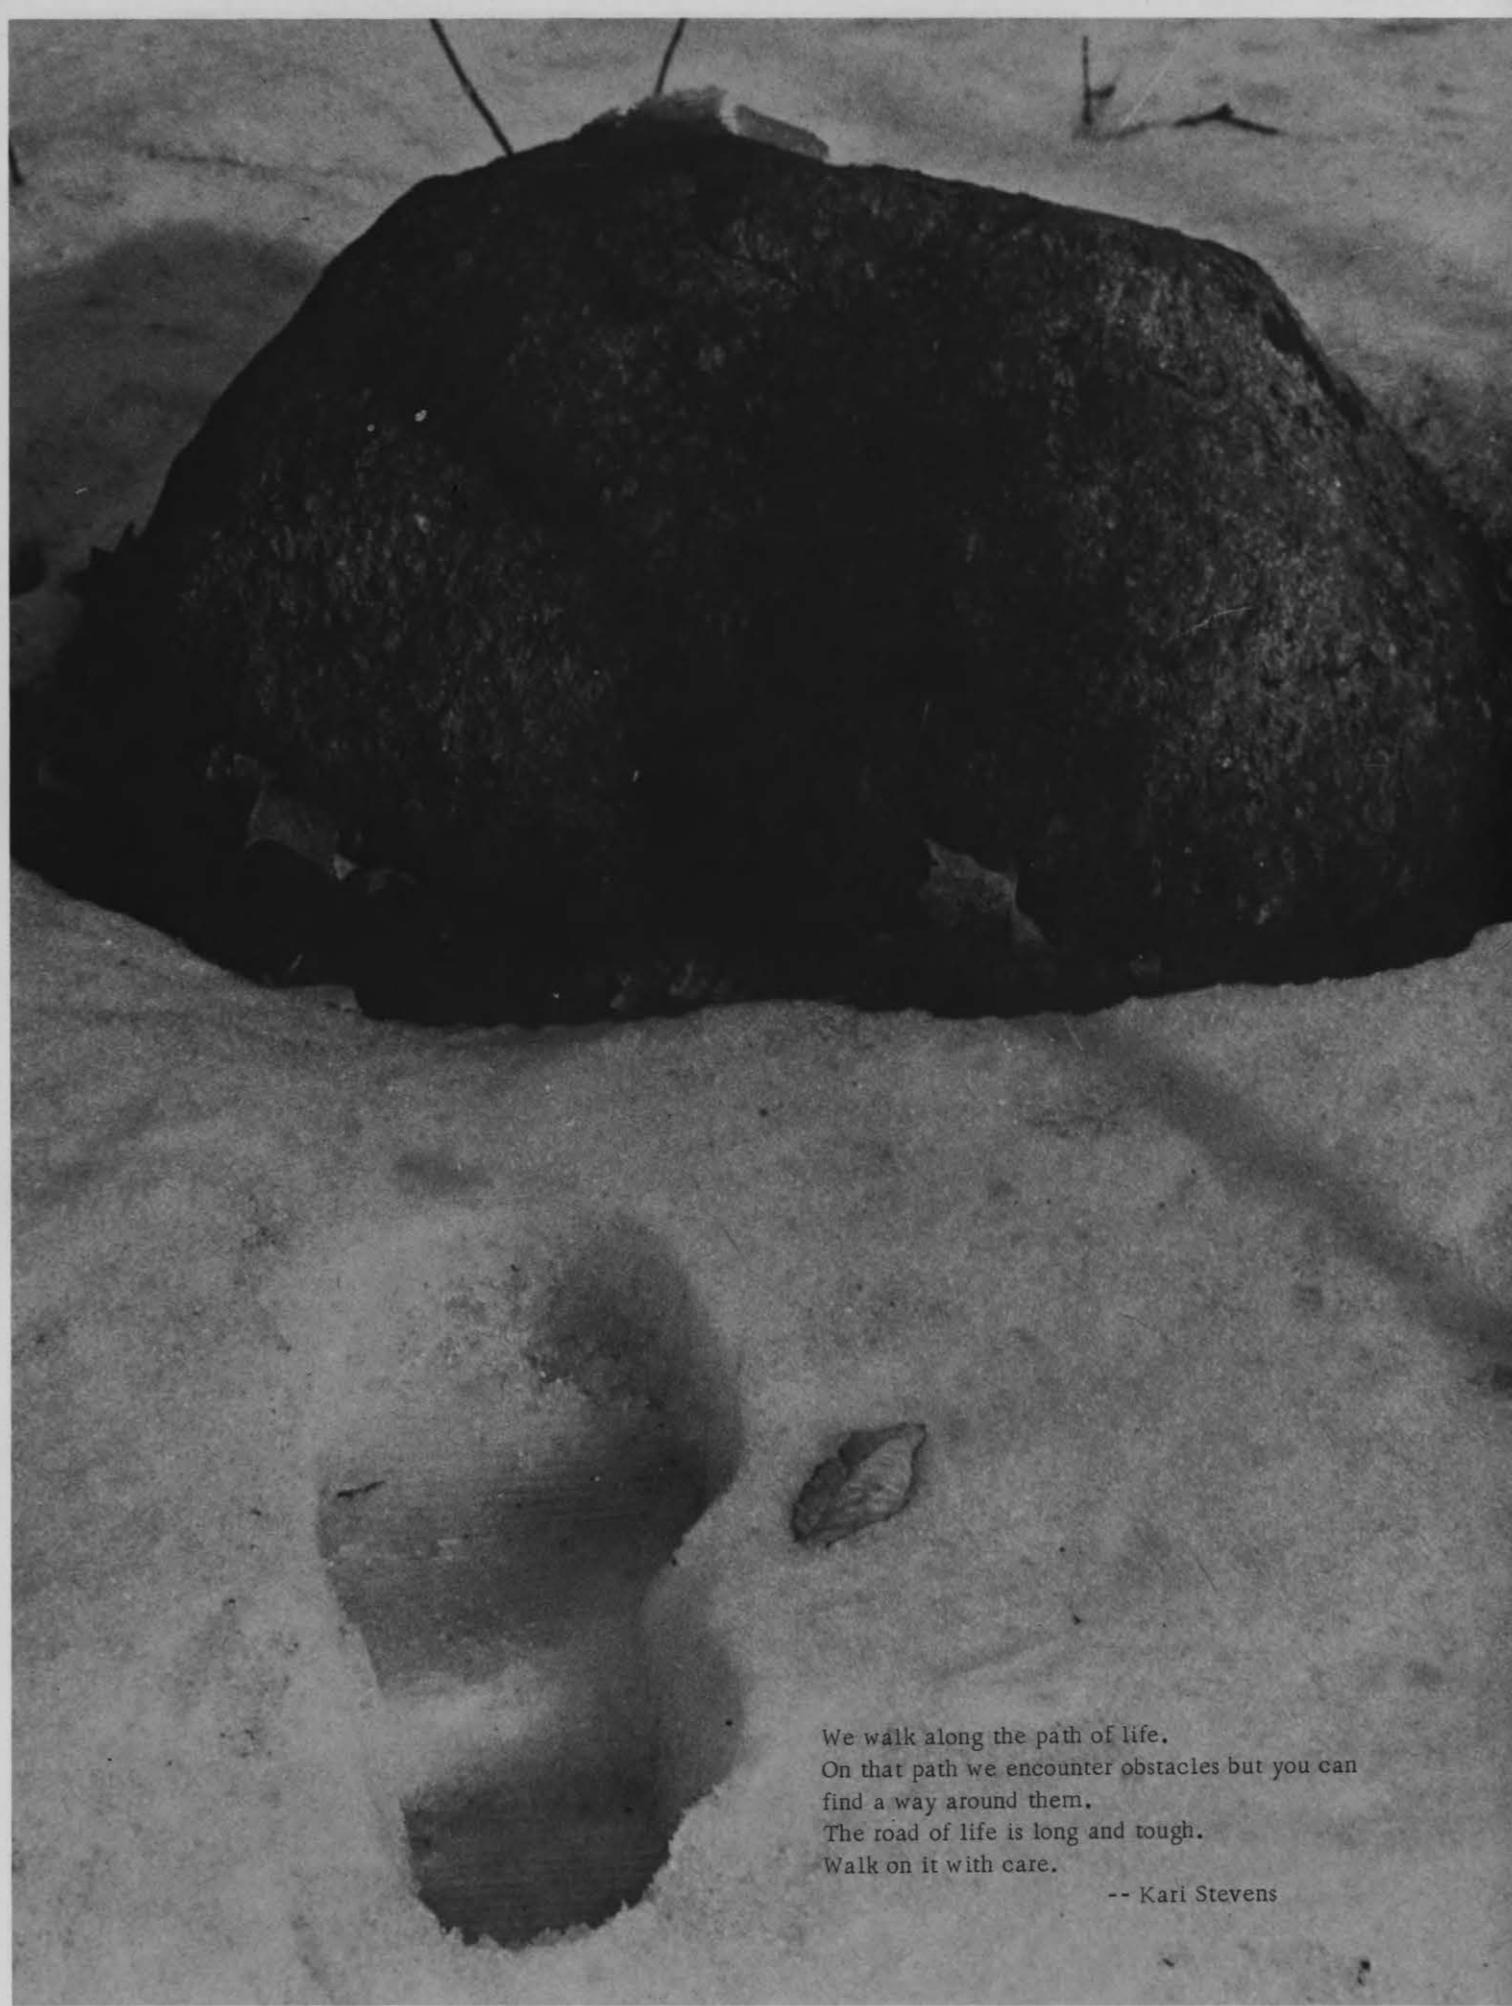

The people who work in the cafeteria has a hard job trying to please 1500 starving students. Right: Cafeteria helpers get ready for a hungry stampede. Above: Janitors talk over their night chores, so the school will be immaculate when the students return the next day.

Forest Park Library and Archives - Capital Area District Libraries

We walk along the path of life.
On that path we encounter obstacles but you can find a way around them.
The road of life is long and tough.
Walk on it with care.

-- Kari Stevens

Forest Park Library and Archives - Capital Area District Libraries

Above: The Activity rooms over the gyms took on a different appearance as decorations were carefully placed for the 9A Prom.

Spring Fever Lingers Over 9A Prom

Above: Ms. Brauer's Art classes spent a lot of time preparing the decorations for the theme "Stairway to Heaven." Below: D.J. Charlie Tuna took requests and kept the disc spinning as music and dreams rolled on.

Yearbook Staff

WE BELONG!

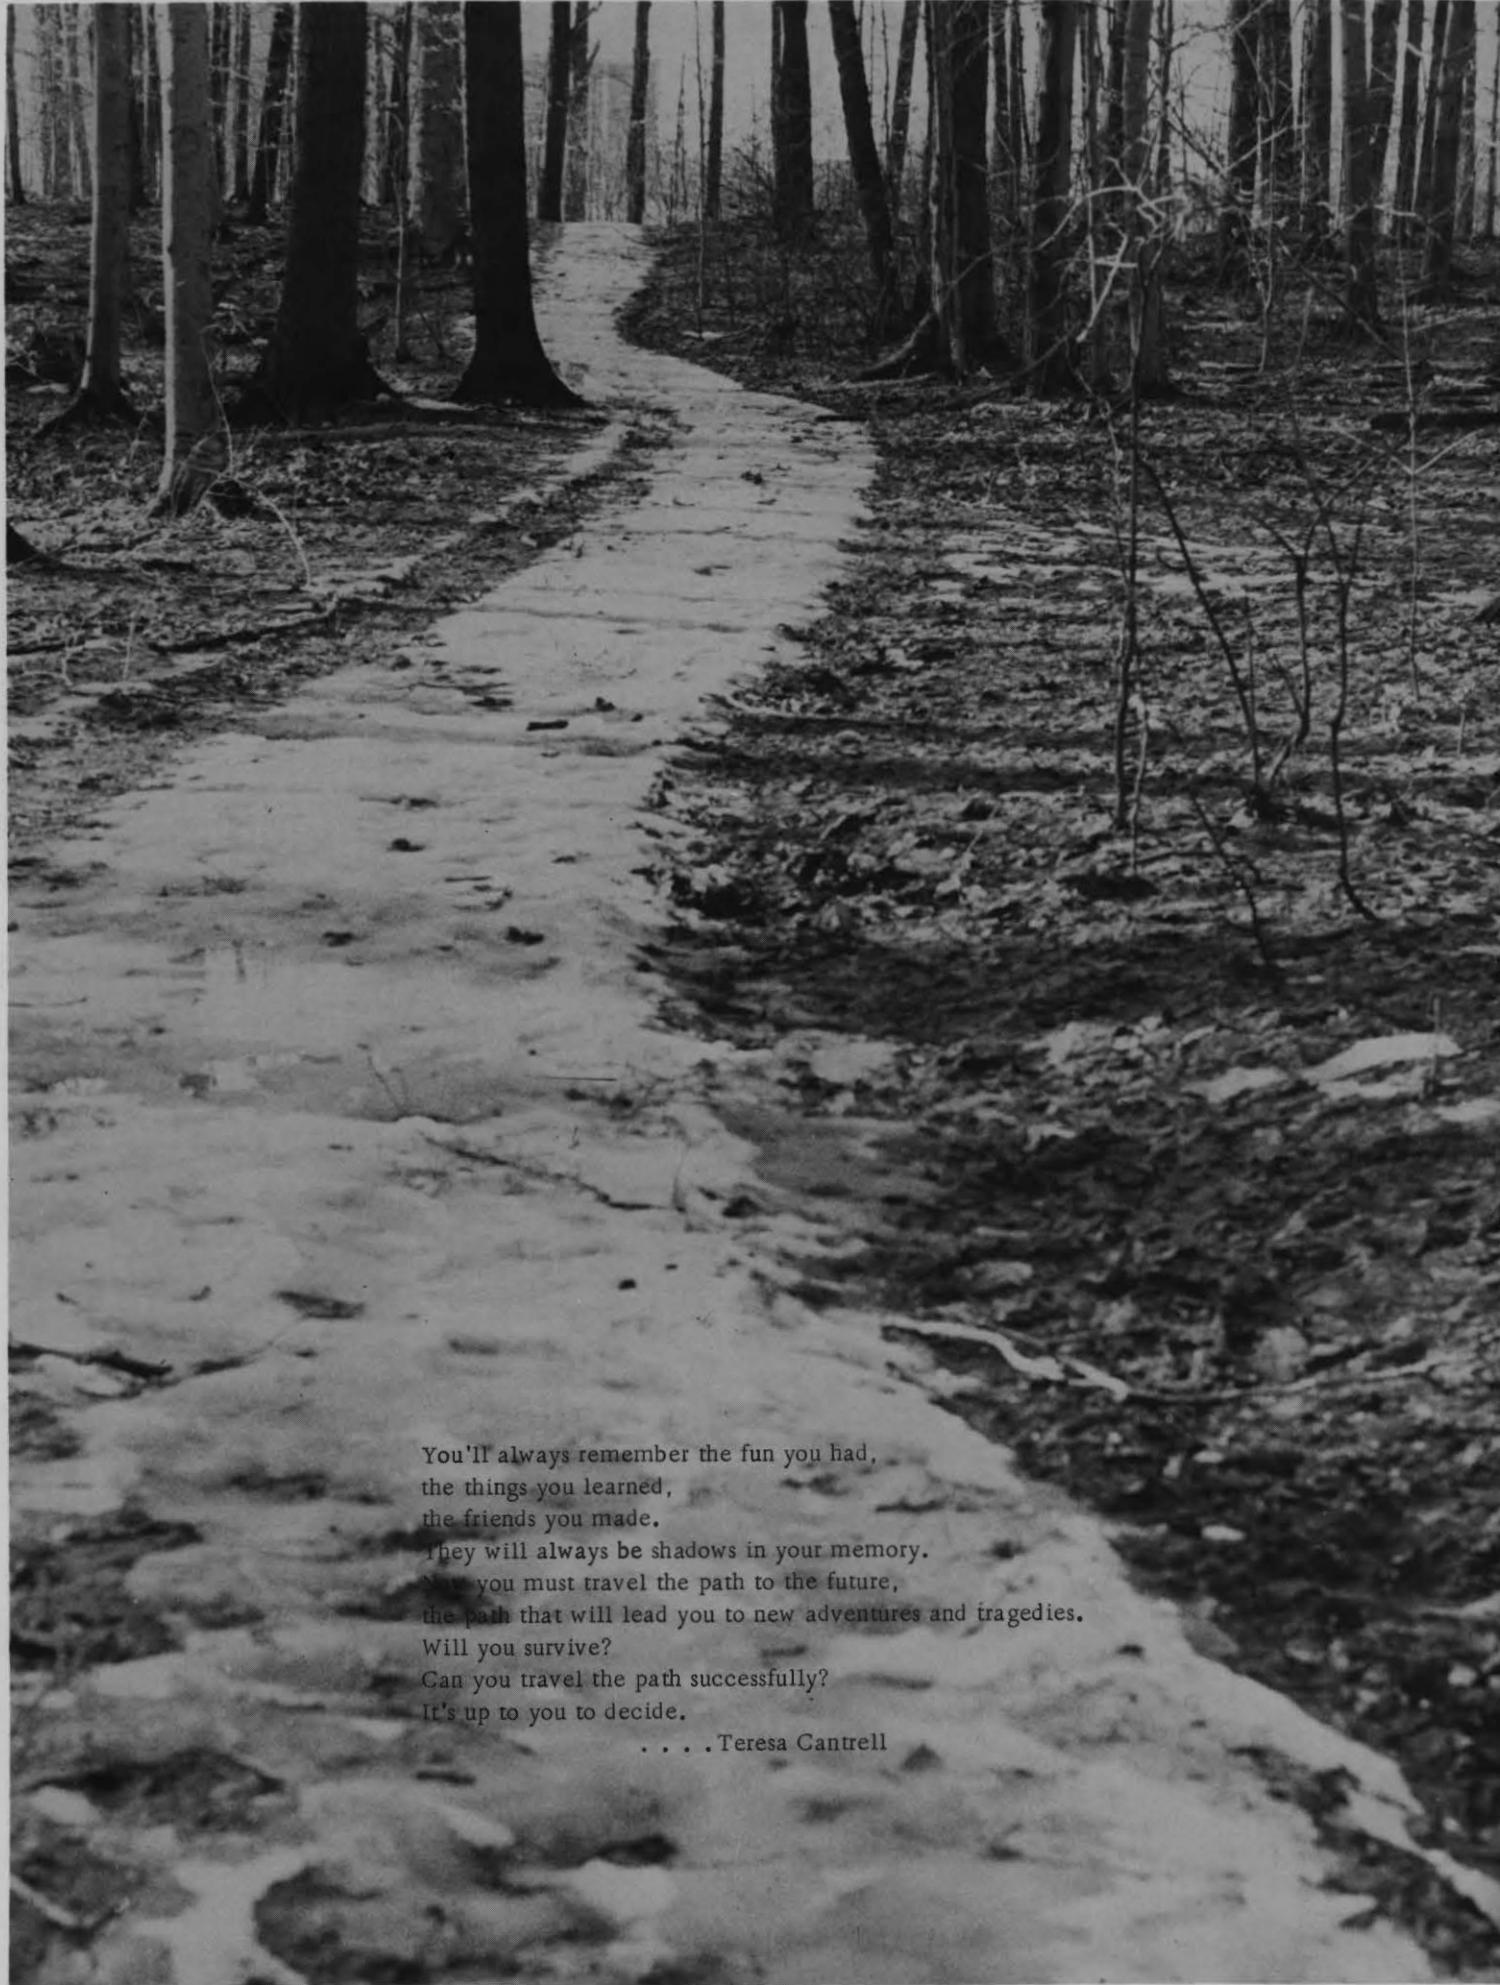

No one can say we don't. . .
No one can say we have no right to be
No one can say we're no one. . .
Because we're ourselves.
We belong to the world.

-- Kari Stevens

Darkness will cover
the love,
the memories,
the fun,
and the new sunshine will try and make us forget the past...
But the seasons will return again with new memories and
new friends.

-- Kari Stevens

You'll always remember the fun you had,
the things you learned,
the friends you made.
They will always be shadows in your memory.
Now you must travel the path to the future,
the path that will lead you to new adventures and tragedies.
Will you survive?
Can you travel the path successfully?
It's up to you to decide.
