Partly cloudy and cooler today; fair and cooler tonight and Thursday.

Fair Opens Monday, Runs Full Seven Days

All the fair activity isn't at Flushing Meadows, the site of the New York World's Fair. A big chunk of it will unfold beginning Monday right here in Mason when the Ingham county fair throws open its gates to what Fair Secretary Joy O. Davis maintains will be the best ever.

Monday is opening day with most of the action centering around the setting up of the commercial exhibits, the 4-H exhibits and the open class exhibits.

Beginning with opening day and carrying through Sunday, an innovation this year, the fair is packed with fun for all.

In front of the grandstand Monday afternoon are the pony races and pony pull. In the evening Gene Holter's animal show will have the spotlight.

Tuesday is children's day with midway rides at a knock-down price and big afternoon of contests in front of the grandstand with lots of prizes. In the evening the Paul Bunyan Canadian show will take over in front of the grandstand.

Harness racing starts Wednesday afternoon with both trotters and pacers in action. In the evening an ice revue will play for the grandstand audience.

Thursday afternoon is devoted to more harness racing. At 4 p.m. the junior stock sale will be conducted. At 4:15 4-H and FFA floats will vie for prizes in front of the grandstand. Thursday night is 4-H night with a big parade, 4-H horse show and the 4-H talent show climaxed by a fireworks display and the greased pig scramble.

On Friday morning the calf drawing and 4-H demonstrations will take over. The final racing program is set for the afternoon. Star attraction Friday night in front of the grandstand will be an auto thrill show.

Starting at 12:30 Saturday the light and heavy horse pulling contests are scheduled. Saturday night it will be McKinley's rodeo in front of the grandstand.

The rodeo will also put on performances Sunday afternoon and evening. On Sunday afternoon the midway will also be in operation.

Injunction Halts Dart Bank in Delhi

Plans for a new Dart National bank building in Delhi township are being held up pending a law suit in federal court brought by American Bank & Trust of Lansing last Wednesday.

The action of the Lansing bank was taken within a week after Comptroller of the Currency James Saxon had issued federal approval of the Dart request to establish banking quarters in Delhi.

American Bank & Trust, a state bank, has a branch bank in the township.

A pre-trial hearing is scheduled for Thursday in Grand Rapids district federal court to act upon the injunction against Dart National.

Rollin Dart, president of Dart National, said the injunction stopped plans to erect temporary bank quarters on property available to the bank on Aurelius road adjacent to the Griffith drug complex to the south. He said mobile quarters had already been acquired and scheduled for opening to the public sometime next month when the injunction was served on the comptroller in Washington.

The action of American Bank & Trust will delay this service to the township until it can be settled, he said.

American Bank & Trust is the only bank established in Delhi township. The approval of the Dart banking quarters for the township by federal authorities was based in part, Dart said, on the fact that the township is rapidly growing and additional banking facilities are in the best interests of the residents of the township.

Mason Scholar Ends 2-Year Foreign Study

A young man sat on the porch of his father's home here in Mason the other day and told how he turned a youthful hobby into a profession.

He is Robert Carroll, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll of 223 W. South street. Robert Carroll is a vertebrae paleontologist and for the past 2 years he has been working on the problem of the evolution of reptiles, trying to determine what particular group of amphibians gave rise to reptiles.

He spent the past year in Europe studying collections in national museums in Czechoslovakia and in London, and in Edinburgh and Glasgow, Scotland.

So far, he said, conclusions he has reached have been pretty negative.

He spent a month in Prague where he said he found the people apparently reasonably happy. Conditions there are not as prosperous. He said the stores in Prague have adequate stocks of goods but their displays are drab by western standards.

Asked about the food in Prague, he said the coffee was poor. He said it tasted like ground coffee made like instant coffee. He said the Czechs still have a meatless day once a week. While he was there it was Thursday.

He said the markets in Prague were old fashioned, compared to U.S. standards, but there is considerable building going on in the city.

Czechoslovakians live under certain restrictions, he said, and one of them concerns money. Czechs are not permitted to bring any money into the country or take any out. The result is that it is difficult for a Czech citizen to travel outside the borders of his own country.

Carroll was in Prague a month before moving to England. There, he said, he found conditions about like they are in America.

Carroll was born in Kalamazoo but spent his boyhood in Mason. He graduated from Mason high school in 1956. That year he was the salutatorian of his class. The valedictorian was Helen Swaim of Mason. They were married in 1961.

After high school, Carroll enrolled at Michigan State university and later studied at Harvard university in Cambridge, Massachusetts. He holds degrees in geology and biology. While in Mason high school he was a member of the debating team and mayor of the student government.

For the past 2 years he has been studying under government scholarships, but this fall will teach at McGill university in Montreal, Canada. His subjects will be vertebrae evolution and vertebrae paleontology.

Carroll arrived in Mason last Friday after a flight from Paris to Montreal. He came on to Mason by car.

He plans to go to Kansas next month and then return here for a brief stay before taking up his teaching duties in Montreal.

School Board Books Meet

Mason board of education is scheduled to meet Wednesday night at the office of Superintendent M. Chandler Nauts in the junior high school building at 8 o'clock.

Principal matters to come before the board will be the receiving of bids for construction of the new Aurelius elementary school at Aurelius and Columbia roads, receiving bids for bus insurance and for gasoline and fuel oil for the 1964-65 school year.

The board also will receive bids for some minor work to be done at schools, mostly painting and pointing, at the junior high scool, Cedar street school, Steele street school and the senior high school.

Another meeting of the board is scheduled for Monday night.

Ready, Set, Go

Hey kids, mark this day on your calendar. Mason schools will open for business again on Wednesday, September 9. That's exactly 6 weeks from today.

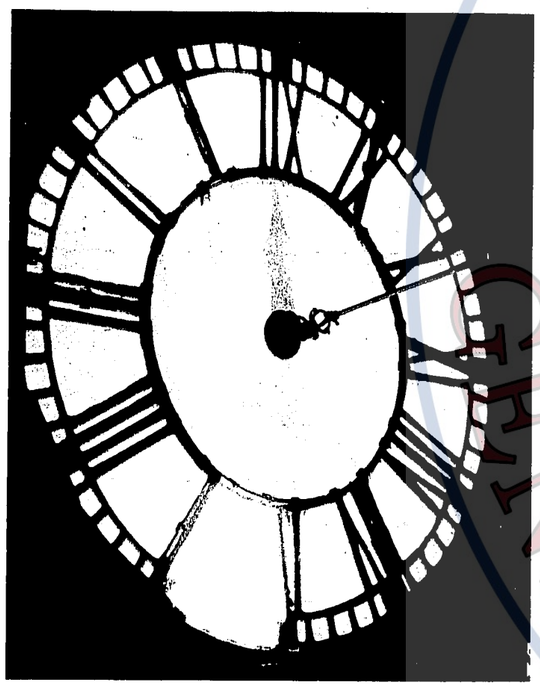

Singer Heads For Latin America

Yolanda Dillon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dillon of Mason, is singing her way through South America. She left on tour with the Michigan Chorale on a swing through South American countries.

The Mason girl graduated in June.

The Michigan Chorale is composed of outstanding singers and musicians selected after auditioning and a long period of weekly rehearsal sessions in Ann Arbor. The group presents concerts in various cities throughout the world each summer. While on tour the singers stay with families.

The program is part of Youth for Understanding teenage exchange program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches and the Washtenaw Council of Churches.

The Courthouse Gets a Facelift

Green Apple Fells Driver

Three Mason people were almost the victims--in the true sense of the word--of a vicious prank Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hunt were riding with their son, Louis, on Waverly road near Jolly at 9:30 Monday night. All of a sudden Louis slammed on the brakes and yelled that he had been hit and could not see.

After skidding to a stop at the side of the road he located the missile which had struck him in the temple. It was a large and hard green apple.

Cars Collide

Three persons were injured in a 2-car accident on Bond road west of Aurelius road Thursday about 8 p.m. One car, driven by Duane Elvin Litchfield, 22, of Eaton Rapids and one driven by Lillian May Spinning, 59, of Charlotte met head on. Litchfield, Mrs. Spinning and George Spinning, 69, suffered cuts and bruises. Mr. and Mrs. Spinning were treated at Mason General hospital and Litchfield was taken to Hayes-Green-Beech hospital in Charlotte. James A. Swan, 34, Eaton Rapids, a passenger in the Spinning car, was uninjured.

Sunday Is Cut-Over For DD Phone Service

Next Sunday, August 2, will mark a milestone in telephonic communication for the Lansing-Mason area.

At 2:01 a.m. direct distance dialing (DDD) will become effective.

Direct distance dialing permits a person in Mason, for instance, to step to his telephone and call a number in a distant city without first calling the operator and placing the call.

The United States and Canada are divided into more than 100 telephone areas each identified by a 3-digit area code number. This system makes possible direct distance dialing on most station-to-station calls.

Michigan is divided into 3 such areas. The area code number for Mason and other towns in an area extending from Cheboygan to the north and Hillsdale to the south and east of Petoskey, Traverse City, Cadillac, Grand Rapids, Battle Creek, Olivet, and Benton Harbor is 517. Area 517 on the east extends to the eastern lake shore from Cheboygan south to Mayville and then cuts westward.

Another Michigan area includes the Battle Creek, Grand Rapids, Cadillac, Traverse City, Benton harbor district which has a code area number of 616. Another area in the southeastern part of the state which embraces much of the Greater Detroit area has an area code number of 313. The entire upper peninsula is in one code area. No. 906.

To make a long distance call within area 517 dial the numeral I and then the telephone number. Do not dial the area code number.

To call a number outside the 517 area in Michigan or elsewhere, a user would first dial I, then the area code number, then the telephone number of the person being called.

As an example, if you wished to call a person at telephone number 421-9900 in San Francisco, you would first dial 1 then the San Francisco code number which is 415, then the telephone number.

If the telephone number of the person to be called long distance, dial the information operator serving many distant places without charge. First dial 1, then the area code (if it is not 517), and then 555-1212.

Area code numbers are listed in the telephone directory and also in the DDD dialing directory, which has been sent to telephone users.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowles reside at 5166 W. Nichols road, Mason.

Work Starts on Showroom

Work has started on a new garage and showroom for Al Rice Chevrolet. The new structure is being built on North Cedar street near the entrance to the new Ingham county jail. Reniger Construction Co. of Lansing has the contract.

Completion date is scheduled for late this fall. The city of Mason has purchased the present Chevy garage from Rice and has plans to turn it into a city hall and fire station.

Former Ingham Librarian Gets New State Highway Job

Norman Bunker, former Ingham county librarian and Mason resident, has been named to the new post of librarian for the state highway department.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie announced the appointment of Norman Bunker, 46, of Marquette as librarian for the Michigan state highway department.

Mackie said Bunker will develop a central catalogue and indexing system for all books, manuals, reports, technical papers and other materials used in highway work.

"For several years, we have felt there is a need to catalogue these materials," Mackie said.

"The planning, engineering and construction of highways has become so complex that a more efficient reference system must be developed. Our new librarian is well qualified to do this."

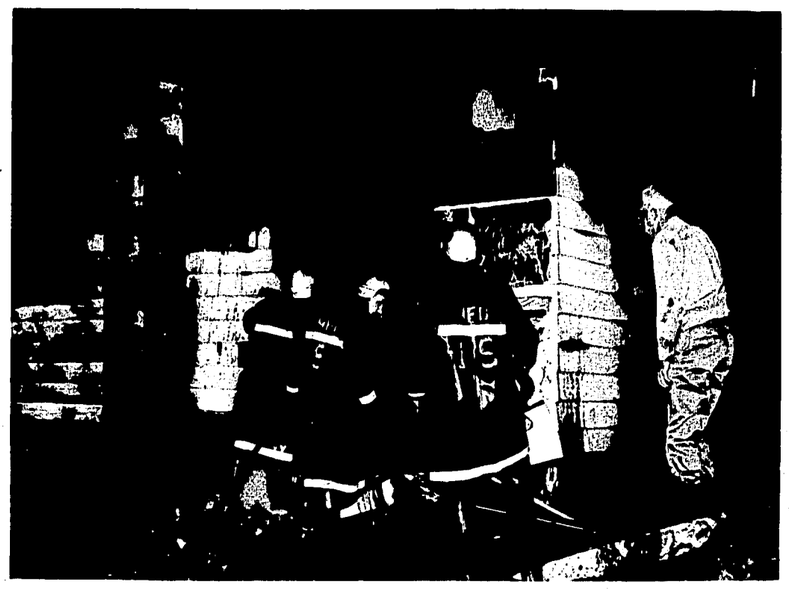

Mackie said Bunker will not only catalogue all materials in the Michigan State university and University of Michigan transportation libraries and improve liaison with the Michigan State library.

Bunker, a native of Lansing, graduated from Michigan State university in 1941 with a bachelor's degree in library science. He received his Master's Degree in Library Science from the University of Michigan in 1949.

Bunker was the branch assistant in the Dearborn public library system in 1940-50 and was head librarian of the Carnegie library at Ironwood from 1950 to 1954 and director of the Ingham county library at Mason from 1954 to 1960. Since 1960, he has been head librarian at Northern Michigan University in Marquette.

Ingham Zoning Issue Brings Hot Debate

The Ingham township zoning board at a special meeting Tuesday night, approved the request of Lucien J. and Margaret E. Ruest to recommend to the township board the rezoning to a residential district, the north 20 acres of their farm. The board's action was unanimous after a lengthy hearing in which Supervisor Gilbert Glover argued heatedly against favorable action. The Ruests plan to subdivide their 40 acre farm into 3 acre parcels, reserving a 10-acre parcel for their residence.

At one point during the hearing, Glover said that Ruest wanted to subdivide and sell at a profit and that he would not approve the use of township tax money to amend the ordinance, in affect, subsidizing a private business venture. Ruest countered that as a taxpayer in the township he was entitled to the services the board could render him even if it cost the township money to do so. Glover shot back that he would not approve of tax money being used to enrich any one individual. He said he did not oppose the rezoning as such, but objected to the cost of amending the ordinance. Ruest then asked Glover if he would deny him fire protection to protect his investment in his property because it costs the taxpayers at least $68 every time the fire department answers a call.

"That's an unfair interpretation of what I said," Glover complained. "No it isn't. It's a logical extension of your reasoning," Ruest replied. Zoning Board Chairman Clifford Allen pointed out that the request by Ruest was a reasonable one and one that the board could legally act on. This is the first time in the history of the township zoning ordiance that a request for rezoning has been made. The zoning ordinance was adopted in 1956. Secretary of the Board Searl Briggs made the motion to pass the resolution to recommend to the township board the rezoning as requested by Ruest. The motion was seconded by Floyd Mitchell with Lester Fuhrman concurring.

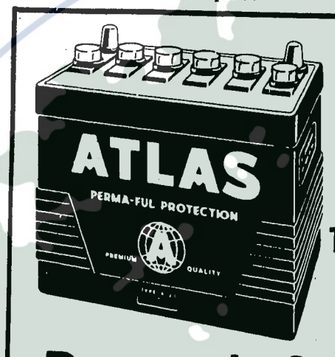

The zoning board will now hold at least one public hearing on its recommendation before the township board can act on it. If approved by that board, the amendment is then presented to the County board of supervisors coordinating committee for its action.

Mason Police Solve Brake Trailer Case

Mason police have solved a burglary at a house trailer owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Brake of the Mason Go-Cart shop at 207 Park street, with the apprehension of 3 teen-age Lansing boys, Chief Tim Stolz, announced this week.

Stolz said the 3 boys came to the house trailer last week while Mr. and Mrs. Brake were on a vacation and broke into the trailer where Brake stored Go-Kart engines, parts and other supplies. Loot taken from the trailer included 3 engines, 4 or 5 carburetors, 2 or 3 clutches, 2 wheels and tires and several packages of miscellaneous parts, the whole lot valued at about $600.

When Brake returned from his vacation a youth in Lansing whom he knew telephoned him and told him what a good buy he had made on a Go-Kart engine. As he described the engine, Brake became convinced it was one of those stolen from his house trailer. The Lansing youth brought the engine to Brake and he identified it as his.

Mason police then closed in on the boy who had sold the engine and he implicated 2 others, all of whom were picked up. All the loot, except one engine, was recovered. One of the stolen engines was found on a scooter owned by one of the 3 boys involved.

Stolz said his investigation revealed that the 3 boys came to Mason in a car owned by the father of one of them. They had taken the car without the parent's permission. Two boys remained in the car while a third entered the house trailer. He found he could not get an engine from one of the Go-Karts and so the boys went to a Mason store, purchased a set of cheap wrenches, returned to the trailer and completed the burglary.

Then they went back to Lansing. The boy who telephoned Brake was not involved in the burglary and cooperated fully with Brake and the police in their work in solving the crime.

Big Market

An estimated 40 million women comprise the home sewing market in the United States, Michigan State university clothing specialists report. Generally, these women sew because they want to, not because they must. A March 1963 survey by the National Home Sewing Institute revealed that 75 per cent or more of the women who sew belong to families with incomes higher than the national average.

Food Processor Defends System

American consumers are better protected by the natural forces of the highly competitive food industry than they would be by additional government regulation, C. W. Cook, president of General Foods corporation, told a group of newspaper publishers and editors in New York.

"Government says the consumer needs more protection in the supermarket," Cook asserted. "We think the American homemaker is the most sophisticated, discriminating, value-conscious buyer anywhere in the world. We think she has adequate governmental safeguards in her food stores now, and we know though politicians tend to overlook this--that her greatest safeguard is the vigorous competition which characterizes our business."

Cook addressed 350 members of the National Editorial association on the concluding day of their three-day convention at the Hotel Commodore. "Our business and yours have a problem in common," he said. "This is the expanding government involvement in our daily business, an increasingly troublesome fact of life for both of us."

The chief operating officer of one of the nation's leading processors of packaged grocery products pointed out that some current government activities "seem to suggest that the industry which has made this the best-fed nation on earth must be watched even more closely than it already is."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a bouffant gown of white silk organza and tafetta, fashioned in a basque silhousette, with a gently curved portrait neckline, and long petal pointed sleeves. Appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace formed a scroll design on the front bodice, and were repeated in a single spray design on the skirt, which swept into a chapel train from a back bustle. Her bouffant veil of imported bridal illusion was attached to a double lace crown outlined with tiny seed pearls and brilliants. She carried a cascade of flowers, consisting of a white orchid surrounded by white sweetheart roses.

The bride's attendants were maid of honor, Miss Linda Bowers, cousin of the bride of Hagerstown, Maryland, and 3 bridesmaids, Miss Marie Penwell of Kabletown, West Virginia; Miss Darlene Ware of Leetown, West Virginia, and Miss Judy Magaha of Ransom, West Virginia.

The maid of honor wore a dress of white Chantilace over lilac taffeta, styled with a scooped neckline and short sleeves. The sheath skirt was finished with a back over skirt of lilac organza. The bridesmaids' dresses were styled identically, and had white Chantilace over powder blue organza. The attendants wore matching crowns of tiny leaves and seed pearls with a circular veil. They carried circular bouquets of carnations, tinted to match the dresses.

Miss Cindy Bowers, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white organza, trimmed with lace. Her headdress was a crown ringlet of flowers with a miniature circular veil. She carried a basket of miniature carnations and rose petals.

Kenneth Wightman, of Saginaw, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer. David Wightman, brother of the bridegroom of Saginaw was best man, and ushers were Rev. Rayburn Fritz of Everett, Pennsylvania; Rev. John Stevenson of Washington, Pennsylvania and Rev. Ritchie Ball of Clearville, Pennsylvania.

Graham Will Seek Office

County Drain Commissioner Gerald L. Graham has filed for another term.

In announcing intentions for re-election to the office of drain commissioner, Graham called attention to a number of facts that are going to effect the drain office in the next few years.

Drainage throughout the county has been neglected for the last several years for various reasons.

The metropolitan townships have been devoting all their time and money to sanitary sewer construction. This is building up a back log of closed storm drains in these areas.

The out-county area has placed so much land in the soil bank, that there has been an organized resistance from soil bank people. Both the reasons have been made possible through several years of drought.

During the past few years there have been hundreds of acres taken out of production in the county by the highway expansion program, Graham said. This is going to change some areas completely during the progress of construction. Many open drains have been silted up to the point requiring maintenance. The highways are going to throw a lot of land into higher type use and greater runoff potentials. This will lead to more expensive closed drains in these areas.

During these slack years the area has lost a number of good contractors. Competition in the past has held the price line. The competition has been seriously thinned.

East Lansing Man Seeks State Post

George C. Bubolz, East Lansing, has filed for the office of representative from the 59th District, which includes East Lansing, Williamston and Mason as well as rural sections of Ingham county.

Bubolz is emphasizing his community service and his broad interest in suburban problems as a candidate on the Democratic ticket for this office in the new district.

He served as pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran church from 1928 through 1948, and is currently president of the Bubolz Insurance company in East Lansing.

A holder of the Master of Arts degree from Michigan State university, he wrote his thesis in sociology in the field of community work. He has also attended the University of Berlin and is a regular student in the field of insurance in continuing education at MSU. A native of Seymour, Wisconsin, he attended the schools of Woodville, Ohio, and Capital university in Columbus.

Community organizations in which he has participated as an active member include the University Lutheran church, the East Lansing Kiwanis club, the Men's club at Michigan State, the East Lansing Community Council, the Wrangler's club, the Lansing Skating club, the Lansing Ski club and 2 organizations in which he has held leadership posts, the East Lansing Chamber of Commerce (a former secretary), and the East Lansing Communities YMCA, of which he is secretary of the board of management. He is also a member of the Lansing YMCA, and of the MSU Alumni club of Ingham county.

Mrs. Bubolz has been active in Girl Scouts and PTA work and is a member of the East Lansing Weaver's Guild.

Areas included in the 59th district for this campaign are, in addition to East Lansing, the following communities: Meridian, Williamston, Locke, Wheatfield, Leroy, Vevay, Ingham, White Oak, Onondaga, Leslie, Bunker Hill and Stockbridge Townships, and a portion of Jackson county. The candidate was urged to run because of his background as a minister, teacher and community leader.

The candidate made this statement:

"I have engaged personally in community activities and I believe that individuals should accept community responsibility. I believe in the democratic ideals of majority rule and responsible government."

Several Mason players took part in 3 separate matches, winning all of them. Among these were Dan DeMartin, Robbie Tear, Chris Eifert and Bill Strait.

Karen Evans, playing #1 for Mason, had a good match with Betty Bracken, Toledo's member of the Ohio Junior Wightman cup team. Jennell Cappo, playing the second position, had a close match with Kathy Smith, finally losing, 10-9.

Other winners for Mason included Steve Reeser and Mark Campbell, Lorraine Bateman, Carol Campbell, Holly Stribley and Cindy Bitgood. Karen Evans and Jennell Cappo won their doubles match.

Players are now readying their games for tournaments in South Bend and Holland. Also, those who assisted at the NCAA tournament last month work out every Monday afternoon with Coach Stan Drobac at Michigan State university.

In other action the board conducted a hearing in a property transfer request by Paul Axline and Earl Hicks for transfer from the Island school district to the Mason district. The requests were approved.

Approval was given to the Mason board of education to construct at intermediate board expense, 2 special education classrooms in the proposed new elementary school building at Aurelius and Columbia roads. This approval is contingent upon the availability of students to occupy the rooms.

The board also:

Designated the Mason State Bank as a depository for intermediate board funds.

Formally certified taxes for both general education and special education.

Fire Destroys Farm Home

Five persons were left homeless when fire swept through the 4-room home of Carl Gibbs Jr. at Kelly road and Dexter trail, 31/2 miles east of Mason early Tuesday.

The alarm came in around 4 a.m. and 14 Mason firemen battled the blaze with 2 pumpers.

Members of the Gibbs family were not at home. They had gone to Detroit to visit a sick relative.

The fire is believed to have started from a cigaret in a davenport in the living room, Fire Chief Silsby said.

Silsby said when firemen arrived the living room of the one-story house was in flames. Only the shell of the building remained standing.

Holt Tries Again for Millage

HOLT - Teacher salaries in the Holt-Dimondale schools were raised last spring, but in doing it it was necessary to cut back several other big items in the school budget, school officials said this week.

They pointed out that it was necessary to increase teacher salaries if Holt is to get qualified instructors equal to those in other neighboring school districts.

So in giving the teachers an increase, other items in the school budget were cut back, including capital outlay for new equipment, $20,000 and the maintenance budget $13,000. Other items also were reduced to a total cut of $55,000.

Voters are to be asked August 25 to approve a levy of 2.5 mills for 5 years for operation of the Holt-Dimondale schools.

Twice before this year this proposal has been defeated, once in April by a vote of 794 to 630 and again in June by a vote of 1136 to 1066.

In the April vote the proposal lost in 3 of the 4 voting precincts. In June it carried in all Holt precincts, but lost heavily in the Dimondale precinct.

In the matter of teacher salaries, increases voted by the school bond last spring hiked salary minimums from $4570 to $4809 and maximums from $6300 to $6800 with raises also for all teachers in between these levels.

Salaries for teachers in the Holt-Dimondale district today compare with other neighboring districts' minimum and maximum salaries as follows:

East Lansing, $5100 to $7400; Haslett, $4700 to $6600, Lansing, $5150 to $8200; Mason, $4700 to $6600; Okemos, $5000 to $7000; Waverly, $5200 to $7600.

Delhi Township Board Has Routine Session

HOLT - The Delhi Charter township board had a rather brief meeting Monday, handling a number of routine matters and adjourning shortly after 9 p.m.

Supervisor Joe Kiersey and Trustee Earl Mead were both absent. They are on vacation. Trustee Kenneth Hope presided at the meeting.

The board approved the plat of Buckingham Estates, lying along Sycamore and Hamilton streets near Jefferson Heights. The plat contains 78 lots.

Lawrence Dunn, 1404 Edgar road with 3 other residents of that area, protested to the board regarding a used car lot in the neighborhood which he charged is unsightly. The board took no action on the protest, but Dunn was told he could file a complaint if he so desired.

New tax forms will be in use in the township this year. The new forms will list county, township and school taxes due and show the assessed valuation and the rate per $1,000. Special assessments will be listed on another form.

Richard Dart, township treasurer, said the revised tax statements are simpler and their use will reduce the cost of preparation of the tax rolls. He estimated the township would save around $1,000 in preparing the tax rolls and statements by using the new forms.

Dead trees overhanging Coolridge road in the 2100 and 2200 block are endangering children and cars and the neighbors are complaining, the board was advised. The county road commission will be advised of the situation and be asked to remove the dead trees along the right of way. Meanwhile property owners having dead trees on their property also will be notified by the board to remove them.

The board moved to transfer title of an old tanker in the fire department to the sewer district. Appraisers place no market value on the old tanker. The sewer district will use it in cleaning out sewer lines.

The board increased the annual salary of William Woodard, assistant sewer plant operator from $4,138 to $4,500.

It received from Edgar Church, township attorney, of the firm of Church, Wyble and Parks of Lansing that briefs have been filed in the suit brought by Wilbur C. Gunn against the township. This litigation involves a sewer line running along McCue road.

Church also announced that the case of the city of Lansing against Delhi charter township involving a piece of property near the North cemetery has been tried and has now been taken under advisement by Judge Sam Street Hughes.

Church also delivered an order dismissing the suit brought by the township against the city of Lansing over the annexation of Maple Grove area to Lansing.

Officials of Delhi Charter township and the city of Lansing will meet August 4 at 1:30 p.m. to discuss terms of settlement of properties involved in the annexation of the Maple Grove area to Lansing.

And on August 10 Gerald Graham, Ingham county drain commissioner, will meet with the board to discuss the Menger and Grovenburg drains.

The board was advised by the county clerk that amendments to the township building ordinance, have been approved.

Employes of the township are now covered by a workmen's compensation insurance policy written by the Hartford Accident and Indemnity company, the board was advised. The board was informed at its last meeting that the State Accident Fund which had carried the policy, would not renew it.

Claims totalling $5,773.09 were approved.

The old favorite, the merry-go-round, was given a workout at the fair.

The parachute ride was another popular attraction for both young and old.

At Stockbridge

Legion Fair Big Success

STOCKBRIDGE - The eighteenth annual Free Fair, sponsored by the Stockbridge Legion Post, ended it's week long run Saturday and was termed a success by a spokesman for that organization. Approximately 30,000 persons attended.

For the first time in several years, the weather was perfect throughout the event and no rain at any time while the fair was open.

In the legion building there were some excellent displays, both by local businesses as well as area 4-H groups.

One of the biggest single events of this year's fair was the tractor pulling contest on Thursday evening with some 40 entries. With the unexpected number of entries, the contest lasted well over four hours.

Winners of the tractor pulling contest were: in the light weight division, Ted Watters and Howard Trapp. In the medium weight division, first place was taken by 15 year old Dean Batchelor, second, David Myer and third went to Gordon Taylor, The heavyweight division was won by C. Rice with Joe Taylor taking second and third went to Linwood Nims.

A Legion spokesman said they would like to express their thanks to the fair boards of Chelsea for the use of their stoneboat, the Jackson County Fair and Ingham County Fair for the use of their weights, all of which were used for the tractor contest.

Saturday afternoon was children's day at the fair and Debbie Brown was awarded the bicycle given away as a climax.

Many of the merchants who had displays at the fair had their own individual awards and gave away some very valuable gifts.

A hammock was presented by Rolland Cobb Ins. to Gary Smith, while Judy Wilson was awarded the large picture presented by Caskey Furniture.

The Rural Telephone company which gave five extension phones for a period of six months went to Shirley Hodges, Florence Cartwright, Kathy Roepke, Roselyn Boyce and Mary Jo Carley.

The radio presented by Howlett's Hardware, went to Mrs. Barbara Smith. Carl Hile, local distributor for household products presented an assortment of his products to three winners who were: Marion Collier, Helen Jarrell and Peggy Hazeltine.

The planter awarded by Garnette's went to Larry Pollock. Wetzel's Photography Studio will take photos of 10 children selected at the fair. They are, Janice Wilcox, Sandra Slayden, Bob Camp, Beverly Caskey, Jean Gauss, Bob Wilson, Ronald Beterly, William Barbour, Jack Williams and Pamela Jenkins.

Marion Taylor was awarded a wall clock at the Ludtke Ins. booth and a color television set was given by the Stockbridge Legion Post to Richard Stanfield of Gregory.

Officials of the Legion expressed the desire to thank everyone in the area for their cooperation and support which added greatly to the success of the fair.

Harold W. Frye, Stockbridge village marshall, reported a minimum of police activity at and in the vicinity of the fair.

Frye said he felt there were several factors responsible for the fact that there was little or practically no trouble. He said the midway, brought in by the Cook Amusement company, was well run, orderly and the management cooperated fully with the police department.

Frye also said the Legion post in Stockbridge which sponsored the fair, did an excellent job of running the affair and helping to maintain order and also in the handling of traffic and parking at the fairground.

He said further that a share of thanks for the policing of the fair should go to the auxiliary police force of Stockbridge and the extra hours put in by the members of that group.

While the auxiliary police are not yet fully organized, there were several men ready for duty and put in several evenings working with Marshall Frye and Patrolman Clyde Stephens.

Escaper Nabbed At Stockbridge

STOCKBRIDGE - Ingham County sheriff's officers picked up a young man in Stockbridge last Thursday who had escaped from the Indiana reformatory at Princeton, Indiana. The youth escaped from the reformatory and made his way to Stockbridge where he was found visiting relatives.

Prison officials had notified the sheriff's department here by reason of the fact that it was known he had relatives living in Ingham county.

BETTER MENTAL HEALTH

Care of mentally ill patients in Michigan apparently will undergo some change in procedure, but will follow the current trend under the state's new mental health chief.

Dr. Robert A. Kimmich came from California to Michigan July 1 to serve as head of the large Mental Health Department.

One of his first observations was that much of the red tape involved in mental care should be eliminated. "I would like to see us minimize the number of persons and places a patient has to go to in order to receive care," he said.

The trend toward part time, close-to-home care facilities is one which should be continued, said Kimmich.

Michigan accentuated this trend within the last three years. Its aim is to provide care as close to home as possible and on a day-care or out-patient basis wherever practical.

Establishment of community care facilities was enabled by legislative act last year. Prior to the official act, mental health experts touted community care centers as the answer to space demands in existing institutions.

One possibility for even further localization of care for mental patients was hinted at by Kimmich shortly after his arrival in the state.

He said he hoped to develop a broader program of cooperation with general medical practitioners, social workers and others in a position to observe potential mental problems and suggest early treatment programs.

BEAUTY TREATMENT

The aging process which has been working on Michigan's Capitol building for 85 years is about to be stopped.

Some $200,000 was appropriated this year to clean the exterior of the sandstone building. It was white when built, but over the years has become a dirty, streaked gray-black.

Art-minded citizens have contended over the years that the aging process should be allowed to run its course unhindered, that the natural look should be preserved.

Others, many tourists among them, say the state's central government building should be more physically attractive.

A new coat of paint was applied to the dome on the building within the last few years, emphasizing more the aged appearance of the rest of the facade.

Some experts feared the effect of sand blasting on the soft Indiana sandstone structure, but state officials expect a new cleaning process to be used this summer will eliminate this risk.

By fall almost 20 years of debate on the advisability of the project will be a moot point. There will be a new face on the building which will house so many new legislative faces at the beginning of the new year.

NEW PARTY

An unknown factor in the fall elections nationally, reaction on both sides of the civil rights question, may have particular impact in Michigan.

Democrats usually count heavily on the Negro vote. The Freedom Now Party has nominated Negro candidates for several of the open offices in an effort to marshal the Negro vote to these people.

Any major shift in the Negro vote is viewed by Democrats as a threat to the party's strength in marginal districts and tight statewide contests.

Republican Gov. George Romney has made little public comment on the new party but made a major attempt in 1962 to win Negro votes in his campaign and will again be trying to capture a large segment of this population group to his side in this year's contest.

Organizers of the new minor party say their effort is a protest to both major parties for failure to give the recognition and representation due Negro voters in Michigan.

Impact of the new group will not be felt until after Nov. 3 but both parties are likely to be eyeing the Negro vote more closely this year because of formation of the Freedom Now Party.

African Mission Field Calls Okemos Family

OKEMOS - The Ralph McClintock family of the Okemos Church of the Nazarene will see fulfillment of a life's desire for mission service this fall when they sail in October for the Republic of South Africa.

The couple have been assigned by the Department of World Missions of the Church of the Nazarene to the Ethel Lucas Memorial hospital at Acornhoek in the Republic of South Africa where McClintock will serve as a mechanical maintainance engineer at the hospital and Mrs. McClintock will do stenographic work and bookeeping, keeping records in 3 different languages.

The fulfillment of the dream came about when Dr. T. Harold Jones, missionary doctor to Africa was a guest in the Mc Clintock home last year. He told of the great need for someone trained for needed repair and maintainence of hospital equipment. Doctors have often had to take time from their busy schedules caring for the sick to make necessary repairs to operating and other equipment, he said.

McClintock an engineer in design at Oldsmobile for the past 12 years saw in this an opportunity for missionary service and the couple applied to the mission board and was accepted. Sailing date has been set for October 9 from New York.

The couple's children, Maureen, 16; Marlys, 11 and son, Scott, age 7, will go to a school for missionaries' children located at White, 60 miles from Acornhoek. Maureen the oldest girl, was in the 10th grade at J.W. Sexton high school in Lansing last year and served as the pianist for the Sunday School and song leader of the youth group of the Okemos church.

McClintock served the Okemos church as Sunday school superintendent, trustee, chairman of the board and song leader. Mrs. McClintock served the church as Sunday School teacher, secretary of the church and president of the missionary society.

McClintock, a native of Mancelona, and a son of Rev. and Mrs. Earl McClintock, the former now deceased, has been a resident of Lansing for 18 years and received his industry arts degree from Michigan State university and teaching certificate from Olivet Nazarene college, Kankakee, Illinois.

Prior to working at Oldsmobile he was a teacher in the Lansing schools. Mrs. McClintock is the former Betty Johnson of Mancelona.

The McClintocks have recently returned from the General Assembly of the Nazarene church in Portland, Oregon where they were introduced. They also were honored at the Michigan District Missionary Convention at Indian Lake and presented a large supply of clothing and household items, gifts from the local mission groups in the district and a cash offering of $500.00 to supply the family in shoes for the next 5 years.

The Lansing zone missionary society honored the couple at a reception and presented to them a cash offering.

Fire Hits Farm; Loss Is $50,000

WILLIAMSTON - A large barn, a grain elevator and 10,000 bales of hay on the Oaza farm, 2 miles east of Williamston were destroyed by fire last Friday afternoon, dausing damage estimated by firemen at $50,000.

The farm is owned by Harry Zarnecki of Detroit and managed by Maurice Piper of Williamston. It is located at 2920 E. Grand River avenue.

Firemen and police said they believed the fire started from a spark from a motor being operated in a grain elevator.

The fire was discovered by 2 state troopers from the East Lansing post, about noon, but when firemen arrived it was out of control. Flames shot 50 feet into the air and it took 2 hours to get the fire under control. Firemen remained on the scene throughout Friday night to pour water on the smouldering ruins.

More than 100 head of milking cows and a horse were rescued from the building. Thirty five calves, 2 cows and a bull perished in the flames. Also lost were 2 milking machines and bulk milk tank.

Fire departments from Williamston, Webberville and Meridian township fought the blaze and succeeded in saving several nearby farm buildings including a big milking barn.

Approximately 7000 gallons of water were used on the fire, according to Chief Kirt Hunt, of the Williamston fire department. Kirt made the estimate of $50,000 on the loss.

Kennel & Field

by Dennis Massie

Lassie, the famous movie dog, was given to her trainer to pay off a ten dollar debt. By the way, Lassie or Pal, the dog's real name, was a male.

The original Rin Tin Tin was found as a pup by its trainer in a German trench during the First World War. Both dogs were trained not born actors. And that goes for other intelligent pure breds and mongrels who gained fame on the screen.

Dogs as entertainers have been around a long time - hundreds of years as a matter of fact. Bands of wandering entertainers commonly had a trained dog act, centuries ago. It would be unusual not to see dog acts in the circus whenever it came to town, in the last hundred years. Will Judy's Dalmations perform currently on popular TV variety shows like Ed Sullivan's. Dogs performing in one way or another is one form of entertainment that has kept its appeal for generations.

As with other working dogs, the performer is first given obedience training. Then, he begins to learn special skills - in the case of movie dogs, to take and act immediately on cues. In the days of silent pictures, these could be given to him with the voice. But when the "talkies" came out, the Lassies and Rin Tin Tins and Nikis and Old Yellers had to learn to obey hand signals, strictly. This is more difficult for dog and trainer. More than performing an action on cue is required of movie dogs. They also have to learn to show emotion, to be funny, sad, serious and loving, sometimes all in the same picture.

It's said that the first Rin Tin Tin had a lot to do with German Shepherds becoming popular in this country. A similar case might be interesting for someone to make a study of sometime. That would be to see if the "Sergeant Preston of the Yucon" TV series with the Husky, King, and Walt Disney's Niki, another Husky, had any thing to do with sled dogs and their racing becoming popular south of Canada.

Letters to the Editor

Dr. Lethbridge Urges Council to Reconsider

I read with interest the letter of superintendent Nauts to the Mason city council.

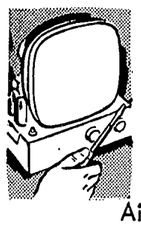

As one who for years has seen the congestion he mentions, especially from 3:20 to 3:45 p.m., I felt it my duty to suggest that the council give serious thought to Mr. Naut's objections.

I am sure no councilman would wish to have the death of any youngster on his conscience, because he failed to consider all that is involved.

I realize this location may be good from a dollars and cents standpoint but surely a central location can be found that is not such a hazard as this.

After reading in the paper the council's reaction to the letter it seemed to be treated much too lightly. And the letter was tabled without enough serious consideration.

News Photographer Climbs to the Eagle's Eye (Almost)

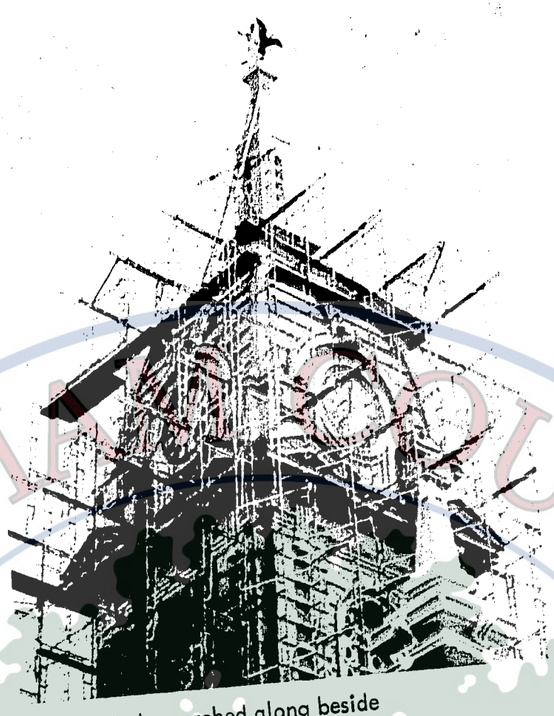

Ingham's historic county courthouse is getting its face lifted this summer. As workmen enveloped the dome with scaffolding, it seemed like a good idea to photograph the building. Jim Brown of the News and Harlan Smith, Jefferson avenue steeplejack, climbed the clock tower with courage, but sent the camera up to "Corky" via rope and bucket so the steeplejack could capture the eagle's eye view of Mason. The pictures on this page prove that the courthouse eagle has the best view in town..

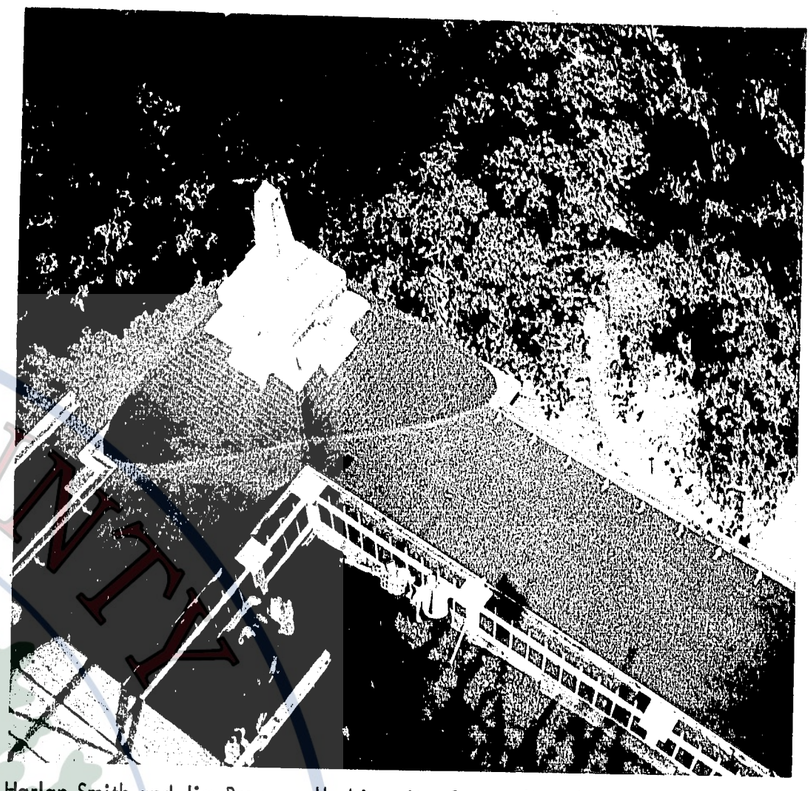

Eagle's eye view looking northwest (Wyeth in the background).

The courthouse bell has tolled the time of day "more or less" for more than 50 years. In the beginning the chimes were powered by weights.

Here's Corky perched along beside the courthouse eagle. He estimates that the bird is 18 inches high and has a 5-foot wingspan. The photographer didn't challenge him about the size.

Harlan Smith and Jim Brown called it quits after scaling the courthouse up to the roof level. This picture was taken from beside the eagle looking downward toward the northeast.

Heat Sets Off Blast, Window of Car Shattered

MUNITH - Mrs. Shirley Osterman narrowly missed injury this week when the back window of a car exploded and scattered glass for some distance. Upon investigation it was discovered that the car windows were all closed and an aerosol can was lying on the back ledge. The intense heat exploded the can and sent it through the window just as Mrs. Osterman was passing the car.

Home Ec Council Changes Its Name

Representatives of the 35,000 member Michigan Home Economics Extension Council voted this week to change the name of the organization to Michigan Association of Extension Homemakers.

The new name becomes effective Sept. 1, according to the newly elected president, Mrs. Harold Fluharty, Rosebush.

MHEEC is composed of homemakers who belong to local home economics extension study groups throughout the state. The association was organized in 1937 to help support the educational home economics - family living programs of the Michigan State university Cooperative Extension Service.

MHEEC held its annual meeting at MSU this week in conjunction with MSU's 37th annual homemakers' conference, College Week for Women, an educational event that attracts nearly 1,000 homemakers to East Lansing each summer.

Button Society

The Liberty group of the Michigan Button society held a meeting, Wednesday, July 22, at the home of Mrs. Leland Perrine Sr, with 10 members and 2 visitors attending. A picnic dinner was enjoyed on the spacious cool front porch. The topic was flowers on buttons and many very nice cards were brought. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jeanette Galligan of Laingsburg.

Mrs. Ray Lott Attends Convo

Mrs. Ray Lott of Mason was at Michigan State university last week to attend the 37th annual MSU homemakers' conference, "College Week for Women."

Some 1,000 women from throughout the state attend this event, which provides classes and general sessions to help homemakers improve the quality of living in the home, the community and the world.

While in East Lansing, Mrs. Lott had a chance to hear Michigan's First Lady, Mrs. George Romney, as she discussed "Building Stronger Families." Keynoter for the 3-day conference was Mrs. Margaret Browne, director of home economics for the federal extension service. Mrs. Browne, a native of Cadillac, talked on "Modern Dimensions in Family Living Education" Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Lott attended sets of 3 classes on 2 subjects; Human Resources Today and Tomorrow and Family Alert to Emergencies.

Detroit Men Die on M-36

Two Detroit area men were killed, and 2 others injured when their car went out of control on a curve on highway M-36, 3 miles east of Dansville about 2 a.m. Saturday.

Killed were Anthony E. Fischetti, 21, of Birmingham and Gregory J. Lucas, 21, of Detroit. In the car with them were James M. Walker, 21, and Robert E. Karick, 21, both of Detroit. Walker was the driver.

Walker and Karick suffered injuries and were hospitalized at Edward W. Sparrow hospital in Lansing. Coroner Jack B. Holmes said Fischetti and Lucas died of internal injuries.

Ingham county sheriff's deputies said Fischetti was wearing a seat belt and remained in the car. The other 3 were thrown out.

Deputies also said they found a flag from the Ingham County News building and a manhole cover from a Lansing street in the car.

The deaths of Fischetti and Lucas were the 24th and 25th highway fatalities in Ingham county this year. During 1963, 34 deaths were recorded.

RAYMOND POWELL, Williamston, has used DHIA records for locating top cow families and culling information for over 20 years. This accompanied with artificial breeding and good feeding practices has shown outstanding success. Ray's herd of 34 cows last year averaged 14,305 pounds of milk and 526 pounds of butterfat per cow. The 5 year average now stands at 14,632 pounds of milk and 534 pounds of butterfat. Ray's 1964 records show slightly under 11,000 pounds of milk per cow including June tests results.

Ingham's Corn and Wheat Never Looked Any Better

Ingham county's wheat crop will be one of the best in several years, R.C. Lott, Ingham extension director, said this week.

He anticipates that the total wheat production in the county will be more than 1,000,000 bushels. At $1.25 a bushel this means a $1,250,000 crop.

In 1963 Ingham county harvested 24,000 acres of wheat which averaged 36.6 bushels per acre, or approximately 879,000 bushels.

Other crops, too, Lott said, are excellent. Many farmers have completed their second cutting of hay. He said he never had seen a year when corn had tasseled out as early as it has this year. He said some corn in Ingham county measured 7 feet by July 4.

"If we get normal rainfall and right weather conditions, the corn crop this year will be tremendous," he said. "The warm weather has sent the crop soaring upward."

The wheat crop in the county is now pretty well in, Lott said. There are some fields around Webberville and Williamston and in the Stockbridge area that have been held up by rain.

He mentioned the Loren Everett farm on Phillips road north of Holt road who harvested 55 acres which went 64 bushes to the acre, and Charles Kreeger of Dansville who had a yield of 70 bushels per acre in a 5 acre field.

Much of the crop is being moved out to storage where farmers are holding it with expectations that the market will improve. But Lott said it is costing them 6 cents a bushel to store the crop for 6 months.

Many wheat growers are storing their wheat in their own granaries and the yield data will not be available until it is sold.

The dry hot weather of the past week was a big boon to wheat harvesting and it was an excellent time to get combining done and farmers made wheat while the sun shines. During the hot days some wheat was down to 12 percent moisture, according to Lott.

With the wheat crop about all in, many farmers are completing oat combining.

Uniform Code Is Under Study

HASLETT - The Meridian township is considering adoption of the Uniform building code, a nation-wide code for building which may be adopted either by reference or by amending or deleting certain sections of the code so that the document fits local needs.

William F. Anderson of Pasadena, California, a director of education fields and publications of the International Conference of Building Officials will appear before the board at its meeting August 4 to explain the operation of the code.

The morals of the world have been altered very little by Heaven or Hell, it seems.

Thieves Like Oil Products

Gasoline thieves were busy in Ingham county last week.

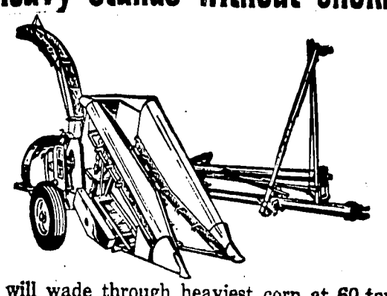

Harold Bollman, 4163 Harper road, Delhi township, reported to sheriff's officers that 15 gallons of gasoline were removed from 2 tractors on his farm and in Meridian township 3 employes of the Ingham County hospital near Okemos, reported the tanks on their cars short of gasoline.

Laura Sneed of Lansing said she arrived at the hospital for work at 11 p.m. and when she returned to her car after her night's work notice a hub cap missing and on checking the gasoline gauge said about 10 gallons had been taken out of the tank. The gas tank cap also was missing.

Mrs. Angelina Allen of Williamston reported a half tank of gasoline taken from her car and Moretta Glassbrook, 1123 S. Jefferson street, Mason, told officers about 3/4 of a tank of gasoline was removed from her car.

Oil was also reported to have been stolen from storage drums at the Ashland Oil station on State street last week.

barbs, praise and consequence

Dick Brown

For us people who suffer from chronic laziness there is nothing so painful as coming back to work after a vacation. Monday morning was that day for me after a week of beachcombing at the old stamping grounds at Higgins lake.

The north was never more inviting than this past week when high temperatures prevailed all over Michigan. It was no cooler in the north than it was anywhere else in the state but there is always a lake handy in which to cool off.

Monday we made the annual pilgrimage to Senator Hart's famous sandpile, the Sleeping Bear dune. There were several hundred people climbing over the dunes without benefit of federal funds. They seemed to be having just as much fun as they would have if the boys in Washington were in charge of the sand mountain.

Instead of worrying about preserving the Great Lakes shores, the big spenders and the egg head planners in Washington had better start worrying about preserving the Great Lakes.

Lake Michigan's water level is at its lowest point in 104 years. I was quite concerned about it until I checked with a couple of northern Michigan's greatest boosters, State Police Inspector Hugh Potter and Mrs. Potter. The Potter family used to do their boosting in Mason but moved to Traverse City a couple of years ago.

It would be quite easy to be a booster of Grand Traverse Bay from the vantage point of the Potter home on a bluff of Old Mission Point with the receding waters of Grand Traverse Bay in the backyard and acres of flaming red loaded cherry trees in the front yard.

As for the prognostication of the Potters concerning the water level—Hugh claims that the monsoon cycle is supposed to set in starting in September and levels are due to rise.

If they don't a rough time is in store for many Great Lakes resorts.

It must be discouraging to visitors to the water wonderland to drive along Lake Michigan and Lake Huron beaches and see piers jutting out into what used to be lake and missing the water by a couple of hundred yards.

Another interesting pasttime of the week was conducting my own political poll among my Higgins lake neighbors. One Chevrolet production worker was a Goldwater man, 2 Buick production people indicated they wanted the man whom Walter Reuther wanted which put them in Johnson's camp, a fourth man, a Ford worker, said he was a Johnson man but would vote for Goldwater because his boss, Henry Ford, had come out for Johnson. "I don't want to be a company man," he claimed. A fifth neighbor who has been in the north woods since the end of World War I claimed he thought Harding would be the best candidate.

The last man seemed to be the happiest and I can understand how he got that way. With no daily papers on the resort stands, a weak radio set and no TV, it was pleasant to just sit on the beach and let the world go by.

There are a lot of philosophers in the beach chair set. One fellow sitter maintained that the best ages in life are age 4 and age 20. At 4 you know all the questions and at 20 you know all the answers.

Our Rights Are Eroding

Our rights are gradually slipping away from us in spite of constitutional guarantees.

Sen. Ed Long of Missouri recently introduced a bill in congress to prohibit the invasion of personal liberties on the part of federal agencies.

Here is what he had to say about that in a statement he released last month:

"Part of the American concept of freedom is the right of the individual to be let alone.

"This right of privacy is also one of the great differences between life in the United States and life behind the Iron Curtain. In the Soviet countries individual freedom and privacy are always at the mercy of the state. A citizen behind the Iron Curtain may be subject to wiretaps of his phone conversations, hidden microphones where he works, and the interception of his mail, all without his knowledge.

"Today in our own country this precious right of privacy is being threatened by acts of federal agencies. In a recent senate speech I cited examples of federal agents violating individual privacy in searching for evidence of criminal subversive activities. The purpose of this speech was to introduce legislation prohibiting one government surveillance method—the mail cover.

"This is a post office department practice whereby a record is kept of all mail an individual receives. The name and address of sender, the date and place of postmarking, and any other information that can be obtained about a letter without actually opening the envelope are all recorded for every piece of mail. These covers are established at the request of a federal investigatory or law enforcement agency.

"By introducing a bill to make the practice illegal I hope to help preserve one of the priceless rights guaranteed the American people by their Constitution."

It should be unnecessary in light of constitutional guarantees for legislative action as proposed by Senator Long. Yet the fact that a senator sees the need for such legislation in order to insure the full freedoms of the people ought to be cause for alarm in Washington.

But it isn't.

Banks Vie for Delhi

A federal court injunction has stymied Dart National bank in its plans to establish a banking facility in Delhi township. The action brought against the comptroller of the currency in Washington by American Bank & Trust of Lansing seeks to permanently enjoin Dart National from establishing a bank in competition with the American Bank & Trust branch in Delhi.

A pre-trial hearing is scheduled for Thursday in Grand Rapids to either set a trial date to determine the outcome or to resolve the matter out of court.

There is little likelihood but what the situation will have to be settled by trial in federal court.

Rightfully, the establishment of banking quarters isn't taken lightly by the comptroller. Banks are not like gas stations or groceries or, in fact, any other type of commercial enterprise. When they are permitted to be established, there should be every reason to believe that there is a need in the community for banking service, that the venture will be financially successful, that it will not be disastrous for other banking institutions already serving in the area and that the banking institution has the capitalization and strength to be a force in the community.

In making the determination as to whether or not to allow a second banking institution in Delhi, Comptroller James Saxon sent a survey party to Delhi and to Mason to investigate. The report submitted in Washington covered every facet of the Dart National bank status and the present and future of Delhi. It was an impressive collection of facts and upon those facts, Saxon approved the Dart National request for extending its banking facilities in Delhi.

The fact is, Delhi township is already "under-banked." The addition of another banking institution would be good for the township. It would make the township even more of a business center. It is difficult to see how American Bank & Trust can offer any legitimate argument to support its claim that a Dart National bank in Delhi would be a detriment to either Delhi or to American Bank & Trust.

No one blames AB & T for wanting a monopoly on Delhi township for as long as possible. It is a solid area on the move. However, even AB & T must concede that the day must come when one bank can no longer adequately serve the needs of the township. In the opinion of the comptroller, that day is now.

The federal court will either confirm or deny AB & T's claim against the comptroller and Dart National.

The outcome will be interesting to those who want to see Delhi township expand.

Parallel: Rome and USA

Excerpts given before the Inland Daily Press Association

Alaric's Goths finally poured over the walls of Rome. But it was not that the walls were low. It was that Rome, itself, was low. The sensual life of Pompeii, the orgies on Lake Trasimene, the gradually weakened fibre of a once self-disciplined people that reduced them at last to seeking safety in mercenaries and the payment of tribute---all these brought Rome down.

When Nikita Khrushchev visited Hollywood he was shown only one movie set, that of a wild dance scene in Can-Can. He said it represented decadence and I am sure he really thought so. It is a dogma of current Communist faith that America is Sodom and Gomorrah, ripening for the kill.

Do you know what scares me about the Communists? It is not their political system, which is primitive and savage. It is not their economic system which works so badly that progress in a few directions is purchased at the price of progress in all the rest. It is their puritanism. It is their dedication and self-sacrifice.

The Russian stage is as austere as the Victorian Stage. Russian literature may be corny but it is clean, and it glorifies the Russian people.

(We have got to where) the state will give a mother a bonus for her illegitimate children, and if she neglects them sufficiently she can save enough out of her ADC payments to keep herself and her boy friend in wine and gin. Nothing is your fault. And when the city fathers of a harassed community like Newburgh suggest that able bodied welfare clients might sweep the streets the "liberal" editorialists arise as one man and denounce them for their medieval cruelty.

Can anyone deny that movies are dirtier than ever? But they don't call it dirt. They call it "realism". Why do we let them fool us? Why do we nod owlishly when they tell us that filth is merely a daring art form, that licentiousness is really social comment? Isn't it time we recognized Hollywood's quest for the fast buck for what it is? Isn't it plain that the financially-harassed movie industry is putting gobs of sex in the darkened drive-ins in an effort to lure curious teen-agers away from their TV sets? Last week the screen industry solemnly announced that henceforth perversion and homosexuality would no longer be barred from the screen provided the subjects were handled with "delicacy and taste".

I think it's time we quit giving page 1 play to the extramarital junkets of crooners. I think it is time we stopped treating as glamorous and exciting the brazen shack-ups of screen tramps. I think it is time we asked our Broadway and Hollywood columnists if they can't find something decent and inspiring going on along their beats.

Two months ago an American touring company, sponsored by the State Department and paid for by your tax dollars, presented one of Tennessee William's more depraved offerings to an audience in Rio de Janeiro. The audience hooted in disgust and walked out. And where did it walk to? Right across the street where a Russian ballet company was putting on a beautiful performance for the glory of Russia!

Ann Brown

Biggest understatement of the year: Governor Rockefeller in surveying the aftermath of racial war in Rochester declared that it obviously was the work of extremists!

No kidding.

Clark Cogswell was in England during World War II. He now claims that there are more weeds in the city of Mason than in the whole of England. He called the News after the paper came out last week to say how much he is enjoying reading the old Sycamore columns. He thinks Down by the Sycamore (see bottom of this page) could be the rallying point for those who would like to see the Sycamore basin cleaned up and turned into one long park area.

* * * *

He reports that the banks of the Sycamore are alive with poison ivy. Clark also pointed out what we've suspected all along: public and private vacant land in Mason for the most part is thigh-high with weeds.

For 2 days last week, the News printed the Petoskey and Charlevoix newspapers while the printing plant at Petoskey underwent repairs. The Petoskey News-Review installed an offset press in a new building a few weeks ago, but mechanical difficulties developed to the point Wednesday when it became impossible to produce a single newspaper.

After a couple of hasty telephone conversations with Al Shaller of Petoskey and Tom McDaniels of Charlevoix (you'll remember Tom as the News advertising manager of a year ago), a twin engine plane was chartered and the offset negatives were sped to Mason. The plane landed at Jewett airport at sundown. Within 3 hours, the News had produced 6,500 16-page newspapers and loaded them into 2 station wagons. One wagon was emptied into the plane poised on a lighted run-way at Capitol City airport and the other sped toward Petoskey. The News also printed the Thursday edition of the News-Review.

The Charlevoix offset negatives arrived at 4:30 Thursday morning via Tom McDaniels midnight express. While Tom went out for breakfast and called on friends, the News staff fell to the task of producing the Courier. He was on his way back toward Charlevoix by 8:30.

When a publisher has such rotton moments as Al Shaller had last week, it's no time to chide him about it. Upon occasion, the News has had mechanical failure, too, and been forced to print elsewhere. We're always happy to help other publishers and I hope other publishers are willing to bail us out should the occasion arise.

* * * *

There's a correction in order after last week's Editor's Note for the Sycamore column. We erroneously referred to the editor of the column as our brother, Margaret. Actually, as you may have guessed, she is our sister. She knows the difference and we do, and we want the readers to know, too.

News editors take both corsages and brickbats as they are due. In the case of using the wrong gender in the Editor's Note, I can only say that Sister Margaret read proof on the paragraph herself!

Down by the Sycamore

For nearly 25 years, a favorite feature of The Ingham County News was the Down by the Sycamore column written by Nelson Brown. With his death in 1961, the column ended. Margaret Brown, daughter of the late editor and sister of the present News editors, has been poring over the old columns and has extracted some of the best of Down by the Sycamore. The feature will continue indefinitely. The weekly column contains observations of the daily scene and an occasional cryptic look at life in general. The series is being planned with the hope that some or all of the selections will strike a familiar note to oldtimers and a fresh thought or 2 for new readers of the News.

I have attended three Farm Bureau meetings of various kinds the past week. I came away from all of them marveling over the wide interests of farm people. They have the time to think and they have the courage to say what they think. At meetings of city people many of those who attend try to conceal their thoughts or to express them so there won't be any repercussions. Farm people speak right out whether the question is one of soil conservation, the scarcity of butter, public hunting or the price of eggs.

People should have convictions instead of beliefs. Folks who won't say whether they are Republicans or Democrats, young or old, married or single, free or slave, blonde or brunette, should read I Kings 18, 21, or Luke 9.62.

I like to have people care one way or another. Apparently some children are taught not to display eagerness or to show relish for what they do or what they eat. At our house we have a standing rule. When a guest, young or old, is asked if he wants a piece of pie or cake or a second helping of meat and the reply is, "I don't care," he doesn't get any. If he doesn't care, then I shouldn't and I always pass him by.

January 9, 1947

When my brothers and sister and I used to ride back and forth between Mason and the farm with Grandpa DeCamp we learned who was boss along the route. Grandpa would point out the new coat of paint and the flowerbeds around a house and remark, "Poor old Jim. His wife runs things. He needs fencing but he won't get it this year. He also needs to go over his corn once more but there he is puttering around the flowers."

Going past a farm where the barns were in good shape even though the house lacked paint Grandpa might observe, "Will has things pretty much his own way. His stock looks good. His crops are clean. It wouldn't hurt him, though, to spruce things up a bit around the house. His wife has a hard time—nothing much to do with."

When both the barn and house and their surroundings looked good Grandpa was sure the husband and wife were pulling together, that the wife set a good table and ran the household end of the business while she left to her husband the management of the farm.

Next week comes the biggest county fair Ingham ever held. That's what Joy Davis claims and I'll take his word for it. About the midway—Brother Davis has done his best to screen out the undesirables but they have a way of getting in. Probably the best advice to midway patrons is to pay up all bills before starting down through the midway and then invest judiciously. To me, those little toy dolls and dogs, those flags and balloons, come too high. The best bargains are in the livestock barns and tents, I think. The flesh there is tastier than that displayed inside the midway tents. Smoked ham in the making at 89c a pound is as fancy a sight as I care to see. As Brother Davis philosophizes: it is good to be without vices but bad to be without temptations. That's why midways are operated in conjunction with county fairs.

Coin Scarcity Hits Mason Business Men

by Hayden Palmer

Several thousand dollars worth of Kennedy half dollars were received by Mason banks when the new coin went into circulation several months ago and they were grabbed up by coin collectors and persons wishing to have them as keepsakes.

The result is that now half dollars are in short demand according to Mason bankers.

Very few of those Kennedy half dollars have found their way back into circulation, Albert Humphrey, executive vice president of the Dart National bank, said this week.

Oren Hall, president of the Mason State bank, also said there is a shortage of half dollars. He said it is reported that all half dollars of the future will be the Kennedy ones, with the coin bearing a likeness of Benjamin Franklin, in use for many years, doing a fadeout. The year mark of 1964 on the Kennedy coin, will not be changed, he added.

Another half dollar bearing a design of an eagle and the rising sun is not seen much any more, Hall said.

Humphrey said the shortage of dimes probably is due to the numerous uses to which the dime has been put. Telephone calls are now 10 cents instead of 5 cents, vending machines now take more dimes than nickles and parking meters also eat up more dimes than they used to when parking generally was 5 cents.

Humphrey also pointed out there are more coin collectors today than there were several years ago and that accounts for many coins being withheld from circulation as they become collectors' items.

Hall said there is a shortage of almost every type of coins, but banks thus far have been able to keep going.

"Normally we used to carry several thousand dollars in coins in our vault," Hall said. "Today it's picked pretty thin."

Vending companys who collect a lot of dimes through their machines have been asked to put them back into circulation as soon as possible, Humphrey said.

Another reason voiced for the shortage is the population explosion in the United States which has brought about greater need for coins by more people.

Strangely the penny shortage is not as acute here as it is in many places. Bankers say they are "getting by," but point out that there is a scarcity of most all types of coins.

Farther north in Michigan there is reprotedly a shortage of quarters as well as half dollars. One newspaper report states that this quarter shortage is most acute at the Mackinac bridge, because the quarter is the primary coin given in change to motorists crossing over the span between the 2 peninsulas.

This same report said the need has become so great that state police have relayed bags of quarters to bridge tellers from spots around the state where the coin was available.

Meanwhile, bankers say, relief appears to be in sight as U.S. treasury officials are planning the construction of a new mint to help relieve the small change shortage but this is not expected to be completed for a year.

Michigan residents who have been hoarding coins are being asked to help the situation by cashing in their coins, regardless of the size or quantity.

MSU Probes Milk Drops

Spray - dried milk products of the future will probably be of better quality, thanks to some recent basic research conducted by Michigan State university scientists.

Argicultural engineers Dennis R. Heldman and Carl W. Hall and T.I. Hedrick point out that spray-drying of milk involves heating tiny droplets in air. The cooling effect produced by the evaporation of the liquid protects milk solids from heat damage. But, after the product dries and becomes a solid, prolonged exposure to heat can discolor the dry milk particles to air at 300 degrees without discoloration or deterioration -- but the exposure must be less than 2 seconds.

Special Meeting

Board of Supervisors

Board of Supervisors Room; Mason, Michigan; Thursday, July 16, 1964; 10:00 A. M.

The Board met on the above date in special session as called by Chairman Bruegel.

Roll was called by the Clerk with the following members present: Allen, Belen, Bement, Boyd, Carr, Cavanaugh, Conard, Dean, Durkee, Eckhart, Fay, Glover, Guerriero, Jewett, Neller, Patriarche, Perrin, Petroff, Reisig, Richards, Risch, Robinson, Runyon Ruthig, Silsby, Slater, Warden, Whittington, Wilson and Chairman Bruegel—20.

Absent: Bradshaw, Buhl, Dillinger, Ernst, Finucan, Kiersey, Lonergan, Lynch, Milks, Pettibone, Pletz and Potter—12.

Chairman Bruegel called upon Prosecutor Leo A. Farhat who explained the new rules on Appellate Court Review made by the Michigan Supreme Court on July 8, 1964, which will take effect on August 1, 1964. The new amendments are as follows:

RULE 785

Right to Timely Appeal. Hereafter, immediately upon sentencing, the court shall advise the defendant in open court that he is entitled as a matter of constitutional right to appellate review of his conviction and that, if defendant is financially unable to provide counsel to perfect such appeal, the court will appoint counsel for him and will furnish counsel with such portions of the trial transcript counsel requires to prepare post-conviction motions and to perfect an appeal. The court shall further advise defendant that such request for the assistance of counsel must be made within 60 days on a form to be given to defendant by the court. Proceedings hereunder shall be stenographically recorded and a transcript thereof promptly made and filed with the clerk of the trial court as a part of the record of the case.

Delayed Appeal. In all other criminal cases, application for leave to take delayed appeal may be filed pursuant to the provisions of Rule 806. Upon defendant's request, if defendant is indigent, the trial court in which defendant was convicted shall appoint counsel for him and shall furnish such portions of the trial transcript counsel so appointed requires to prepare delayed motions for post-conviction proceedings in the trial court and to prepare an application for leave to take delayed appeal. Requests for appointment of appellate counsel shall be in writing and accompanied by an affidavit of indigency setting forth the facts upon which defendant relies for support of his claim that he is too poor to employ counsel. Such written request and affidavit shall be filed in the trial court and a copy thereof shall be served upon the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the trial court is located. In Russia there are no 4-H Clubs to teach boys and girls a better way of life and work; no agricultural extension service to show better methods for raising crops and livestock; no specialists to help improve homemaking skills; no business men to support this "massive, informal, educational program" which includes 4-H.

However, Premier Khrushchev did learn something about the Cooperative Extension Service during his visit to the U.S. In a Pravda article, Krushchev revealed a "secret" to the Russian people. He admitted that certain extension practices were "borrowed" when the Soviet agricultural system was overhauled recently.

Explains Service

"I have in mind," he said, the introduction of scientific achievements. In the United States of America a farmer's service exists under the universities and colleges. The agents meet with the farmers and persuade them to introduce this or that method, help them in organization of production and furnish them with plans."

He got most of the extension picture, but apparently missed the role of extension for the last 50 years in developing the 4-H Club program.

In the early days of 4-H, the trained extension agents worked with the children of farm families. The plan provided the wedge that opened the door for the agents to reach the farmers and their wives.

No Free Enterprise

It has been suggested that Khrushchev might further improve farming under communism if he also had initiated a program for youth patterned after the 4-H Clubs. Seventy other foreign countries have. But Russia lacks the incentive and backing provided by private enterprise.

U.S. industry has backed 4-H work right from the beginning. It provides technical know-how, financial aid and recognition. More than 55 leading business firms cooperate with the extension service and the National 4-H Service Committee in sponsoring individual projects.

Today there are at least three dozen areas of 4-H Club work.

Some of the newer programs and their sponsors are: Photography, Eastman Kodak; Conservation, John Deere; Foods-Nutrition, General Foods; Alumni Recognition, Olin Mathieson; Dog Care and Training, Ralston-Purina.

Fifty years ago there were only a few projects: growing tomatoes and canning them; growing corn and raising pigs to eat the corn.

Long—Time Support

Sponsors that have supported 4-H for 20 or more years are:

Armour and Company; Santa Fe Railway; Burlington Railroad; Milwaukee Railroad; Chicago & North Western Railway; Coats & Clark; Conrad Hilton Hotel; Cudahy Packing Company; Firestone; Illinois Central Railroad; International Harvester; Kerr Glass; Livestock Conservation Incorporated; Montgomery Ward; Sears-Roebuck Foundation; Westinghouse Educational Foundation; Wilson & Co.; Standard Oil (Ohio); General Motors; American Oil Foundation.

Collectively they make the National 4-H Club Congress possible. One of the most coveted awards for a 4-H'er is the congress trip given to one boy or girl per state in a specific program. Altogether about 1,600 young people from 50 states travel to Chicago each fall to participate in this educational event.

The Basic Side

IT'S that time again... the time that challenges anew an army of vigorous American youth to the task of preparation in basic education that will equip them with know-how for their tomorrows. Here young minds fresh from their bowl of wheaties, assemble for classroom and playground training. Dear Teacher, responsibility lies heavy on your shoulders. Don't forget that along with reading and writing and airthmetic — lessons in how to live God's way are needed. Teachers and students alike have God to honor and your country to save right there in your classrooms. Always remember, "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." Proverbs 25:11. Blending of the academic with the spiritual lessons of Jesus, the greatest teacher, offers a moral and spiritual constitution possessing all the qualities basic in life.

As I See It

By Hayden Palmer

Ingham county fair week, 1964, is just around the corner.

No one knows exactly just when the county fair started, but it was many, many years ago. And it was very little like the expositions of today.

Go back 40 or 50 years in your history books and you will find that the county fair was a spectacle, if it could be called that, where folks, mostly rural people, gathered for a day of fun and relaxation and an inspection of their neighbor's jams and jellies on display and the livestock and poultry exhibits.

The farmer and his wife and family would climb into a wagon or buggy early in the morning and start out for the fair which might be as far as 10 miles away - a long distance when traveling in a horse-drawn vehicle.

Ten miles travel took a long time over rutty roads and up and down hills, but they made it and had a wonderful time.

Everybody packed a lunch. There were few if any places on the fair grounds where food could be purchased. Folks were pretty thrifty in those days too, and it was cheaper to bring your own food.

Those were the days when youngsters and oldsters knew nothing about the hamburger or the hot dog and soft drinks were not as readily available. Sometimes a group of church ladies would operate a place where you could buy a big glass of lemonade for a nickel.

But then as now, there was always horse racing. That was one of the big events of the fair. The fair also was a perfect place for orators and they spoke loud and long but never said very much.

There usually were band concerts, too by a village band which now and then would get off key and have to start over again.

But most folks overlooked those little things and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The fair was the fair and there was nothing else to distract them.

They wore their Sunday best and plodded through dust and dirt, sat under trees and ate their lunches and went home at the end of the day tired but happy.

I imagine the Ingham county fair started much the same way. No one, however, knows exactly the date the first fair took place.

It was back in the early 1920's, when Mason had been without a fair for 15 or 20 years, that members of the Ingham county Farmers' club started one. They believed that a county so steeped in agriculture as was Ingham should have a fair to display the products of its soil.

So then the barns on the Cheney farm were cleared out and pens installed for exhibits of livestock. Not very many persons outside the club attended, but the fair was a start toward bigger things. The second year fair was staged at the Erwin Sanford farm. The next year the Grange and the Alaiedon Farmers' club joined in helping to promote the fair, which had caught on with the public.

For this 3rd year fair the Mason school district made the school gymnasium and school district available and it became necessary to spread out even farther into nearby streets to house all the exhibits. D. G. Barr and sons cleared out what is now the Al Rice garage at Jefferson and Oak streets to house displays and a horse barn used in connection with the Mason hotel was turned over for displays of dairy cattle.

This was so successful that in the following year the same plan was followed. There was no way to charge admission to any part of the fair and it was kept alive by donations from business and industrial firms and voluntary labor.

Later on the fair was set up on the streets around the court house. There were exhibits on Maple, Barnes, Ash and Jefferson streets. The fair was growing steadily.

Finally came the purchase of the Rayner farm where today are located the Ingham county fair grounds, which next Monday will open its gates to the biggest fair in history.

But one cannot really date this fair back to the 1920's because long before that, around the turn of the century, there was a fair out on Kipp road. There was a race track there, too.

About 1949, some years after the Rayner farm had been acquired, the Ingham county board of supervisors assumed control of the fair. Most of you know now of its progress through the years - progress that has seen a better fair each year.

Many years ago when I was a reporter on a western newspaper, I was assigned to cover 3 state fairs, one after the other. It meant 3 weeks of nothing but fair after fair. I did this for 5 years and by that time was so filled up with fairs I never went to another - not until last year when I visited the Ingham county fair.

I found a well organized exhibition, exceptionally clean grounds, good entertainment and interesting exhibits.

Fair officials this year tell me that the 1964 exposition will be the best year. With the progressive organization behind it I have no doubt but that it will be.

TB Cases Show Gain In State

Ingham county, is one of 40 counties in the state where there was an increase in new active cases of tuberculosis last year, the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease association, state Christmas Seal agency, reported this week.

The Michigan Department of Health records show there were 30 cases discovered in the county in 1963 compared with 29 cases in 1962, MTRDA's statistical division said.

In the entire state, 2,433 new cases of active tuberculosis were discovered - - an increase statewide of 145 cases, the records show.

Twenty-nine counties reported a decrease and in 14 others the figure remained the same.

In Wayne county, the incidence increased 5.19 per cent and in the rest of the state the increase was 6.9 per cent.

There were two cases of tuberculosis in males for every one in females. Although most of the tuberculosis cases were discovered in adults, and nearly half of these were in persons over 45 years of age, children under 10 accounted for 308 (or one in every 8) new cases.

Some men have savings accounts, while others have daughters.

Sao Paulo (St. Paul) Brazil is larger than Cleveland, Detroit, and Pittsburg, combined.

Plan New Church at Okemos

OKEMOS - Plans are being made by the congregation of the Okemos Nazarene church to erect a new church unit at a cost of about $30,000, Rev. W. Ridenour, the pastor, announced this week.

Rev. Ridenour said this structure will be the first of other unit buildings to be added later.

The building will be brick construction and the same type of brick now in the present church will be used. Upon completion of the new church the present church will become the parsonage. The church is now renting a home for the pastor and his family.

The Okemos Nazarene church, located on Hamilton road, has been in existence for 7 years. Rev. Ridenour is its 2nd pastor. He came to the church a year ago. Before him, Rev. C. A. Bruce was the pastor for 6 years.

The church now has a membership of 31 and a Sunday school membership of around 70.

Worship services are conducted each Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. with a midweek service at 7:30 p.m. A young people's meeting is conducted Sundays at 6:15 p.m.

Pioneer Ladies Meeting Today

OKEMOS - The Pioneer Ladies of Okemos will have their July meeting at the home of Mrs. John Grettenberger on Dobie road Wednesday July 29, for a pot luck dinner at noon and a business meeting. Those on committee for that day are Esther Grettenberger, Blanche Williams, Miss Carolyn Bray and Lottie Daniels.

Kin of Okemos Resident Serving in Peace Corps

OKEMOS - Alan Tubbs, grandson of Mrs. Hazel Tubbs of Winslows Motor Terrace and graduate of Michigan State university, class of 1963, is now serving in the Peace Corps in Africa. He writes that he is living in the bush, which is a shack in the mountains with natives, 70 miles from the nearest Cameron town and 15 miles from the Nigerian border. The climate there, he says, is ideal.

He is in the process of building an airstrip with cooperation of 28 villages. The strip is 1400 feet long and 26 feet wide.

He says he enjoys the native music and the playing of the drums are beautiful. All communications between the villages is done by drums. (African telephones).

Tubbs still has a year to serve.

The African women have to carry heavy packs up to 100 pounds on their heads and always walk behind the men, Tubbs writes. The women do all the family work and it is also a status symbol to have many wives. The richer the men are the more wives they have.

Tubbs has a servant who does the cooking and washing of clothing. He is living in a home made of sun dried blocks with cement plastered on the wall both inside and out. The grass grows as tall as 20 feet and is called elephant grass. The people, he writes, use flint lock guns for hunting. Most of them believe in witch craft and native Doctors.

He saw a little mound in the forest in which people place food at the beginning of a dry season each year, so they will be well taken care of. The children wear little bands around their throats to keep evil spirits away.

Kiwanis Club Has Busy Week

OKEMOS - July was a busy month for the Kiwanis club of Okemos, as on July 8 members enjoyed a family night at the park and on July 15 they met at Bill Austin's home and spent some time viewing the poultry farm of Albert Cook and to see the cage laying output of 6000 birds. 7 Big Days and Nights

It's Fair Time in Mason

Next Monday is the big day.

Gates of the Ingham county fair on E. Ash street, near Rayner park, will swing open for the opening day of the exposition which will run through Sunday, August 9.

It promises to be a gala event for Mason and for all of Ingham county and the fair officials have spared no effort to make this 1964 event one of the best in the fair's history.

For entertainment there will be a grandstand show each night and Sunday afternoon, with a complete change of acts every night except Saturday and Sunday. There will be a big wild animal show to start the program off Monday. Then will come an ice show billed as Frosty Follies, a Canadian Paul Bunyan show, a thrill show of Hell drivers of automobiles who risk their lives to perform daring stunts in motor vehicles. And there will be a rodeo which will play Saturday night, Sunday afternoon and Sunday night.

On one night of the week—Thursday—the 4-H clubs of the county will present their parade, horse show and talent show in front of the grandstand. There also will be a big display of fireworks that evening and a greased pig scramble.

The grandstand shows will all start at 8 p.m. except the 4-H show which is scheduled for 7:30.

For track followers there will be harness races on the track in front of the grandstand Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 2 p.m.

On the midway the W. G. Wade shows, which have their winter quarters in Mason, will set up their rides and shows. The Wade organization is known for the cleanliness of all its shows and the rides are designed with the interest of children in mind.

The usual number of eating places will be in operation on the grounds.

But all this is more or less secondary to the agricultural features of the exposition. There will be livestock exhibits of all kinds, exhibits of 4-H clubs from all over the county, horse pulling contests, and a vast number of commercial exhibits. Premiums amounting to $13,000 await winners of judging this year and the fair is paying out $14,000 in racing purses.

Sunday, August 2, promises to find a beehive of activity at the fair grounds. That will be set-up day when the Midway shows will move in, and exhibitors will be arranging displays.

Joy O. Davis, fair secretary-manager, says there will be 600 feet of commercial exhibits, 4,000 4-H club entries of all categories and 2,500 open class entries of all categories.

All in all, it looks like a big week.

Hell Drivers Here For Show on Friday

The New York World's Fair performers will feature 2, 3 and 4 car precision driving and motorcycling acrobatics performed by the best known names in thrilldom in the show at the Ingham county fair Friday, August 7. These drivers have earned the title of world champions with their exhibitions of skill and steel nerves, both in Canada and the United States, and intend to live up to that title during their current tour of the continent this summer.

"Dapper" Dan Fleenor, Freddy Fisher, Jim Trainor and Bobby Plummer, together with the famed circus clowns, will defy death as they race, crash and smash their way through 28 - events and two hours of thrills, chills, and spills....climaxing the program of events, which ranges from precision driving to a flaming "slide for life," will be the stunt that most authorities said was impossible - a new Dodge Convertible will be catapulted from a narrow take-off ramp 65 feet through space attempting to land on a narrow rundown ramp.....

With contests raging through the nation, the HURRICANE HELL DRIVERS have one of their own. The stuntmen are working for a $1,000.00 prize as well as their weekly salaries; this amount of money goes to the stunter who holds the most points at the end of the season. The bonus plan serves to keep the show fresh, despite the daily grind of performing throughout the warm weather season. Tied in with safety, it also serves to cut down any inclination towards carelessness in the hazardous occupation.

Points are awarded for such things as the number of rollovers a driver manages to accomplish in performing this hazardous stunt. There are points for the number of flips accomplished in connection with the T-bone crash events. The distance a driver can keep a car balanced on two wheels at high speeds and the length of ramp-to-ramp jumps also find their way into the score card.

Twenty-eight track events, ranging from ramp-to-ramp jumps to T-bone crashes, with a liberal sprinkling of clown antics thrown in, are included in the two hour program.

Star-Studded Ice Show on Wednesday

Frosty Follies is one of the most unique attractions ever to play at the Ingham county fair. This sparkling show is a star studded ice show featuring some of the internationally famous in skaters who have won trophies both in this country and abroad. They will appear in the grandstand show Wednesday, August 5, at 8 p.m. Perhaps the best known are the famous "Leducs" who following sensational success all over Europe, were brought to the Conrad-Hilton Hotel in Chicago where they were featured for two seasons in that hotel's gala Ice Revue.

There is also a miniature Ice Ballet of beautiful and talented young ladies, an outstanding figure skater and some side-splitting comedy by an original comedy duo.

Remember this all takes place on a real tank of ice especially constructed so as to be presented at fairs. Special scenery and lighting is carried and the entire show is something different from past offerings.

In Frosty Follies there is a rule that each girl carry her own skates. Scenery and costumes can be delayed or lost in their thousands of miles of travel, but skates must never be entrusted to others, never misplaced.

On the show they are told, "So long as we have skates and ice we can show. We can overcome wrecks and weather, we will somehow make up for delay - but we can't skate without skates."

"Carry your own skates, in your own hands! Let's not have any doubt the show will go on!"

4-H Show Thursday

A feature of the grandstand show at the Ingham county fair Thursday, August 6, 7:30 p.m. will be a 4-H parade, horse show and talent show.

The parade will move in front of the grandstand promptly at 7:30. It will be followed by a horse show that promises many thrills and much entertainment.

Then will come the talent show and there is a lot of talent among the young 4-Hers who will be at the fair this year.

To top off the evening's entertainment will be a big display of fireworks, followed by a greased pig scramble.

He Lifts Automobile, Pulls Truck

Paul Bunyan, who will appear in the grandstand show at the Ingham county fair Tuesday, August 4, at 8 p.m. is a young man of prodigious strength. He lifts automobiles, pulls 10-ton trucks with his teeth, pits his grip against the pull of a team of horses and tosses utility poles around like match sticks. He also bends steel bars and tears auto license plates apart as though they were pieces of cardboard. He lets tractors roll over his chest and supports 10 men on a platform with apparent ease. He lifts a 1500 pound horse up a ladder daily as an exercise to keep in shape.

Paul, whose nickname is appropriately "Samson," is a French Canadian. He is only 22 years old. One of the reasons for his strength may be the fact that he eats 60 pounds of meat a week. On the other hand, his big appetite may be caused by all that exercise. It's a moot point.

Fair goers will have a chance to see the strong man in action along with his troupe including a Canadian Mountie, Canadian Folk Singers, line of Canadian Beauties and variety acts. Join the fun and see Paul Bunyan lift at one time 10 members of your community. See the show with the big lift in front of the grandstand .

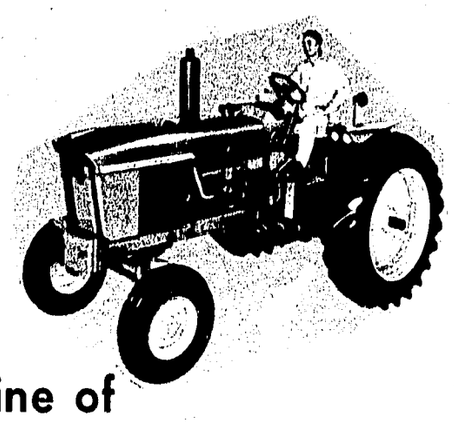

Parking Information

No charge is made for parking. Exhibitors are urged to use the parking space reserved for exhibitors which is east of barns. Exhibitors will be permitted use of the exit gate, east of the main gate, on the highway and are urged to use this exit to relieve congestion at other gates.

We also have a parking lot south of the grandstand. Entrance to this is made by following the boulevard along the west side of the fairgrounds to the south end.

No parking will be allowed on the midway and area surrounding exhibit barns and building at any time.

Farm credit specialist reports to his boss

(He saved the boss $280.22 last year!)

The man on the left is a PCA fieldman . . . one of the most highly skilled farm credit specialists in his community.

The man on the right is a PCA Farmer-Member . . . and one of the fieldman's bosses.

Because PCA is owned by its farmer-members, the fieldman works for the farmers. He doesn't try to "sell" them anything. He's on their side . . . putting all his agricultural and financial training to work for them. He counsels on everything from taxes to the price his farmers should pay for feeder cattle. Naturally, your PCA man does not charge for these services.

But his biggest job is arranging the soundest credit terms for the members of his PCA . . . working out low-cost loans where interest is charged only during the time the money is actually used . . . and repayment schedules fit into the farm operation schedule.

This can run into big savings. This fieldman saved his "boss" $280.22 interest charges by consolidating his farm production expenses into one PCA loan!

Low-cost loans, sensible repayment schedules, and expert financial advice are just three reasons why most responsible farmers belong to PCA. It will pay you to belong, too. Get all the details at your local PCA office . . . headquarters of Modern Credit for Modern Farming. A phone call will bring a PCA man to your farm.

Wild Animal Show

A fast one and half hour show of all different animal acts, the movie stunt men and girls showing how the dangerous movie scenes are made is all part of the Gene Holter Wild Animal Show at the fair Monday, August 3, at 8 p.m. The dog, cat and pony act. It's a comic routine. The great white shepherd and wolf dogs working together. See "Flash" the only shepherd to do a back flip. "Rockey" the elephant, walking across a narrow plank and balancing in the middle. "Big Babe" will hold you spellbound as she puts her huge foot on top of a girl's face, walks over a person, lays down on them and even picks her trainer up in her jaws and carries him along the track.

You'll see over 60 animals and ostriches that performed in "Swiss Family Robinson", Toby Tyler, Tarzan, Jungle Jim, Elephant Walk, "Around the World in 80 Days," Big Circus, TV's Lassie, Rin Tin Tin, Mr. Ed, You Asked For It, and Beverly Hillbillies, plus many more.

One of the highlights of the show is the "Holter Kids" performing, unassisted, with "Big Babe" the five ton elephant. She is 79 years old and has been in over 200 movie pictures.

It's a riot to see local people driving the Ostriches on sulkies, the Camel races, wild animal derby, with everything from a Zebra to a Kangaroo, all ridden in the derby. Also the "Zeony" - 1/2 Zebra and 1/2 Pony.

You will see a fast one and a half hour show presented by Gene Holter direct from his "Movieland Animal Training Farm" in Bloomington, Calif.

Check Livestock Before Fair

Livestock farmers and youth with summertime desires to head for the county fair need to review the requirements governing exhibition of livestock, says Dr. Charles Reed, Michigan State university veterinary medicine specialist.

All species of livestock, the veterinarian points out, have certain requirements governing their exhibition.

Cattle must be identified by ear tag, tatoo or registration number. Official vaccinated animals under 30 months of age, native steers or calves under 12 months of age are not required to have a health certificate for show purposes. Reed also says Michigan cattle are not required to have a tuberculosis test in order to be exhibited at fairs.

Horses, sheep and poultry must be free from all infectious and contagious diseases for exhibition at fairs.

All swine exhibited in Michigan must be identified by ear tag, tatoo or ear button and be accompanied by a certificate signed by a veterinarian stating the hog cholera and immunization status. Swine must be vaccinated at least 21 days before the opening of the show.

These findings, plus other basic information uncovered in the tests, will be passed on to designers of dry-milk equipment who can then adjust processing techniques to insure high quality during the spray - dry process.
