

MAIN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

WELCOME TO
MAIN STREET

We are very proud of our students and staff!

A GREAT PLACE TO LEARN

1982 - 1983

MAIN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Lansing, Michigan

P.T.O. Board and volunteers

Some of our hard-working P.T.O. Board members.

Main Street mothers were generous with their time.

They tutored, helped in classrooms, handled R.I.F. and much more!

We named the bear "Snowflake" and wrote stories about him.

Even "cowboys" found time to read on Western Day.

We danced at the Lansing Mall!

Paula Limones and David Prout

And danced. . . and danced.

Nicole Jackson and Steven Boucha lead
Mrs. Millar's class.

Meesha Tanner and Jason Schmidt

Mrs. Bell's class learned to play the recorder.

We played our recorders at the Lansing Mall.

They liked our first song...let's play another one!

Miss Copeland teaches one of our 1st/2nd grade classes.

David Campbell likes to check papers in his free time.

Mrs. Millar takes a moment to assist Nicole Jackson.

Kyonna White is getting some help from the teacher.

We're really busy concentrating on our assignment.

Some of our "Citizens of the Month".

Aren't they a nice looking group? We are proud of them!

You can tell we are Safety Patrols. We wear orange vests.

We planned the May menu. Can we have pizza every day?

Parlez-vous francais? We do!

Our French teacher, Andrea Walsh, taught us well!

Eleanor Moore, School Nurse
Pinkie Moore, Family Helper

Evelyn Bush volunteered for the vision screening program.

Jennifer Nongueskwa and Jake
Houston get their vision checked.

Mr. Grist is instructing one of his reading groups.

Shannon Marsh, Jessica Lyons and Monica Reynaga.

Mrs. Woodward's Kindergarten class listens to a story.

Several students had the answer in Mrs. Tomaschek's class.

Monica Engardio, Michelle Phillips and Amy Baker.

Mr. Grist's class ate a Mexican meal at Ramon's in East Lansing.

We practiced our best table manners before we could go.

We selected the meal of our choice before we went.

It sure does look good!

It sure does taste good!

School lunches were never like this!

Our lunch aides and custodian. We couldn't function without them!

Lynn Gustafson coordinated the volunteer activities to benefit our children.
