

CW. OTTO'S

"THE 'KID'S' OF TODAY"

Forget
 Forget his name, Forget his face.
 Forget his kiss and warm embrace.
 Forget his love that once was true,
 Remember now there's someone new.

Forget the love you once shared.
 Forget the fact that he once cared.
 Forget the times you spent together.
 Remember now, he's gone forever.

Forget you cried the whole night long.
 Forget him when they play your song.
 Forget how close, that you once were.
 Remember now, he's chosen her.

Forget you memorized his walk.
 Forget the way he used to talk.
 Forget the times that he was mad.
 Remember now, he's happy, not sad.

Forget the time he used to phone.
 Forget the time you were alone.
 Forget he made your dreams come true.
 Remember now, there's someone new.

Forget his gentle teasing way.
 Forget you see him everyday.
 Forget the things you planned to do.
 Remember now, she loves him too.

Forget the way he held your hand.
 Forget the sweet things, if you can.
 Forget the way he spoke your name.
 Remember now, things aren't the same.

DOUG & MEL

Forget the thrill when he went by.
 Forget the times he made you cry.
 Forget the way he loved you, too.
 Remember now, there's someone new.

Forget the time that went by so fast.
 Forget them now, they're in the past.
 Forget he said "I'll leave you never!!!"
 Remember now, he's gone forever.

DEDICATION

We, the students of the 1977 yearbook staff, dedicate this year's yearbook to Mr. William Potter.

Mr. Potter has taught at Otto for 7 years. He formerly taught at Eastern for 28 years and Lapeer one year. He says Otto is a great school. His best year of teaching at Otto was 1977. His favorite subjects are Journalism and Grammar.

Mr. Potter's hobbies are motorcycle riding and pistol shooting.

He has been married for 37 years, has 2 children, one boy and one girl whom he loves very much.
