CLASS HISTORY

As we study the class records from the past 12 years we find that out of the class of 55 gay little youngsters who started school here in 1936, Mary Adcock, Roger Boettcher, Wilbur Cox, Mary Lee, Jim Driver, Bob Griffin, Jack Harris, Max Johnson, Jerry McAdams, Clem Miller, Patsy Mills, Larry Spurgeon, Suzanne Troost and Rod Waldofsky are the fourteen remaining members in our class of '49.

From the first through the fourth grades those who joined our class were Lois Crawford, Jane Nelson, Duane Page, and Jerry Traill in the first; Nancy Rodocker and Mike Smith in the Second; Don Brown in the third; and Jack Griffin in the fourth.

During the fifth and sixth grades Phyllis French, Carl Dougherty, Dewayne Howard, Ron Allen, Barbara Cornwell, Phil Tunningly, and Dale McComb were welcomed to our class.

Finally junior high was reached with Bob Grinstern, Betty Hicks, Don Hicks, Phyllis Laycock, Leo Mazurek, Joan Millhisler, Eugene Smith, Jim Smith, Harry Siedelberg, Don Stockenaur, Winton Watkins, Ken Weaver, Carol Haynes, and Joyce Lerner joining the class.

As juniors we were joined by Jack Martin, Marilyn Parkhurst, Carmeleata Crowley, Jo Ann Cole, and Van Greene.

On entering into our senior year we found that Mary Miller had joined the class. Carol Haynes had come back from Eastern. Don Brown and Dale McComb left us to join the Air Corps. We elected as Class officers Jerry McAdams, president; Mary Adcock, vice-president, Marilyn Parkhurst, secretary; and Phyllis Laycock as our treasurer.

This, the fourth year in the history of this great and wonderful class of 1949 has been one of much hard labor, and but little resting by the wayside; for preparations have been made by us to take our place in life.

ACTIVITIES

The Senior Play, entitled, "The Orchid Limousine", was presented November 19, and the Senior dance for the first semester was held November 25. The dance had a Thanksgiving theme and was called "Strutters' Ball". Music was furnished by Benny Wright.

We plan to take a trip to Washington, D. C. in the Spring, leaving sometime in May. Many and varied activities are being carried on to raise money for this trip, which we will make by train.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the senior class of '49, being of right mind and liberal disposition, do make, publish, and declare, this our last will and testament in the following manner:

First, we shall bequeath to the senior class of 1950, our most unworthy successors, all of our privileges, habits, standards, property, and anything else which might make their senior year at good old H. H. S. as pleasant as we have made ours.

To the sophomores, we wish to leave our financial genius for making wads of the good old long green.

Last but not least we want to will our ability to co-operate so well in class meetings to the freshmen.

Mary Ann Adcock	Wills her pleasant smile and sweetness to	Dick Federau
Ron Allen	Leaves his school books to	Nancy Meissner
Elwood Beck	Leaves his outstanding nickname "Airflow" with	Wayne Chaffee
Roger Boettcher	Wills his "gift of gab" to	Peggy Bollock
Jo Ann Cole	Bequeaths her clarinet to	Jo Chappell
Barbara Cornwell	Wills her quietness to	Ester Hartley
Wilbur Cox	Wills his skill at playing horseshoes to	Tom Lechlitter
Lois Crawford	Leaves her "B" or better average to	Janet Tarrant and Charles Williams

Carmeleata Crowley	Bequeaths her shyness to	Marilyn Bell
Carl Dougherty	Leaves his ability in fisticuffs to	"Duke" Allderver
Jim Driver	Wills his scholastic ambitions to	Bill Albert
